

contest and long before the closing of the polls the office was generally conceded to Faust as it was known that his friends were working for him and that the stickers were getting in their work.

The following is the vote:—

For President—
C. A. Anderson	128
For Clerk—
C. C. Hallenbeck	131
For Treasurer—
M. L. Stiles	133
For Trustee (2 years)—
R. L. Griswold	132
Don J. Hawkins	126
John Rawson	132
Trustee (to fill vacancy)—
Joseph Faust	68
G. B. Mowrey	62

The election board comprised Ned McLaughlin, Moses Cross and Morson Worden as inspectors, Edmond Sprague and Greeley Fox, clerks; John Morris and Wm. Wright, gate keepers. Wm. Ransom "also ran" with one vote to his credit for President, while Faust received one for the same office and one for clerk.

Mrs. Sarah A. Ward, well known in this vicinity, and at one time a resident of this place, who is spending the winter with her daughter, Mrs. Lucy Grinell, of Detroit, was ninety-two years old the eighth of March. Her many friends here have sent her a post card shower in honor of the cent.

Mrs. Steyer on the sick list.

Mrs. Clem's better at this writing.

J. O. Bunker was in Charlotte, Tuesday.

M. Mahar is visiting his son Mark at Jackson.

Dr. Frank Snell of Kalamo was in town Monday.

N. B. Alsover spent Sunday at home from Charlotte.

Miss Annis Flatau of Cleveland is home for a visit.

Elo Bowman made a business trip to Charlotte Tuesday.

Jay Moore is spending his vacation visiting in Battle Creek.

Mrs. Porter entertained Mrs. Clara Shaw of Kalamazoo, last week.

Mrs. D. M. Purchis was called to Kalamazoo Friday on business.

Mr. Albert Clem of Gunn Lake made his parents and friends a short visit.

Miss Clara Surine and Mrs. Alice Surine were visitors in Nashville, Friday.

Mrs. R. V. Neal left Monday for a few days' visit with relatives in Detroit.

Miss Clara Manley was in Grand Rapids Thursday and Friday of last week.

Dr. P. L. Green spent the last of the week in Charlotte visiting relatives.

Mrs. Edith Willett spent last week in Grand Rapids buying spring millinery.

John Acker of St Louis, Mich., is visiting his brother-in-law, Isaac Clough.

Miss Amanda Sprague is confined to the house with a severe attack of the grip.

Miss Eva Hammond and Herbert Hammond spent Sunday at Lake Odessa.

Miss Mary Barningham is spending a few days at the home of Miss Emma Bodine.

Mrs. Sarah Norton spent Monday visiting relatives in Charlotte and Bellevue.

Mr. and Mrs. Ora Moore of Grand Ledge are visiting their parents for a few days.

Mrs. McCrodan and daughter Nellie, of Dutton, spent Sunday with C. A. Anderson.

Mr. and Mrs. Lonsbery and daughter Zura, are visiting Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Lake.

Mr. Amos Brown spent part of last week visiting his children at Mulliken and Portland.

Rollin Sprague has returned from Chicago and is staying with his wife at Dr. Green's.

Hon. E. W. Barber of Jackson came down Saturday to see his brother, Hon. H. G. Barber.

F. A. Lovell a former resident of this place is visiting here. He expects to go to Texas from here.

Ned E. McLaughlin has bought the house belonging to Mr. Tomlinson on north Main street and will move there soon.

Charlie Clough went to Saran Thursday to attend the funeral of his cousin, Miss Myrtle English.

James Wilson came home from Onondaga accompanied by Mr. Losey, to spend Sunday with his family.

Louie Lamb spent Sunday in Lansing. Harry Hammond looked after the store for him while he was gone.

C. H. Weiler and Frank Thru went to Chicago Friday looking for some horses but returned without any.

Mrs. Orrin Clapper returned to home here Monday after an extended visit with her daughter, Mrs. Charles Sager, in Fremont, Ohio.

Misses Alice and Maud Cook from near Kalamo have accepted positions at the Hotel Florence and commenced upon their duties this week.

Charles Warner has sold a horse to Dr. Snell which the doctor declares is the finest animal in the county.

J. N. Hawkins has rented his farm north of the brick schoolhouse to Harry Snoko, who will move there as soon as possible.

Frank J. Bailey has sold his farm to Mr. Tomlinson, who will take possession in a short time, and expects to move on to same.