Mrs. Florence Garrett Dies Suddenly At Her Home Monday

Funeral services for Mrs Florence Garrett 58, will be held this afternoon, Thursday January 3 at 2:00 pm from the Vogt funeral home. Mrs Garrett passed away suddenly at her home on Nashville highway, Monday, December 30th.

Mrs Garrett who was employed at Hastings Manufacturing Co., was born October 31, 1904 in Hubbel, Michigan, the daughter of Alex and Mary Armstrong Learmont. May 23, 1928 she was married to George Garrett at Vermontville.

Surviving besides the husband, is one daughter, Mrs Paul (Bernice) Schwab and one son, Donald Garrett both of Vermontville; four brothers, Harry Learmont of Hubbel, Elmer Learmont of Colorado, George and Phillip Learmont both of Detroit; one sister, Mrs Bernice Axford of Pompono Beach, Florida and five grandchildren.

Rev. Edwin Clark of the Vermontville Congregational Church will officiate and burial will be in Woodlawn cemetery.

Funeral Services Held Monday For Emil Mykytuk

Funeral services were held Monday morning at St Cyril Catholic church in Nashville for Emil Mykytuk, 67. Mr Mykytuk passed away suddenly at his home on Ionia road early Friday morning.

He was born April 4, 1895 in Austria Poland, the son of Iwan and Anna (Stanislawska) Mykytuk. He lived in Detroit before coming to Vermontville fourteen years ago. May 15, 1948 he was married to Mary Fina at Nashville.

Surviving besides the widow are two brothers, Anthony of Detroit and Basil if Ukraine-Austria.

Rosary was said at 8:00 pm Sunday night at the Vogt Funeral home. Father Pattock of Lake Odessa officiated and burial was in Woodlawn cemetery.

CONGRESSIONAL DISTRICT

| | | |