

Mrs. Henry Moyer of Charlotte spent a few days with Dr. P. L. Green the first of the week.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. C. Dwight are visiting their daughter and family in Charlotte this week.

A. P. Goodwin of Pottersville, spent from Friday until Monday with Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Brown.

Mrs. Bert McIntyre and little son have been spending a few days in Charlotte visiting relatives.

Edward G. Sprague was in Charlotte Monday on business at the probate office with Judge Dann.

Orrin Tubbs of Kalamazoo is spending a short time here in order to recuperate from a recent illness.

Mrs. Orrin Clapper goes to Charlotte tomorrow to live with her daughter, Mrs. Will Hale, for a time.

N. E. McLaughlin started on the road for the International Harvester Co. the 12th, selling machinery.

Fred Hopper was called to Howell last week by the serious illness of his father, who still remains very low.

Master Julius Wood came over from Charlotte and spent Sunday with his grandmother, Mrs. H. G. Barber.

Dr. C. S. Snell accompanied Mrs. Lambie of Chester to Charlotte Monday, where she will remain for a time.

Miss Annis Flathau returned Friday from Battle Creek, where she has been visiting Mrs. Nelly Moore Austin.

Mrs. Homer G. Barber left yesterday for Coldwater, where she will visit her sister, Mrs. Rose, for a few weeks.

Pit Pugh returned Tuesday from Bellevue, where he has been for a few days. He has resigned his position at Allen & Andrew's store.

Dwight Davis returned to his work in Ann Arbor Sunday night after having spent the spring vacation at home with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Davis.

Geo. Wirt, who recently moved to Lake Odessa, was in town on business Tuesday. Mr. Wirt will sell agricultural implements for a firm in Lake Odessa.

L. L. Gunn returned Monday morning from his trip to Texas. He has decided to remain here and will have the bakery and restaurant opened as soon as possible.

Mr. and Mrs. Homer Patterson are in Charlotte, having returned from Texas, where they went some time ago with the idea of locating. Henry Patterson will return as soon as he can arrange his business affairs there.

O. M. Folger was in town calling on his old friends, Thursday. He has recently moved from Harbor Springs to his farm in Roxand, where he will remain for the present. The climate in the north did not suit him and he is glad to return to Eaton County the best County in the state.

State Bank Examiner Moore was in town yesterday examining the Barber State bank. As usual he found everything in first-class condition.

Erbie Granger has purchased an interest in the livery business of J. O. Bunger and has sold his house on East Second Street to Mr. Bunger who will move there soon.

Some person took a lot of fence belonging to Eugene Carey the other day. Mr. Carey says that if they will come and see him he will give them the staples to put it up with.

Mr. and Mrs. L. W. Snell and Misses Pearl Hawkins and Truly Chitten, Knoxville, Tenn., recently gave an entertainment for the benefit of the Chilhowee Institute near Knoxville, which was very successful both financially and otherwise.

Mrs. P. A. Sprague has moved from town to the home of her daughter, Mrs. E. G. Sprague, where she will make her home having sold her house to Mrs. Hammond. Prof. Roberts, who will occupy the house, is spending his spare time instructing stoves in order that they may be ready for his wife when she arrives next week.

Prosecutor McPeck starts out fine. Every man charged with crime on the April term docket, except one who is defended by F. A. Dean, pleads guilty without a struggle. This is universally pleasing as not even the attorneys themselves like this class of cases and the costs of long court contests adds a pretty snug sum to other taxes.—
Charlotte Tribune.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Fred Kenney, Battle Creek, formerly of this place, Saturday, April 17th a daughter.

Send THE ECHO to your friends. It will visit them fifty-two times for only one dollar and tell them all the news.

Glenn D. Eddy and family have moved into Mr. Allen's house on South Main Street recently vacated by Mr. Wilson.

S. A. Clapper who has conducted the Hotel Florence since last July sold his interests today to Henry Cook of Kalamo who takes immediate possession.

Vermontville is undergoing the moving season in fact seems to be enjoying the same if one can judge by appearances. One well known family has become so infatuated with the idea that they have moved twice in as many weeks.

The first day of May, Loveland Bros. a popular drug firm of this place dissolve partnership. Elmon Loveland the retiring member of the firm will continue the business in the corner store under the firm name of L. W. Loveland, druggist.

James Wilson and family on Tuesday removed to Onondaga. The Wilson friends will be missed in our village. Mrs. Wilson has been an active church worker in Sunday School, Epworth League and a leading soprano member of the M. E. church choir. Leaves a large circle of choice friends.

Charlotte Leader,
Schla Min curi but Schler When because

Sec

Sc

55

Sc

Sc

Sc

into

in e

Volu

for

Schla

Min

curi

but

Schler

When

because