

Word comes from Harbor Springs that a young son arrived at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Folger on the 14th.

E. F. Johnson who has been in THE ECHO office for the past few weeks, left Saturday for Ithaca where he has a position.

Mrs. Lou Norris came Saturday night from Alameda, Cal., for a visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Alderman.

Ruth Griswold is spending a few days in Olivet. She goes from there to Flint to attend a wedding and then to Ypsilanti, where she resumes her school work next Monday.

John Faust returned to Detroit on Saturday, after a couple of weeks vacation spent here with his brothers and sister. Keith Barber accompanied him for over Sunday, and to consult a specialist.

Mrs. C. S. Snell and daughter Miss Norena left Thursday night for the east. They will visit the Thousand Islands and at Portland, for a couple of weeks and then go to Boston where Miss Norena enters a private school.

Clare N. Beck of Saugatuck came down for an over Sunday visit with his parents. He has recently been promoted to the position of agent for the interurban road and the U. S. Express company at Saugatuck, and says he enjoys the work very much. It is a fine position and is well deserved promotion for Clare.

SEPTEMBER 30, 1908

Mrs. M. Mahar and son Mikie, were Jackson visitors over Sunday.

Amos Jenks of Battle Creek, was a guest at Jay Ward's last week.

Hubert Wilson of Grand Rapids visited his parents over Sunday.

Miss Gladys Lewis of Delton, is a guest at the home of E. L. Jones.

Mrs. Flossie Lennon of Ainger, is spending the week with her parents.

Attorney F. A. Dean and J. C. Nichols were in town Tuesday on business.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Corwin of Mason, visited his uncle, Ed Eckhart last week.

Lizzie Polhamus of Eaton Rapids visited her aunt, Mrs. Ed Eckhart last week.

Phineas Miller of Grand Rapids was the guest of Fred Wilson over Sunday.

Mrs. Harriette Sprague came Tuesday noon for a few days visit at Dr. P. L. Green's.

Catherine Griswold left for Chicago, Saturday, where she will attend the Lewis Institute.

Mrs. B. J. Narragang and son of Byron Center, visited her aunt Mrs. A. C. Pope the past week.

Mrs. Will Lackey went to Jackson, Saturday, for a few day visit with the family of H. S. Rausch.

Mrs. Edward P. Church of Oberlin, Ohio, is visiting at the home of her nephew, H. H. Church.

Mrs. E. McKinney and baby of Milwaukee, is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Alderman.

Mrs. F. H. Sheldon and son Kenneth leave to day for their home in Matilija Calif., after several months visit with her mother, Mrs. A. C. Pope.

Miss Jennie Martin leaves to day for Rock Island, Ill., and Wilton, Ia., for a visit. She will spend some time in Chicago before returning.

Misses Hortense Holt, Emma Powers and Bessie Granger went to Ypsilanti the past week, where they took up their work in the State Normal.

Rolland Dorman of Cadillac, came Saturday morning for a visit with his people. He went to Detroit Monday to visit his brother Harley and expects to return here for a portion of this week.

Dr. C. S. Snell and brother Dr. F. L. Snell of Kalamazoo, left last Wednesday evening for an extended trip thru Kentucky and Tennessee. They will visit Leroy Snell at Knoxville, Tenn., before returning.

A. R. Brown and wife, of Los Angeles, Calif., were the guests of his brother, A. B. Brown a portion of last week. They went on to New York, but will return here for a more extended visit, before returning west.

Mrs. Paul Jones, Mrs. W. H. Horton and Cecil Marsh of Cleveland, O., spent last week here with the families of Lee Marsh and Jay Ward. Myra Ward accompanied them to Cleveland Saturday, where she expects to attend school this winter.

The sad news of the death of H. Jay Warner was received here Sunday from Roswell, New Mexico, where he went some time since in hopes of recovery. The remains will be sent home but just when they will arrive is not known. His brother, Clare, left him about a week ago much improved in health and his death came as a shock to the family.

OCTOBER 7, 1908.

Mrs. Wm. Griswold is visiting in Chicago.

C. A. Halenbeck was in Charlotte, Tuesday.

I. W. Berry is spending a few days in Grand Rapids.

Dr. H. W. Davis was in Hastings on business Monday.

Dana Hammond was at home from the M. A. C. over Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Loveland were Charlotte visitors Tuesday.

Glen Lake is taking his vacation and is visiting in Kalamazoo.

Hassell Jackson of Grand Rapids, was at home for over Sunday.

Dr. C. S. Snell returned Tuesday evening from his Southern trip.

Miss Agnes Tonnefe of Boyne City, is the guest of Miss Edith Rockwell.

Miss Anna Hall spent Sunday at home from Coldwater with her parents.

Dr. Allen of Portland was over to see his brother, S. G. Allen Sunday.

Louie Lamb has returned from his summer work with D. M. Ferry & Co.