

Ernie Hecox was a Charlotte visitor Tuesday.

Mrs. E. E. Campbell is in Saginaw with her sister.

Louis Kidder went to Chicago for over Sunday.

Shirley Moore visited in Grand Rapids over Sunday.

Mrs. S. B. Williams returned to Ontonagon Sunday.

Fred Lenz was home from Battle Creek over Sunday.

Glen Housberger was over from Charlotte Sunday.

Mrs. D. R. Rowley has returned from a visit in Chicago.

Homer Brown visited in Jackson from Friday till Sunday.

C. C. Hallenbeck was in Lansing Wednesday on business.

Harley Dorman was at home from Detroit over the Fourth.

J. W. Galser is helping in Fox Bros. barber shop for a few weeks.

Harmon Hager and wife visited their children in Charlotte Tuesday.

Miss Bessie Benedict of Lansing, visited Mrs. Wm. Kroger last week.

Mrs. J. S. Rouse of Saginaw, is visiting her sister Mrs. S. A. Fuller.

Grace Stevens of Brinton is visiting her grandmother, Mrs. Wm. Parmenter.

Thos. Ditchfield of Chicago, was in town Saturday and the first of the week.

Mr. and Mrs. Garfield Inwood went to Detroit and Romeo Monday for a visit.

Harley Fox is spending a few days in Detroit and other points on a vacation.

Jay Moore and Dana Hammond were in Battle Creek from Friday night till Monday.

Attorney Arthur Kidder and family of Nashville, spent Sunday here with his parents.

Chas. Fuller and family of Camden, N. J., are visiting at his father's for the summer.

Mr. and Mrs. Irish of Jackson were the guests of her brother Frank Bailey and wife Sunday.

Miss Emma Flathau of Battle Creek visited her mother and sister from Saturday till Monday.

Harry Slout of Chicago, has been visiting his brother Will and other relatives in this vicinity.

Fred Kelly, wife and baby visited Friday and Saturday here with his sister, Mrs. Will Ferris.

Hon. H. G. Barber was at Irving Monday looking after business interests and in Charlotte Tuesday.

Hon. H. G. Barber spent a couple days in Coldwater last week and Mrs. Barber accompanied him home.

Louie Lamb has gone to Detroit from whence he starts on the road for D. M. Ferry & Co., the seed men.

Arthur Allen and family left Saturday morning for a visit with relatives at LaGrange and other Ohio points.

Jason Norton of Battle Creek, visited his brother, H. M. Norton and sister, Mrs. I. C. Norton over Sunday.

Myron Dikeman, who just graduated from the engineering department at M. A. C., has now a fine position in Detroit.

Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Sprague are back here from their wedding trip and will keep Dr. Green's residence open for a time.

Mrs. E. W. Stevens of Chicago, spent a few days of last week with her mother and Mr. and Mrs. J. V. Stevens.

Mrs. Ella Clemmer, better known as Ella Olds, and daughter Dorothy of Lansing, were callers in town Tuesday of last week.

Clarence Martin and family of Chicago, arrived Monday for their summer visit with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Martin.

Messrs. Hardenberg of Eaton Rapids and Briggs of Detroit, were the guests of Misses Myrtle Mitchell and Edith Martin Sunday.

Dr. H. W. Davis went to Burnips Corners Friday evening for a few days visit with his mother and brother, returning home Tuesday.

Earl Hager of Clarksville, spent a few days here last week at his uncle's, Dan'l Snoko, and with other numerous friends.

Dr. and Mrs. P. L. Green leave today for their summer's outing at Pe-toskey in company with Mr. and Mrs. W. I. Moyer of Chester.

Garfield Inwood opened up the fish season' at Thornapple Lake Sunday by capturing a 14 1/4 pound munge.

Webster Cook, principal of the Saginaw schools, who passed away June 29th was a business partner of C. G. Wade in the publication of the "Michigan Schoolmaster" a teacher's magazine.

Ed Campbell is walking around mighty careful now days. He took a tumble thru the scaffolding at John Remalie's barn one day last week and as a result broke one rib and cracked a couple more.

Of over seventy taking the teachers examination at Charlotte only twelve passed. Of that number Alice Green, Ruth Powers, Blanche Briggs and Martha Mason were the lucky ones from this town.

Mr. Clarence Moulton, and Miss Francis Titus of Battle Creek, spent from Friday till Monday with E. D. Barber's here and at their Thornapple Lake cottage.

Herman Zemke was over to Chicago last week when he purchased one of the latest improved Minneapolis threshers. He says he will be able to thresh grain faster and better than ever before.

Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Campbell were in Lake Odessa Monday where Mr. C. had a portion of one finger cut off. A number of years ago he hurt the finger while harnessing a horse and it has bothered him for some time lately, so that best to have it taken off.