

Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Hammond will entertain D. M. Warner and wife of Sparta, David Young and family, Roy Hammond and wife, Mrs. Aldrich and Dana Hammond.

Lee Miles and family will have N. E. McLaughlin and family with them. With the gathering at the Wells home near by and at the Miles home, the outlook is good for a famine in that neighborhood.

Mr. and Mrs. P. A. Sprague will feed turkey, goose and other good things to Ned Sprague and family, Dr. Baker and family of Nashville, Clarence Harrington and family of Needmore and Frank Harrington and family of Charlotte.

Club dance Thanksgiving night.

There will be no meeting this week of Shelter Hive L. O. T. M. M.

Dr. and Mrs. Snell gave a little dinner party Saturday evening in honor of Mr. and Mrs. D. M. Warner of Sparta.

Mr. and Mrs. N. E. McLaughlin entertained the school board, teachers and senior class Friday evening at their home. A report of the state convention was given and matters of interest to school work were discussed. H. G. Barber was in Irving Monday on business.

H. M. Norton was over from Charlotte, Monday.

Mrs. Della Griswold is spending a week at Charlotte.

Dr. H. W. Davis was in Hastings Monday, on business.

County Agent W. W. Stine was in town Friday, on business.

St. Clare Parsons and Robert Griswold spent Sunday in Olivet.

Mr. and Mrs. F. B. Benedict were Grand Rapids visitors Monday.

H. J. Martin goes to Chicago Thursday to attend the big fat stock show.

Mrs. M. Mahar spent Sunday and Monday at Hastings visiting relatives.

State Pharmacy Inspector Henderson was in town Saturday, on business.

Jas. Young has returned from a two months visit in Detroit and Battle Creek.

Miss Eva Evans of Nashville spent Friday and Saturday at the home of E. L. Jones.

Mrs. Glen D. Eddy spent a portion of last week at the home of her parents in Jackson.

Dr. C. S. Snell was in Albion, on Tuesday, to operate on patients in the hospital there.

Mr. and Mrs. E. F. Tubbs left on Friday for a few days visit in Kalamazoo and Battle Creek.

Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Sackett returned Monday from a few days visit in Lansing with their sons.

Mrs. James Willson and Mrs. Mahar attended the aid society meeting at Kalamo, Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Lon Hill are spending a couple of weeks visiting in Indiana, going there Saturday.

Mrs. Mary Griswold left Thursday for Traverse City, going by way of Flint, where she visits for a few days.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Rogers returned to Jackson, Thursday evening after a ten days visit with her sister, Mrs. A. D. Lake.

Mrs. F. F. Ambrose went to Belding Thursday, where she is enjoying a ten days visit with her daughter, Mrs. Vera Gregg.

Grant Hawkins has been laid off for a few days on account of sickness. Arbie Lovell has been delivering mail on his route.

Mr. and Mrs. D. M. Warner of Sparta, have been spending the past week at the homes of David Young and C. E. Hammond.

E. L. Jones, C. H. Cherry and John Kenworthy were in Hastings Tuesday attending the dedication of the new Masonic Temple just completed in that city.

W. C. Alsover and H. H. Curtis with their wives attended the big game banquet given by the Charlotte Knights of Pythias lodge Thursday evening in the Pythian Temple of that place.

Miss Ruth Griswold comes home from Ypsilanti for Thanksgiving, stopping in Charlotte for the dancing party last evening which she attended in company with her brother Robert. Mrs. Gusey, mother of Mrs. Leniz and Messrs Chas and Herman Gusey died Sunday morning at the home of her son Charles. She was past eighty years of age and an old resident. The funeral took place Tuesday afternoon burial being made at the Cogsdill cemetery.

Mrs. Dille of Roxand, daughter of Jas. Tomlinson of this village was found dead in a ditch a short distance from the house Sunday. A few days since she became insane and it was expected that she would be removed to Kalamazoo for treatment shortly. She is survived by a husband and six children.

Division "A" of the Monday Musical Club gave their informal entertainment last Tuesday evening and those who saw the wonderful stunts performed by the several participants say that the work was something that would attract attention on any vaudeville circuit in America. The entertainment consisted of numerous vaudeville numbers, illustrated songs and an adaptation from the Wizard of Oz poppy field scene. Refreshments were served and all had a delightful time and voted this division to be masters in the entertaining art.

DECEMBER 2, 1908.

C. L. S. Johnson was in town Monday.

Mrs. M. J. Herrick visited in Olivet the past week.

Mrs. J. C. Downing is in Grand Ledge for a few days.

N. E. McLaughlin spent Monday in Charlotte on business.

Harley Dorman came down from Detroit for Thanksgiving.

Mrs. Celia Clark left Monday morning for her home in Lansing.

Mrs. Frank Ambrose returned Monday from her visit at Belding.