

15

PERSONAL MENTION.

Keith Barber Sundayed at Thornapple.

Geo. Dwight was a Charlotte visitor Friday.

Louie Lentz of Charlotte, Sundayed at home.

Geo. Wimple spent Sunday with his parents.

Mrs. Chas. Fuller spent Friday in Nashville.

Frank Ward of Charlotte, was in town Monday.

Ed Eckhart was in Lansing Saturday on business.

E. F. Johnson of Lansing spent Thursday in town.

Max Irish of Jackson, visited at C. Hale's Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. F. J. Bailey visited in Charlotte Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. Leon Spitzer spent Monday in Charlotte.

Miss Della Griswold spent the last of the week in Charlotte.

Mr. and Mrs. John Scarvell went to Columbus, Ohio, Thursday.

Geo. Lenon of Ainger was a caller at F. J. Bailey's Friday.

Roy and Jesse Lamb and family of Lake Odessa were over Sunday.

E. G. Bowman and wife spent Sunday with his parents in Caledonia.

W. H. Benedict spent Monday in Charlotte on probate court business.

Mrs. E. F. Tubbs is entertaining her sister, Mrs. Wheeler, of Charlotte.

Miss Laura Church returned from her visit at Detroit and Vernon Monday.

Misses Lena and Della Stiles and Chas. Stiles Sundayed in Grand Rapids.

Miss Etha Hammond is visiting in Hastings, Grand Rapids and Coopersville.

Miss Emma Bodine and family spent Friday at Thornapple Lake enjoying a picnic.

Misses Louise and Edith Lentz spent Sunday at Gull Lake with friends.

Mrs. Minnie Remalie and children of Portland, are visiting relatives and friends here.

J. C. Downing, George Niles and Dale Downing were all over to Charlotte Friday.

Mark Mahar and wife of Jackson spent Sunday with his mother and brother here.

Mrs. Edna Arnold and son came Monday for a visit with her mother, Mrs. Dickinson.

Andrew and Lura Rawson of La Grange, Ohio, are visiting friends and relatives here.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Perkey of Lansing, are visiting her people here for a few days.

Arthur Allen and family returned Friday evening from a week's visit with relatives in Ohio.

Mrs. R. W. Smith returned home Thursday from several days' visit with her people at Mason.

Mrs. J. L. Green and daughter Alice left Monday for a two-weeks visit at Traverse City.

H. W. Campbell and son Howard of Cleveland, spent a portion of the past week here with his people.

Morrison Wood and James Willett of Chicago, are visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Barber.

Jones Martin, wife and children of Battle Creek, are here for a visit with H. J. Martin and family.

Mrs. Cameron Earl and Miss Mary Earl of Kalama visited at Will Bennett's a part of last week.

Al Brown and M. L. Stiles left Tuesday by auto for Detroit where they will visit a few days.

Walter Moore of Battle Creek has been visiting his brother Jay and other friends here for a few days.

Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Potts of Hastings, spent Sunday with her aunt, Mrs. H. L. Williams and family.

Miss M. Louise Smith of Ithaca, New York, has been spending a few days at the home of S. S. Rockwell.

Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Curtis and daughter Evelyn are visiting in Petokey, Boyne City, Charlevoix, and Frankfort.

Beet Gregg and wife and Miss Gregg of Belding, came Thursday for a visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Moore.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Gaut and children of Nashville are spending a few days at the home of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harley Smith.

Julius and James Wood returned to Charlotte Thursday evening after a few days' visit here with their grandmother, Mrs. H. G. Barber.

Mrs. Bertina Allen and little George Coonley returned to Detroit today after a few weeks' visit with her parents here, Mr. and Mrs. Jos. Bale.

Florence Lafarge returned to Swartz Creek Thursday after a couple months' visit with her cousins, Geo. and Ethelyn Wimple.

Mr. and Mrs. S. E. Canaan leave today for their home at DeKolt, N. Y.

Mr. C. has been spending his vacation here and Mrs. C. is the daughter of Mrs. Pepe.

Mr. and Mrs. Lenard Eisenhood have been visiting their relatives here for a few days. She is better known here as Bertha Fashbaugh. They returned to Battle Creek Saturday.

C. S. Arnold, who has for the past three months been a clerk in Nott's dry goods store, has accepted a position with a dry goods firm in Flint, and will move to that city next week. Mr. Arnold came here from Traverse City, and has made friends during his brief residence in Grand Ledge.—Grand Ledge Times.