

Smith returned to Harbor Springs Monday.

Mrs. J. W. Ransom is visiting relatives at Kalkaska.

Myron Bronson, of Hastings, is visiting friends in town.

M. L. Bilderbeck went to Lansing, Monday on business.

Misses Della and Ruth Griswold are visiting in Charlotte.

Mrs. S. J. Todd returned from a visit in Port Huron, Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Davis spent a part of last week at Duck Lake.

Mr. and Mrs. Ned Wells returned to their Kentucky home, Saturday.

Mrs. Will Lackey returned Thursday from her visit at white Cloud.

Mickie Mahar is spending a few days with his brother in Jackson.

Mrs. L. D. Benedict and two sons returned to Rogers Park, Ill., Monday.

Mrs. Orrin Clapper returned Friday from her summer vacation at Petoskey.

S. J. Todd went to Detroit and Toledo, Monday, for a few weeks visit.

Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Weber are spending a few days at Greenleaf, Wis.

Mrs. Jas. Shepherd and children went to Boyne Falls, Monday for a visit.

Myra Ward is spending a couple of weeks with Mrs. Harry Earl, in Kalamo.

Roy Hammond was at Grand Rapids visitor, Friday, riding up on his bicycle.

Mr. and Mrs. M. Herrick are visiting their son and daughter at Harbor Springs.

Miss Cora Armstrong, of Detroit, visited at Ned Sprague's, the past week.

Mrs. Fred Rickle and daughter Elsie are spending the week at Toledo and Detroit.

Mrs. D. R. Finley and son Claude, of Battle Creek, are here for a few days stay.

Miss Ruth Giswold spent from Thursday to Saturday with Lansing friends.

Miss Della Griswold returned from her trip up to Duluth, last Friday evening.

Chet Martin returned to his school work at Columbus, O., Monday morning.

Hon. H. G. Barber went to Chicago, Monday morning to buy goods for the big store.

Miss Edith Martin left Monday morning for Mt. Pleasant where she teaches this year.

Miss Annie Brosch, of Traverse City, is here for the fall millinery season with Mrs. Willett.

Don Hawkins and family went up to Boyne Falls, Monday, for a few days stay on their farm.

Blanche Sprague returned Monday from Hastings where she has been visiting her sister.

Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Wright, of Chicago, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. George Lamb last week.

Mrs. W. C. Sackett and daughter left Monday evening for their new home in Lansing after a few days visit here with relatives.

Mrs. Edwin H. Potter and Mrs. Aldrich A. Potter spent a part of last week visiting relatives in Hastings, Shultz and Kalamazoo.

Edward and Baronica Flathau returned to Chicago Saturday after several weeks visit with their grandmother, Mrs. Bertha Flathau.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest E. Sprague are in Calumet where they attended the marriage of their oldest son, Clare to Miss Laura Seldon at the bride's home in that city.

Mesdames George and Charles Lamb accompanied Mr. and Mrs. Wright and daughter to Lake Odessa, Friday, as guests of their aunt, Miss Mary Wright and father, J. W. Wright.

Editor and Mrs. H. H. Curtis and daughter Evelyn returned Thursday morning from their outing at Crystal Lake, a beautiful resort situated adjacent to Lake Michigan, near Frankfort.

The Misses Ethel Sprague, of St. Louis, Mo. and Grace Baker, of Nashville, visited their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. P. A. Sprague, last week. Miss Sprague teaches in Cheboygan next year.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Fuller and baby went to Detroit Thursday. From there Mr. Fuller went to his school work in Brooklyn, Monday. Mrs. Fuller will come to Vermontville again before going east.

Mrs. Wm. Haynes and Miss Ethel Haynes returned Thursday evening to their home in Vernon.

Miss Annis Flathau accompanied her sister to Cleveland, Saturday, where she expects to spend some time visiting relatives and friends.

Ethel and Virgil Kidder left Thursday morning for Big Rapids where they go to enter the Ferris Institute for a course of study.

E. D. Barber and family and Alsover are back home again after their two weeks stay at Thornapple Lake.

Mrs. W. A. Reid has returned to Chicago after several weeks visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Weber.

Miss Ada Bently, at one time teacher in our schools, now of Salt Lake City, was the guest of Miss Martin last week.

Miss Nina Flathau returned to Cleveland Saturday morning after a couple weeks vacation at home.

Dr. and Mrs. P. L. Green returned Wednesday evening, from their summer's outing at Petoskey.

Mrs. M. Mahar and Miss Lillian Crandell visited Mrs. Bert Bell in Kalamo the first of the week.

Mrs. H. C. Loring, Grand Rapids, Mrs. H. C. Green, of Chicago and Mrs. L. C. Minor, of Hot Springs, Ark. are visiting at Mrs. Wm. Griswold's. Mrs. Minor will be remembered well here as Miss Neena Green.

12