

Miss Eva Kelly was in Nashville Tuesday.

Ned Alsover spent Sunday at home from Charlotte.

Hon. H. G. Barber was a Charlotte visitor Tuesday.

Mrs. Susan Knickerbocker has been sick the past week.

Frank Hay was in Charlotte, on business, Tuesday.

George Niles was in Olivet on business, the first of the week.

Dana Hammond was at home from the M. A. C. over Sunday.

N. Kettingger made a business trip to Charlotte, Tuesday.

Miss Emma Bodine is very sick at her home on South Main St.

Mrs. E. E. Loveland is in Charlotte at the hospital for treatment.

Dr. C. S. Snell was in Charlotte Tuesday on professional business.

We are pleased to announce that Dr. B. D. Niles is improving in health.

Elmer Hawkins is at home from Lansing for a few days visit with his parents.

Mrs. Flossie Lennon, of Ainger is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. J. Bailey.

Mrs. F. J. Bailey spent Monday and Tuesday in Charlotte, visiting at Mark Bailey's.

Frank Rawson and Vern Hiar were over to the county seat Tuesday transacting business.

Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Loveland are in Charlotte looking after their hotel which is nearing completion.

Mrs. R. V. Neal arrived in the village Friday to join her husband, who has accepted a position with the ECHO.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Wilson and children, of Grand Rapids have been visiting at James Wilson's for a few days.

Miss Norena Snell is visiting in Lansing, Charlotte and Potterville, for a few days, going to the former place, Wednesday.

Mrs. Della Rae returned Friday night, from Flint, where she has been spending the last three weeks, caring for Mrs. Jennie Allen Wade.

Saturday evening Mrs. David Young gave a small tea party to a few of her friends.

The big Red Tag Sale of Patterson Bros., Charlotte, is drawing large crowds.

The Taka Embroidery Club will meet with Mrs. M. Mahar, Wednesday the 27th.

Advertised mail for period ending Jan. 18, 1909: Mrs. Ellen Williams, Mr. George Downs, Mr. J. R. Taylor.

The masquerade dance Friday evening was not very largely attended. However those who were there report having a fine time.

Allen & Andrews have discarded their old soft coal stove in their store and now heat the place with a big favorite base burner.

Will Dean the new livery and hack owner has rented the Vaughn house and has moved into it with his family.

Granger & McLaughlin have purchased the balance of the Bunger stock of goods and will make prices that will surprise the people. Read their advertisement elsewhere.

The chicken pie supper at the Congregational Church parlors Thursday evening was attended by a large crowd and any one who went away without getting his or her share of the good things must have been exceedingly bashful.

The Sipio mill dam went out Tuesday afternoon. This is a big loss as the dam had been placed in first class condition last fall. It is thought the cement was not sufficiently cured out before the water was turned on and the pressure of the ice caused it to break away.

At the recent bank elections held by the Merchants' National and Eaton County Savings Banks at Charlotte Ned B. Alsover was chosen as the assistant cashier of both those solid institutions. Hon. H. G. Barber, of course, was re-elected vice-president of both banks.

Word was received here that Mrs. A. G. Jewell died at her home in Chicago Monday and would be buried in Mt. Hope cemetery to-day. Mrs. Jewell will be remembered as the wife of A. G. Jewell a former Vermontville man and postmaster. She was sick but a few days with pneumonia.

The elevator is a busy place on days. Lots of grain of all kinds coming, a lot of girls are busy picking beans and in fact every one about the place is on the jump.

J. D. Dancer has sold the big eagle he recently purchased of John Gaut to the Charlotte Aerie of Eagles. It has been placed in their lodge room as an emblem of the order.

One of those fine G. A. R. suppers was fully enjoyed at the post hall last evening by a large crowd. After the supper a fine program was given and a very pleasant time was enjoyed by all.

The Smith school gave their teacher, Miss Hazel Baker, a surprise at her home east of town Friday evening. They presented her with a fine Post card album and enjoyed a very happy evening.

JANUARY 27, 1909 (32)

Moves to Charlotte.

A. W. Loveland, proprietor of the Park Hotel here for the past two years, left Tuesday for Charlotte, where he will enter into a partnership with Mrs. Hopping and assume the management of the Hotel Windsor at that place. Mr. Loveland while in Vermontville conducted a first-class hotel and demonstrated his abilities in this line, and together with Mrs. Hopping, who has had considerable hotel experience in Grome, Georgia, should give the people of Charlotte a first-class hostelry. Their friends here wish them success in their new venture.

0.6
Use

Stron

c

S

S

C

Y

1

Col

or

Cr

str

fla

S

S

S

S

S

S

S

S

S

S

S

S

S

S

S

S

S

S

S

S

S

S

S

S

S

S

S

S

S

S

S

S

S

S

S

S

S

S

S

S

S

S

S

S

S

S

S

S

S

S

S