Invitations are out for the marriage of Miss Hazel Mitchel, niece of Mr. and Mrs. John E. Lake, to Mr. Charles P. McNaughton, of Middleville. The marriage will take place the twenty-fourth of this month at seven o'clock in the evening, at the Lake residence on State street.—Nashville News.

A new mechanical device in window of E. D. Barber's hardware store attracted considerable attention Saturday night. A dummy, dressed for the occasion, stands in full view of the spectators turning the handle of one of Mr. Barber's well-known brands of washing machines. It is an original idea and speaks well for the ingenuity of Mr. Sprague, the clerk, who got it up.

Monday afternoon and evening Mrs. E. D. Lake entertained the class of '06 at her home northeast of town. This is the second reunion that this class has held and all the members, Mrs. Alice Barningham, Miss Nina Flathau, Miss Myrtle Mitchel, and Messrs Frank Walsh, Ben Shetehelm and Glenn Lake were there. They spent the time very pleasantly playing games and talking over old times.
