

JUNE 16, 1909

Mrs. Jessie Bowman resigned her position in the Barber store, the same taking effect Saturday night. Mrs. Bowman has been connected with this store for about eleven years and will be greatly missed by her many customers.

Born Friday night to Mr. and Mrs. Vern Hiar, a boy.

Miss Louise Lentz closed her year's work at the post office Saturday night.

Miss Ethel Wimple was in Charlotte Tuesday.

George Potter of Mulliken was in town yesterday.

Ned Sprague was in Charlotte on business, Tuesday.

E. D. Barber and son Keith were in Charlotte Tuesday on business.

Mr. and Mrs. Ned Sprague visited friends in Nashville, Saturday.

Mrs. Herbert Wright of Nashville was a guest of Mrs. Frank Kroger, Saturday.

County Clerk Pray was in town last week interviewing people regarding the Hultz case.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Kidder and family spent Sunday with Judge Kidder in Nashville.

Mr. and Mrs. Garfield Inwood came home Friday from Chicago to spend the summer.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Shrader of Gresham spent Friday with Mr. and Mrs. Frank Kroger.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Davis of Battle Creek came Saturday to visit Mrs. Homer G. Barber.

Mrs. E. F. Tubbs went to Charlotte yesterday to spend the day with her mother, Mrs. Kauffman.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Kroger and daughter, Francis, and son, Freddie, spent Sunday in Nashville.

Miss Prudence Remalie accompanied by her uncle, Charles Remalie, are visiting in Olivet and expect to remain for the commencement exercises.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Eckhart entertained their nephew, Mr. Curtice, and Miss Corbin of Eaton Rapids, Sunday.

Miss Anna Bale of Fennville is spending a couple of weeks with her aunt, Mrs. E. D. Lake, and other relatives and friends.

Keith Barber returned Sunday morning from spending the winter at Pheonix, Arizona, for his health.

Ned Alsover and Miss Shuler of Charlotte spent Sunday with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Alsover.

Miss Nettie Marsh of Jackson visited Mrs. Jay Ward over Sunday. Miss Myra returned to Jackson with her for a few weeks visit.

H. J. Martin attended the piano recital given by Miss Bertha Cooper in Olivet Tuesday night and went from there to Lansing to attend the State Pioneer and Historical Society Wednesday and Thursday.

We note by the Herald's list of guests that Charles Anderson, Harley Andrews, John Gearhart and Will Imes are planning to attend the merchant's week banquet in Grand Rapids this week.

L. W. Snell on Friday accepted a position as manager of the Myers Manufacturing company's office at Knoxville, Tenn. This is the same office he has been connected with for some time as assistant manager. The new position carries with it added responsibilities and a corresponding increase in salary.

Miss Purl Walters, well known here, has been appointed principal of the High School at Hudson for next year. This is a fine position and will be ably filled by Miss Walters.

Dr. C. S. Snell received a telegram from Knoxville, Tenn., Saturday morning announcing the arrival of a daughter, weighing six pounds, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. L. W. Snell.

Barber's dry goods store has a very interesting window display which was brought from Arizona by Keith Barber, consisting of Indian baskets, pottery, an Indian blanket, ostrich egg and other interesting articles.

Joe Stone is improving his residence by building a fine new porch.

Mrs. L. W. Loveland, who has been sick for two weeks, is now much better.

Dr. J. D. McEachran is painting and improving his South Main Street residence.

Michigan was the first state in the Union to establish a complete school system of its own.

Doyle & Penhalegon of Charlotte have placed a handsome electric sign on the front of their store.

Mrs. Ed Seitz of Charlotte Tuesday.

Mrs. Jay Ward was a Charlotte visitor Tuesday.

Gladys Brown left Monday for a two weeks visit in Syracuse, N. Y.

Miss Alice Jones of Delton is visiting Misses Blanche and Weltha Jones.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Kroger were in Nashville Wednesday on business.

Mrs. Geo. Adler and Mrs. Will Kroger were in Charlotte Tuesday.

Edwin Tyler spent Sunday in Lansing visiting his son and daughter.

Mrs. G. S. Godfrey of Hastings was the guest of Miss Eva Kelly Thursday.

Messers W. H. and Frank Benedict were in Charlotte Tuesday on business.

Mrs. Alfred Scott was in Charlotte on Tuesday to see her son Leonard Hultz.

Sidney Todd and daughters, Mabel and Clara, spent Sunday in Eaton Rapids.

A. P. Goodwin and wife of Potterville visited at H. H. Brown's over Sunday.

Mrs. Effie Downs of Traverse City is visiting Mrs. J. L. Green and other relatives.

Glenn Reycraft of Alma is the new pharmacist in Loveland's drug store, Mr. Sponenburger having returned to his home in Yale.