

Mrs. May Scarvell spent her vacation last week here with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Benedicl.

Mrs. David Winegar of Charlotte came over Tuesday to visit Mrs. Ser-rol Powers and Harley Andrews.

Misses Lena and Della Stiles went to Fowlerville, Saturday to visit their grandmother during the vacation.

Mr. and Mrs. Dick Blair, who have been visiting friends here, returned to their home in Springport Thursday.

Eber Weed of Charlotte was in town Thursday in the interests of local option and made a pleasant call at this office.

Miss Cherry Campbell, who is trimming for Mrs. Imes, was called to Flint by the death of her brother on Sunday.

Mrs. Anna Heering and two children have been visiting her sister, Mrs. Seymour, during vacation.

Mrs. W. H. Benedict accompanied her daughter to Greenville Friday morning for a few days visit.

Louie Lentz and Glenn Honsberger came over Friday night, from Charlotte to attend the club dance.

Mrs. J. E. Pennington and daughter of Charlotte spent last week at Geo. C. Dwight's and Walter Davis'.

Will Paul, who has been spending the winter in Alameda, Cal., returned home last week. He says that the weather has been very disagreeable there all the winter.

Friday from Vernon where she had been assisting her parents to move to Lodi, Ohio.

Miss Mary Barningham returned from Charlotte last week where she has been making an extended visit with Mr. and Mrs. F. P. Town.

Mrs. Flossie Lennon went to Detroit yesterday where she will enter the National School of Millinery, where she will study to become a millinery.

Mark Bailey spent Sunday at F. J. Bailey's. His family, who have been visiting at Harmon Hager's for some time, returned to Charlotte with him.

L. L. Gunn the owner of the Homestead Bakery has closed the same for two weeks while he takes a trip to El Paso, Tex. It is possible that if he likes the country the family may move their to live.

Yesterday George McWha sold his automobile to Dr. Walker of Saugatuck.

Don't forget to attend the Dairy meeting to be held at the town hall April 17th at 2 p. m.

John H. Gearhart has moved into the house he recently purchased of A. B. Brown, on South Main Street.

Leon Sprague has taken Fred Wilson's place at the depot as Mr. Wilson moves to Onondoga with his parents.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. DeGraw have moved to Nashville.

J. Iryin and family are now located in Deer Creek, Okla.

L. W. Loveland has moved into Joe Bale's house on East first street.

Rev. S. C. Parsons has purchased a fine horse of Grant Hawkins and a new harness and buggy. He says it is now up to the girls to do the rest.

W. H. Hartsock who purchased the Chas. Dorman Blacksmith shop as was mentioned in THE ECHO some time ago took possession on the first of April.

The Olivet Association of Congregational churches and ministers will meet in Vermontville April 21 and 22. They have a very fine program arranged.

Mr. George Martin, a resident of Kalamo and at one time a resident of this place, died at his home Monday after a long illness. The funeral will be held Thursday at 2 p. m.

Prof. W. A. Roberts has excepted the invitation of the school board to remain another year and as soon as possible his wife will come here and they will live in Mrs. Viele's house on South Main Street.

The service Sunday morning at the Congregational church will be devoted to the reception of new members into the church. The choir will give special Easter music. All are invited. Easter service will be given by the Sunday School in the evening.

Anderson and Gearhart have recently purchased of the Buffalo Scales Company a fine pair of scales with all the latest improvements, bag-rack, etc. It is a three bar scale and weighs 1000 lbs. with out weights, which greatly facilliates weighing.

On Tuesday evening April 17th Monday Musical will give a public entertainment at their rooms. The program will consist of two parts. Part first includes individual numbers and choruses by the members, and part second a little play entitled "Maidens All Forlorn." Time, eight o'clock. Admission 15 cents.

The schools are closed this week for the spring vacation. Miss Bates will spend her vacation in Charlotte, at her home, Miss Predmore at her home in Cass City, Miss Brewer in Grand Rapids, Miss Crandell will visit a couple of days in Grand Ledge with Miss Leola Lauderback, and Prof. Roberts. Misses Green and Sprague will remain here.

Geo. H. Moss, who has been engaged in the barber business in Pontiac for the past six months, arrived in town last Friday evening. Mr. Moss has sold his business in that city and will shortly open a shop in a room in the Imes building in this village. The reason for this change on his part, is that, he may be with his family, his wife being detained here by the condition of her mother, Mrs. Edwin Tyler.

Will Moore, Manager of the Vermontville creamery realizing that the interests of the farmer and of the creamery are the same, has made arrangements with Prof. A. Anderson of the Agriculture College at Lansing to speak on the subject of the dairy. He will tell how to care for cows so as to get the best results. It is to your interests to attend this meeting. No admission will be charged. Saturday, April 17 at the town hall at 2 o'clock.