

W. H. Benedict, was in Bellevue, Friday on the witness stand.

Miss Clara Manley spent Sunday in Kalamazoo with relatives.

George Potter of Mulliken was in town last week loading hay.

Harley Fox spent Sunday in Middleville with his brother Perry.

F. P. Town of Charlotte was in town on business Thursday.

Miss Irma Sprague visited Mrs. Wright in Hastings Saturday.

Harley Smith of Sunfield was visiting old friends in town Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Beck visited in Charlotte the first of the week.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Jones were in Charlotte, on business, Saturday.

Mrs. Ida Carey of Lansing came Wednesday to visit her brother, Dr. P. L. Green.

Mrs. Steven Clapper returned Saturday morning from a few days visit in Belding.

Mrs. S. O. Irish of Jackson visited her mother, Mrs. C. G. Bale, the last of the week.

Mrs. Greely Fox and daughter Ruby were in Lake Odessa last week visiting her people.

Mrs. Lillian Campbell was the guest of Mrs. Honsberger of Charlotte the first of the week.

Mrs. R. V. Neal returned Thursday from a three weeks' visit with relatives in Cement City.

Mrs. J. N. Hawkins spent a few days the last of the week with Mrs. J. J. Curll in Charlotte.

Ed Stevens of Chicago was here the first of the week to see his father, who has been seriously ill.

Mrs. C. A. Hallenbeck and Miss Downing visited Mrs. Eber Weed Thursday in Charlotte.

Mrs. A. L. Brown of Lake Street spent the Thursday and Friday in Charlotte visiting friends.

Rolla Vielé was in Charlotte last Thursday and Friday taking the Eighth Grade examinations.

Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Loveland were in town Monday visiting Vera Agnes Loveland and other relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Kidder of Nashville spent Sunday with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Kidder.

S. A. Clapper returned home Monday morning from a week's visit with relatives and friends in Petoskey.

Mrs. E. F. Tubbs and little granddaughter are spending a couple of days in Charlotte visiting her sister, Mrs. Wheeler.

Miss Ada Loveland, Gertrude and Helen Loveland spent Saturday in Chester with their grandmother, Mrs. Fullerton.

John Lake of Nashville and a former resident of Vermontville, left this morning for Cleveland where he has accepted a position.

Dr. and Mrs. C. S. Snell returned Wednesday noon from Knoxville, where they have been for two weeks visiting their son.

Mr. and Mrs. Vern Hiar and daughter spent from Friday to Monday in Morgan and Hastings visiting his brother and sister.

Mrs. Homer G. Barber returned Tuesday noon from Coldwater, where she has been visiting her sister, Mrs. Rose, for a few weeks.

Mrs. Bertha Allen returned from Detroit Monday night accompanied by little George Conlec who will remain here for a couple of weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. Hagar and son of Bellevue came to spend Sunday with Mrs. Ben King. The little boy was taken sick and Mrs. Hagar was obliged to remain longer.

MAY 19, 1909

The many friends of Clarence Hall formerly of this place now of Seattle, Wash., will be sorry to learn of the serious accident and injuries he sustained when he fell from a plate to a staging a distance of 40 feet, injuring his hip and side, breaking his left arm and tearing loose the ligaments of his wrist. His head was also hurt causing concussion of the brain. He says that he is thankful to be alive for he was picked up as a dead man. Mr. Hall was foreman on a large theater building under construction at the Worlds Fair Grounds, Seattle, Wash. His friends and relatives here wish him a speedy recovery.

L. G. Sponenberg of Yale is the new pharmacist in L. W. Loveland's drug store. Mr. Sponenberg has had a good many years experience in the drug business and comes highly recommended.

Chas. B. Hall, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Hall, has accepted a position as carpet salesman with Marshall Field & Co. of Chicago.

Ray Munger of Charlotte was in town, Thursday.

Will Hickey was in Charlotte Saturday on business.

J. N. Hawkins was in Charlotte on probate business Tuesday.

Pit Pugh of Woodland spent Sunday in town calling on friends.

Mrs. Susan Knickerbocker spent Sunday in Grand Rapids.

Mrs. Bertha Allen and George Conlee spent Friday in Charlotte.

Rev. Walter S. Reed of Nashville called on friends in town, Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Downing and grandson were in Charlotte Tuesday.

Ned Sprague accompanied Glenn Satterlee to Grand Rapids, Wednesday.

Mrs. Rob Chance went to Battle Creek Tuesday morning to the sanitarium.

Eugene Darfin leaves this week for Portland, Mich., where he expects to remain.

Fred Wells left Friday for Pontiac with his automobile to get some repairs.

Edmond Sprague and Albert Green were in Charlotte on probate business Saturday.

Miss Flo McDonald spent Sunday in Charlotte with her friend Miss Lillian Short.

(60)