

Miss Hazel Lake was in Charlotte Tuesday.

Mrs. W. C. Alsover is in Grand Rapids today.

C. W. Dean went to Jackson Tuesday morning.

O. M. Folger of Mulliken was in town Monday.

Ernest Sprague spent the day in Lansing Tuesday.

Miss Eddy was in Charlotte Friday, the guest of Miss Bates.

Postmaster E. B. Hammond was in Grand Rapids Tuesday.

Mrs. Sarah Norton visited Mrs. Compton the first of the week.

Miss Bates spent the vacation for the fair at her home in Charlotte.

Mrs. Jay Ward spent from Wednesday till Saturday at Battle Creek.

Mesdames H. P. Thompson and H. L. Curtis spent Sunday in Battle Creek.

Chas. Marsh of Jackson is spending a few days with Mr. and Mrs. Jay Ward.

Miss Zella Moore of Battle Creek spent Sunday with Miss Henrietta Mull.

E. J. Sprague and wife visited Phillip Green and family in Sunfield day.

Ethelyn Kidder went to Grand Rapids Tuesday for a visit with Kirby of Douglas, spent with her niece, Mrs. H. W.

Milton Sprague spent Sunday at home with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Sprague, and left for Mulliken Monday to work for Geo. Potter for a short time.

Last week we should have said that Mrs. Ida Purchis of Holland instead of Pickell, was visiting her aunts, Mesdames A. G. Hawkins and Warren French.

Mrs. Herbert Wright of Nashville, and Mrs. Rollin Sprague and daughter Margaret went to Lansing Monday to visit their sister, Mrs. Harry Holden and family.

Lewis Kidder came home Saturday night from a visit in Grand Rapids and Cadillac. Little Dorothy, who has been visiting her father at Cadillac, returned with him.

Mrs. E. F. Edmonds is entertaining her mother, Mrs. Marietta Way and sister and husband, Mr. and Mrs. B. S. Callahan. They are on their way from Hillsdale to Grand Rapids.

Rev. and Mrs. J. W. Hallenbeck are visiting Hon. and Mrs. C. A. Hallenbeck. They have been attending conference at Grand Rapids and are returning to their work at St. Louis.

Mr. and Mrs. J. N. Hawkins and daughter, Miss Pearl, went to Cleveland Tuesday to visit their son, Victor Hawkins, and family. Miss Hawkins goes from there to Knoxville, Tenn., where she teaches music.

Mrs. A. L. Dickinson, Fred Dickinson and family, George Dickinson and family and Frank Walker and family of Sebawa attended the funeral of Mrs. Dickinson's aunt, Mrs. Susar Cooper, in Parleto Sunday.

Glenn Lake spent Sunday in Ann Arbor with his cousins, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Furniss.

Louis Kidder went to Nashville Monday and is working in the Lentz table factory.

Mr. and Mrs. Hollis Dikeman of Sunfield, spent Sunday with Mrs. Catherine Green.

Miss Cora Ward spent from Wednesday till Sunday with her sister Myra at Jackson.

Mrs. Crandall and daughter, Miss Lillian visited in Battle Creek and Athens last week.

Mikie Mahar went to Kalamazoo Monday to take up a course in manual training in the college.

Rollin Dorman came down from Grand Rapids to spend Sunday with his father, Chas. Dorman.

Miss Blanche Jones went to Ypsilanti Monday, where she will take up the study of domestic science.

Miss Emma Bodine went to Chicago the first of the week to visit relatives and friends for a week or more.

Mrs. Ines Walsh of Halsey, came Sunday to assist in caring for her mother, Mrs. Duel, who is very ill.

Frank Mull of Freeport visited his brother, Henry Mull, last week and they attended the county fair together.

Miss Laura Church left for Kalamazoo Monday where she will study domestic science in the normal college.

Mrs. J. J. Curtis of Charlotte, and Mrs. M. B. Mann of Binghamton, New York, visited Mrs. H. H. Curtis Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. N. B. Alsover spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Alsover. They returned last week from a fine trip to Detroit and up the St. Lawrence river to New York and Niagara Falls and are now at home in their residence on East Lawrence avenue.

OCT. 6, 1909

WEDDING BELLS

Dikeman-Hills.

A quiet home wedding was solemnized at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. Hills, of Detroit, Saturday, October 2nd, at six o'clock, when Murri Dikeman and Miss Sadie Hills were united in marriage by the Rev. King Beach.

Mr. Dikeman is one of Vermont's promising young men who is making good in Detroit, and his many friends here, with THE ECHO, extend to the young couple best wishes and congratulations.

The bride and groom are visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Dikeman, and other relatives, for a short time after which they will return to Detroit, where Mr. Dikeman is engaged in civil engineering work.

Mrs. C. L. D. McLaughlin and Miss Della Griswold have issued invitations to a miscellaneous shower to be held Thursday afternoon in honor of Mrs. Vance Barber at the home of the latter at three o'clock.