

President Charles Anderson was in Toledo Tuesday attending a luncheon given by the Toledo Chamber of Commerce to meet Gen. Frederick D. Grant. He reports an enjoyable time.

Miss Ada Loveland, who has been staying with Mrs. L. W. Loveland for some time, left Monday night for her home in Charlotte. She will leave the last of the week for New Haven to spend the summer with an aunt.

Mrs. E. F. Tubbs entertained her mother, Mrs. Kauffman, and two sisters, Mrs. S. P. Kaufman of Chicago and Mrs. Wheeler of Charlotte on Wednesday of last week. Her mother, Mrs. Kauffman, has just returned from Chicago, where she has been since Christmas.

JUNE 2, 1909

WEDDING BELLS

COSSAR-CASSEDAY

The marriage of Mrs. Maude Woodson Casseday to Mr. Aubrey Andrew Cossar was solemnized yesterday at 12 o'clock in Christ Church Cathedral, in the presence of the relatives and near friends.

Mrs. Cossar has been a brilliantly successful newspaper woman for some years in Louisville, and this phase of her activities here, as well as her social connections, made the wedding one of the widest interest. Though no formal invitations had been issued to the wedding, the big edifice was crowded with friends of Mr. and Mrs. Cossar, who eagerly watched the simple ceremonies.

Mr. Cossar is a popular and successful newspaper man and has been a resident of Louisville for several years. His former home was Springfield, Mo.

The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Charles Ewell Craik, dean of the cathedral. There were no attendants. Charles Ewell Craik, Jr., and Oscar Craik, the young cousins of the bride, acting as ushers.

The wedding was marked by extreme simplicity. The altar vases were filled with clusters of lilacs, the same flowers being used in the decoration of the chancel.

Before the ceremony Mr. Ernest Simon gave a beautiful musical program on the organ. Mrs. Cassedy and Mr. Cossar entered the church together, and were preceded up the aisle by the ushers. Mendelssohn's wedding march was played as a processional, and during the reading of the marriage service Gounod's Santus and Handel's Largo was played.

The bride was given in marriage by her brother, Mr. Paul Stewart Woodson.

Mendelssohn's "War March of the Priests" was played as a retrocessional.

After the ceremony the immediate members of the family were entertained at breakfast by the bride's uncle, Col. Ernest Macpherson.

Mrs. Cossar was a charming picture in a beautiful princess gown of pastel grey chiffon, over gray liberty satin. The skirt of the gown was finished in a deep border of cream point applique lace and was embroidered in silver and grey. The bodice had a short vest of ivory-colored velvet, embroided in silver and silver embroidery. The large hat was of ivory-colored crin, trimmed in a long grey plume, held with a cluster of tea roses. The bridal bouquet was a great cluster of ascension lilies, tied with white satin ribbon, a cluster of lilies of the valley being tied in the bow and small bouquets of lilies of the valley being attached to the long ends of the bow.

Mr. and Mrs. Cossar left in the afternoon for their bungalow on the River road, where they will spend the summer.

The above article, taken from a Louisville paper of recent date, was kindly sent us by Mrs. S. B. Williams.

George Niles, who has been in the store of C. H. Brown of Nashville for some time, has completed arrangements to go into the jewelry business for himself in Saugatuck. Mr. Niles will leave the first of this week and Mrs. Niles expects to go in a few days as soon as he secures a suitable house. Their many friends wish them success in their new venture.

Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Church went to Grand Rapids Friday to attend the musical convention and went from there to visit Mr. and Mrs. Will Bale at Fernville. Their twenty-fifth anniversary comes at this time and the trip is to celebrate the event, sort of a wedding trip, so to speak, minus the old shoes and rice. It is the wish of their friends that they may see many more happy anniversaries.

(62)

Pit Pugh of Woodbury spent Sunday in town.

Mrs. Glenn Eddy was in Jackson on business. Tuesday.

Will Sternberg of Eaton Rapids spent Sunday in town.

J. N. Hawkins was in Charlotte on business the first of the week.

Perry Fox of Middleville visited his brothers here Sunday and Monday.

Miss Clara Travis of Belding is visiting her sister, Miss Flossie Travis.

Miss Jennie Martin is in Yale this week visiting Mrs. Ida Mead Palmer.

Mr. and Mrs. L. W. Loveland and daughters were in Charlotte, Sunday.

Harry Ambrose of Battle Creek was in town Monday calling on old friends.

Homer Brown and Henry Patterson returned Monday from their Texas trip.

Miss Andrews of Charlotte came Tuesday to spend a month with her mother.

Miss Emma Flathau went to Battle Creek Tuesday morning for a two weeks visit.

John White of Battle Creek is making his sister, Mrs. Glenn Eddy, an extended visit.

Sid Marble of Chicago has been spending a few days in town calling on his friends.

Mrs. Nelson Hager and son of Bellevue, spent Saturday and Sunday with Mrs. Ben King.

Miss Mary Barningham is staying in Charlotte during Mrs. Town's absence in the East.