

their friends here and given a parting send-off with rice, beans and old shoes.

THE ECHO joins with their many friends in wishing Mr. and Mrs. Barningham a long and prosperous wedded life.

SMITH-LENTZ

Miss Louise Lentz left here Saturday morning and was met at Boyne Falls by Ira Smith, where they were married. The young couple went at once to Springvale where they will reside, the groom being employed in a store, having gone there several weeks ago. They are both popular young people of this place and will be greatly missed. Miss Lentz has won many friends while in the post-office by her courtesy and good nature. The ECHO and their many friends here extend to them congratulations and best wishes.

Postmaster E. B. Hammond and family and Mr. and Mrs. Inwood went to their cottage at Thornapple Lake Saturday for the summer. The Postmaster will make daily trips.

The Helping hand society to the number of one hundred and fifteen met with Mrs. Fred Wells north of town Friday evening. They were entertained with a pleasing program given by the members and elegant refreshments served.

The Vermontville Cornet band expects to give concerts every Saturday night from now on whenever possible. The concerts are a great attraction and many come to town Saturday that do not do so otherwise.

Upon invitation of Mesdames Young and Church about forty ladies gathered at the home of the latter Saturday afternoon for a pot-luck supper in honor of Mrs. H. H. Parmenter and her daughter, Mrs. Stevens. All enjoyed a pleasant social time and an elegant supper.

The hardware and furniture store known for so many years as the H. G. Barber & Son store changes this week to E. D. Barber. Mr. Barber has always had the active management of the store and will continue to keep up the good reputation of the establishment.

At the Alaska-Yukon-Pacific Exposition July 19th has been set aside as Michigan day. There are a large number of residents of Seattle, who were formerly of this state and they have arranged to make it pleasant for all visitors from home at their club house and a special program has been arranged for the day.

To show their kindly interest in the success of the Eaton County Baseball League the merchants of Eaton Rapids are going to close their stores two hours every afternoon when a league game is played in that city. They started the arrangement when Charlotte played there, Tuesday. Will the other places fall in line and display a like interest.

Vermontville was honored by having Dr. C. S. Snell, a member of our post, invited to speak at the camp-fire at the encampment in Kalamazoo this week along with Cong. Gardiner and others.

Mikie Mahar spent Sunday in Hastings with friends.

Mrs. M. Mahar spent Sunday in Hastings with friends.

Dr. C. S. Snell made a professional trip to Charlotte Monday.

Mrs. Flossie Lennon returned to college in Detroit, Thursday.

Roy Lamb of Lake Odessa was in town the first of the week.

Isaac Clough was in Charlottl on business Tuesday morning.

Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Jones spent Sunday at Thornapple Lake.

Edwin Tyler is in Kalamazoo attending the G. A. R. encampment.

Garfield Inwood attended the comment exercises in Olivet last week.

Misses Edith Lentz and Annis Flathau were in Charlotte Thursday.

Mrs. H. P. Thompson is spending a few days in Flint visiting old friends.

Ray and Nellie Anderson attended the circus in Jackson Friday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Bale entertained G. A. Forester of Detroit over Sunday.

Miss Mary Barningham came over from Charlotte to spend Sunday at home.

Deputy Sheriff and Mrs. Hickey were in Kalamazoo Monday on business.

Miss Elsie Rickle attended the commencement exercises in Nashville last week.

bury were guests Thursday of Mr. and Mrs. Will Hickey.

Miss Hickman of Nashville spent a few days the latter part of last week with Miss Elsie Rickle.

Mrs. J. D. Dancer and daughter, Bertha, left Friday morning for a two weeks visit in Auburn, Ind.

J. H. Hamilton of the Lowell Marble Works was in town last week looking after the placing of several monuments in Woodlawn.

Mrs. E. F. Edmonds went to Grand Rapids, Thursday to visit for a couple of weeks. Mr. Edmonds spent Sunday there, with her.

Miss Carrie Strother visited Miss Della Griswold Friday. Miss Strother is planning to spend the summer in Spokane, Wash.

Mrs. J. V. Stevens and two sons of Brinton, came down to attend the comment exercises last week and visit relatives and friends.

Mrs. Roy Dies and Mrs. Jud Hills accompanied by her daughter Pauline Hills, visited Harley St in Sunfield Friday.

Carl and Ben Fields have come from Grand Rapids for the summer vacation. Mrs. Fields expects to be in about two weeks.

Dudley Taylor of Madison, Wis., is visiting his grand parents, Mr. and Mrs. Brigham, for a few days while enroute to eastern points.

Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Randall of East Leroy came Friday to visit their son Glenn, Mrs. Sarah Norton and other relatives and friends.

(66)