

The Evening News and the Herald, published at Rutland, Vermont, pay very pretty compliments to Mr. and Mrs. Charles T. Fairfield for their entertainment at dinner last Saturday evening of the members of the prudential committee of the Congregational society, together with the pastor of the church, Rev. W. H. Spence, and wife. Mr. and Mrs. Fairfield gave the dinner as a jollification function to celebrate the important event of the church being entirely free from debt for the first time in thirty years. Rev. Spence was at one time pastor of the Vermontville Congregational church and his many friends here will be pleased to hear of his success.

Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Wilde of New York City, well known here, mourn the loss of an infant son. Mr. David Young receiving a telegram to that effect on Friday. They have the sympathy of the entire community.

Rev. Mr. Parsons has accepted an invitation to deliver two addresses to the college students at Olivet on Thursday, the day being set apart as the students' national day of prayer.

Mrs. Ursula Lanckton of Grand Rapids has just returned from Buffalo, N. Y., where she was called by the sickness and death of her husband. Mr. Lanckton had been ill for a number of years and was at the home of his sister when he died on Wednesday, January 13th. Mrs. Lanckton was connected with our schools here for a number of years and made many friends, who will extend their sympathy.

Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Martin are receiving the congratulations of their many friends over the arrival of a grand-daughter, named Catherine Isabel, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jones Martin, in Battle Creek on Sunday, Jan. 24.

Having just added a fine new gasoline engine to our plant and given our machinery a thorough overhauling, THE Echo is now in a position to turn out job work of all descriptions on short notice. Call us up or drop into the office and let's talk it over.

Chas. Stiles was in Jackson over Sunday.

Mrs. H. H. Curtis was in Charlotte Tuesday.

Ward Quick of Nashville was in town today.

S. S. Rockwell has been quite ill the past week.

M. J. Herrick was in Grand Rapids Friday on business.

N. E. McLaughlin was in Charlotte on business, Friday.

John Lake of Nashville, was here Friday on business.

Frank McConnell of Bellevue was in town, Thursday.

Dr. C. S. Snell was in Charlotte Tuesday, on business.

Dana Hammond spent Sunday at home from the M. A. C.

Mrs. Nelly Hull is making an extended visit in Ann Arbor.

Hollis Campbell of Cleveland spent Sunday with his parents.

Mrs. Frank Ambrose spent Saturday and Sunday in Charlotte.

Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Weber are visiting in Flint and Chicago.

Wm. Wells of Woodbury, was in town on business, Tuesday.

Miss Hazel Shutter of Kalamo was a visitor in town on Saturday.

Chas. Parks made a business trip to Grand Rapids Friday night.

Mrs. E. E. Sprague leaves tomorrow to visit her son Clare in New York.

Mrs. Elvira Wyman visited her sister, Mrs. A. Satterlee, last Friday.

S. Clapper of the Florence House was in Charlotte Friday on business.

Mrs. T. J. Lyon of Kalamo is visiting her daughter Mrs. James Wilson.

Mikie Mahar and George Hunter spent Sunday in Hastings with friends.

Robert Griswold drove to Ionia Monday with the body of Mrs. Pat Dooling.

Clare McDerby of Nashville was in the village one day last week on business.

Rev. W. S. Reed of Nashville called on friends in town the latter part of last week.

Mrs. Henry Bunker and son, of Aurelius are visiting Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Echart.

Mrs. A. E. Snyder and daughter, of Wauseon, Ohio, are visiting at John Gearhart's.

Miss Ida Barningham, of Hastings, came down Friday for a few days visit with Alice Green.

Miss Dorra Gokey, of Nashville, was the guest of Miss Blanche Jones last week for a few days.

Claud Miller of Bellevue was a guest at the home of Frank Kroger the latter part of last week.

Mrs. Kate Barhyte of Battle Creek is visiting her mother, Mrs. Mary J. Clapper, for a few days.

Mr. and Mrs. Pat Dooling, Jr., of Rives Junction, were called here by the sickness and death of Mrs. Pat Dooling, Sr.

A. L. Brown returned Friday evening from Grand Rapids, where he has been in the hospital undergoing an operation.

Mrs. F. M. Cox of Springport is visiting her sister, Mrs. N. E. McLaughlin. Mr. Cox spent a few days last week here.

Mr. and Mrs. M. Mahar spent Sunday in Ionia visiting her sister, Mrs. Aldrich and attended the funeral of Mrs. Pat Dooling, Monday.

Miss Gladys Osborn of Ann Arbor came to see her sister, Mrs. R. P. Woodworth, Thursday and returned the next day, taking her brother with her.

Mrs. F. L. Osborn, who has been making an extended visit with her daughter, Mrs. R. P. Woodworth, returned to her home in Ann Arbor Friday, taking little Ellen Woodworth with her for a visit.