

Miss Myrta Tyler, who teaches in Lansing, is spending her Christmas vacation at home.

Miss Edith Martin is at home for the holiday vacation, from Mt. Pleasant, where she teaches.

Mrs. W. R. Wells and daughter of Woodbury spent Wednesday with her sister, Mrs. Arthur Allen.

Dana Hammond, Milton Sprague and Walter Weber are at home for the holidays from the M. A. C.

Misses Ruth Powers, Bessie Granger, Ruth Griswold and Hortense Holt came home Friday from Ypsilanti.

James Shepard and family, have gone to Battle Creek for the winter where he will work in a food factory.

Mrs. Vera Gregg of Belding comes Thursday for a few days visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. F. Ambrose.

Miss Predmore went to Detroit for over Sunday and will spend the balance of her vacation at her home in Cass City.

Mr. O. W. Mains of Spring Arbor, has been spending a couple of days visiting Rev. S. A. McGee and his son Victor Mains.

Mrs. George Moss, and daughter Beulah, have gone to Pontiac to spend the holidays with her husband, who is in business there.

Mr. and Mrs. Don Hawkins left Tuesday for Birmingham, Alabama where they will spend several weeks with Mrs. Hawkins father and brothers. They expect to visit other cities.

Dr. Fred Barrett of Jonesville was in town Tuesday renewing old acquaintances. Something over twenty years ago Fred was known as one of the greatest roller skaters in the country and gave a number of exhibitions here at the old rink.

Michael Mahar returned Friday from his summer's work in Minnesota where he has been in charge of a large gang of men building track for the Northern Pacific. One part of the work was the construction of a trestle seven miles long and sixty-five high and after that was completed dirt was drawn in and dumped till the banks were up to the grade of the track.

Loveland Bros. drug store had a close call for a fire Monday evening when a piece of the lamp globe in the north window fell out into the cotton-batan that was used in the window trimmings and set fire to it. A fire extinguisher close by was put into speedy action but not before the decorations had been burnt up.

DECEMBER 30, 1908

Byron Campbell of Levering visited his people last week.

Miss Aldrich of Sturgis is visiting her mother and sister.

Hubert Wilson of Grand Rapids was at home over Sunday.

Glenn Honsberger visited at Mrs. Lentz's over Christmas.

Joe Griswold was at home from Chicago for a few days.

Dwight Davis is at home from the U. of M. for the vacation.

Miss Edith Martin is at home from Mt. Pleasant for the vacation.

Hortense Holt went to Battle Creek Tuesday for a few days visit.

Warren Moore was here for Christmas day at Edward Sibbrell's.

Lyle Clapper of Detroit was out for a few days visit with his mother.

Clifford Potter of Charlotte came over for the dancing party Friday.

Mrs. Rose Griswold and family spent Christmas day in Charlotte.

Grace Haynes came over from Charlotte Monday evening for the party.

Mrs. Niles of Olivet visited her son George and family over Christmas.

L. P. Lamb spent from Saturday till Monday in Mason with a friend.

Miss Zella Allen is at home from her work in Chicago for a couple of weeks.

M. J. Herrick spent the past week at Harbor Springs with his children.

Harley Dorman came up from Detroit for Christmas and remained till Monday.

Fred Lentz of Battle Creek and Lou Lentz of Charlotte was at home to celebrate.

J. E. Pennington and family of Charlotte spent Christmas day at Geo. Dwight's.

Sidney Marble made a flying trip from Chicago to Vermontville for Christmas day.

Perry Fox came down from Middleville for the party and stayed a couple of days.

Leslie and Collin Seymour are spending the week with their cousins in Grand Rapids.

Mr. and Mrs. E. F. Edmonds spent from Thursday till Monday in Grand Rapids and Muskegon.

Mr. and Mrs. N. E. McLaughlin have been spending the past week with her people near Olivet.

Mrs. S. G. Allen and Mrs. Della Rae went to Flint Monday morning for a visit at C. G. Wade's.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Lenon of Ainger visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Bailey over Christmas.

Mr. and Mrs. John Scarvell of Greenville are visiting her parents during the holiday vacation.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Remalie and children of Portland are visiting their parents here for a few days.

J. O. Cornell and family and Mrs. Sarah Norton spent Christmas with the latter's brother, John Irving.

Mrs. Ada Shafer and two daughters of Fort Wayne are visiting their cousins, Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Cornell.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Wright of Hastings visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Sprague over Christmas.

Mr. and Mrs. S. O. Irish and son Max of Jackson spent Christmas with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. G. Bale.

Mark Hammond spent a few days at home from Ann Arbor, going back Sunday to take up some special work.

Mr. and Mrs. Marion Sparks and children of Lansing visited her parents Henry Cross and family over Xmas.