

Mr. and Mrs. H. K. Jennings have issued invitations to the marriage of Mrs. Jennings' sister, Miss Marie Shuler, and N. B. Alssver, to take place at their home on Thursday, Sept. 9th.

Miss Mary Hickey is the new sales lady in the dry goods store of Barber Bros. Miss Hickey has had four years experience in Hoffmaster's dry goods store in Battle Creek.

Mrs. M. E. Morehouse and son Earl have moved to Mulliken where he will have charge of the schools this year. They have rented the farm to Arthur Lawrence of Nashville.

James Kosht, of Akron, Ohio, for some years a member of the Congregational church choir, and a valuable soloist, is expected here next Sunday and will assist the choir at morning and evening services.

Dr. McEachran returned from Detroit last night and reports that Mrs. Grant Hawkins underwent an operation for appendicitis yesterday and had rallied from the operation and was resting easily at Harper Hospital.

Miss Emma Powers leaves Thursday for Frankfort where she teaches in the schools this year.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Boyer leave Thursday for Macon, Tenn., to spend the winter with her parents.

Miss Della Griswold returned Wednesday from a two weeks visit in Grand Rapids and Holland.

E. S. Wood, a Michigan Central operator from Denton, is at the depot posting up on the freight work.

A. J. Hawes was in Charlotte yesterday.

Miss Bethel Sackett visited in Charlotte last week.

Steve Clapper was in Charlotte Tuesday on business.

Mrs. M. E. Morehouse spent Sunday with her sister, Mrs. Fox.

Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Sprague were in Charlotte Tuesday morning.

Mrs. W. E. Imes was in Grand Rapids last week buying millinery.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Barningham were in Charlotte Tuesday on business.

Mrs. Greely Fox and daughter are visiting her parents in Lake Odessa this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Beck went to Fremont, Ohio, yesterday to visit for two weeks.

Julius Shellenberger of Lake Odessa spent Sunday with his nephew, Mike Mahar.

Misses Annis Flathau and Edith Lentz are visiting Mrs. Nellie Austin in Battle Creek.

Miss Mabel Holmes of Grand Rapids is visiting Misses Ora Hallenbeck and Winifred Wells.

Mrs. M. Mahar returned Thursday from a weeks visit with her daughter, Agnes, in Kalamazoo.

Mr. and Mrs. John Sackett returned Saturday night from a visit in Fremont and Toledo, Ohio.

L. L. Gunn and sister, Miss Ivy, leave this morning for El Paso, Tex., to visit their parents. If Mr. Gunn decides to remain permanently, Mrs. Gunn will join him there later.

Harley Dorman returned from Detroit Saturday where he has been for the past year and will spend the greater part of next month in Cadillac and camping with friends near there.

Harold Fuller came over from Battle Creek to spend Sunday. Mrs. Fuller and children returned as far as Charlotte with him and will remain there for a few days before going home.

Rev. and Mrs. Fred Sprague and daughter, Roberta, went to Charlotte Monday to visit Dr. Sackett and family and Rev. Rev. Sprague left for his home at Shelby yesterday morning.

Fred Warner left Saturday to visit his uncle, Horace Warner, in Madona, Ill. Miss Nellie Kaughman visited at Mr. and Mrs. E. F. Tubbs Friday and accompanied him as far as Chicago.

Miss M. Louise Smith spent from Tuesday till Monday the guest of Miss Edith Rockwell. Miss Smith has been doing some lecturing in the summer school in Ann Arbor and goes from here to Salem, Mass., where she teaches in the State Normal.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Sackett have resigned their position with the State Reform School at Lansing and come to visit Mr. and Mrs. E. G. Bowman and Mr. Sackett and son Hale.

Mr. and Mrs. Louis Allen entertained the former's niece, Miss Esta Bidwell, of Sunfield over Sunday.

Miss Edith Martin went to Mt. Pleasant Saturday where she teaches Latin in the high schools next year.

Miss Ruth Griswold left Saturday morning for Whitehall Preparatory to begin her school work there this year.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Baker and M. Baker's grandmother, Mrs. Mowr, went to Petoskey Tuesday for a week visit.

Mr. and Mrs. N. E. McLaugh were in Charlotte yesterday for a house preparatory to move there.

Miss Ethel Mull returned Saturday from Eaton Rapids, her cousin, Lizzie Polhemus, accompanied her to a visit.

Ira Zimmerman of Dimondale and Miss Blanche Dill of Potterville were guests Sunday at the home of Frank Smith.

Harry and Alfred String returned to Chicago Friday after spending the summer at the home of Mrs. Wm. Griswold.

Mrs. Chester Wright of Chicago and daughter, Genevive, are visiting a Vermontville guests of Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Lamb.

Mrs. Lulu Warren and two sons returned Monday from Kalamazoo where they have been visiting Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Warren.

Pota (A) Kl wt 25 W Dr T WT Pota

Kl wt 25 W Dr T WT Pota