iche and Weltha, were in Charle ciday.

Miss Annis Flathau went to Battle Creek Thursday to visit Mrs. Nellie Austin.

Miss Grace Haynes of Charlotte spent the holiday at the home of H. H. Church.

Miss Clara Surinc returned last week from a three weeks visit in Fenton and Durand.

Wm. Mallory of Levering, Mich. is visiting his neice, Mrs. Fred Baker, this week.

E.D. Barber, W. C. Alsover and Dr. Davis were in Charlotte Monday, on business.

Clare Beck, school teacher at Potterville, visited his parents here Friday and Saturday.

Miss Pleasant Griner spent the latter part of her vacation in Charlotte, returning Monday.

Mark Hammond; who is a student at Ann Arbor college, spent Easter with is parents here.

Mrs. Orrin Clapper returned Saturday from a week's visit with her son Barney at Chester.

Mrs. W. C. Alsover and Mrs. E. D. Birter are attending the Masonic fair at Hastings to-day.

Mrs. Geo. Timm and son of Caledonia spent Easter Sunday at the home of C. A. Anderson.

Mrs Effa Phillips and daugh Thelma, are visiting, Mrs. Mar Sparks of Lansing.

Misses Madeline and Marie Mc Crodan of Dutton spent Easter Sunday with C. A. Anderson.

Miss Alice Predmore returned Satur day from spending the Easter vacation at her home in Cass City.

Mr. and Mrs. John Viele, from near Sunfield, spent Easter Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. D. M. Purchis.

Miss Bates has returned from Charlotte, where she went to spend her Easter vacation with her parents.

Mrs, Fred Reynolds and Miss Ruth Downing of Nashville visited friends here the latter part of the week.

Mrs. H. H. Curtis and daughter, Evelyn, spent from Thursday till Tuesday with Mr. Curtis in Wheaton, I11.

Howard Boyer, who has been spending the part few months in Dickinson, Tenn., returned home Monday morn-

Mrs. C. H. Weiler and sons Karl and Walter went to Fremont, Ohio, Thursday for a visit with relatives and friends.

Miss Brewer resumed her duties in the public school on Monday after spending the holidays at her home in Grand Rapids.

Harley and Greely Fox and family of Vermontville and Perry Fox from Middleville spent Easter with their parents near Coat's Grove.

Mich., is visiting his son, Sprague, daughter, Mrs. Hatfield, and other relatives here this week.

Mrs. Edith Rank of Charlotte, Depity Great Commander of the Lady Maccabees, visited the ladies of Shelter Hive Thursday afternoon in order to get better acquainted.

Mrs. E. B. Hammond left Tuesday for a two weeks' visit with her daughter, Mrs. Inwood, in Chicago. This is the first time Mrs. Hammond has been out side of the state in about twentyfive years.

is spending a few days in town, the Barningham received a majority of 106 guest of G. D. Eddy. Miss Eddy is considering an offer to accept a posi- stownship clerk, and not 56 as reported tion on the teaching staff of the Vermontville high school.

Viele house on South Main Street.

Herb Granger will move into D, R. Finley's house on North Main street.

Mr. and Mrs. Ben King formerly of Potterville have moved into the Cherry

W. A. Roberts intends moving into the Sprague house on south Main street shortly.

Jas. Wilson and family left Tuesday for Onondoga, where they will make their home in the future.

rin oxic L.— & v Sea Wrack.-Non-toy flora, L A., E., Sed.—I grains for North Dakota, where he will be in charge of a gang of men engaged in railroad work in that section of the country.

At a meeting of the Directors of th Barber State Bank held April 6th Ed ward D. Barber was elected Presiden and Charles W. Dean was elected Vice President.

Jay Hawkins left Monday for Mt Clemens, where he will take treatment for rheumatism. Roe Deer will look at ter Mr. Hawkins' interests on the farm during his absence.

Miss Hilah Eddy, of Eagle, Mich., In the election just closed Arthur over C. L. McLaughlin for the office of Sin these columns last week.

At a meeting of the officers and Mrs. A. B. Brown is moving into the executive committee of the Eaton county fair held at Charlotte last week it was decided to hold the 1909 fair September 21 to 24 inclusive.

> A. P. Denton celebrated his 79th birthday at the home of his sister, Mrs S. E. Kelly, on Saturday, April 10th Thirteen of his children and grand children were present and enjoyed the day with him.

Although not finding it necessary to add any additional help, the local force of clerks at the post-office experienced quite a rush in caring for the grist of Easter mail that came in. It is said that the mail handled this Easter was the heaviest in years.