UP-TO-DATE HARNESS SHOP

W. J. Helm Takes Tossession of Stand Formerly Run by H. Hammond

W. J. Helm, of Britton, has purchased the harness stock formerly belonging to H. Hammond, and will open a shop here with an up-to-date line of harness goods. Mr. Helm has had a successful harness business in Britton for nineteen years and moves here on account of the better school advantages, the schools there not going above the tenth grade. He arrived here Saturday and his family will come as soon as can be arranged. The following is taken from the People's Advocate of Britton.

A very pleasant surprise party was given Tuesday night at Maccabee hall by L. O. T. M. and K. O. T. M. members for Mr. W. J. Helm and family, about 75 being present. All enjoyed the lunch and social chat indulged in. A few remarks were made by Mr. and Mrs. Helm; also by Rev. Main, regretting their departure, but wishing them success in their new home at Vermontville, Mich.

Mr. Helm shipped his store and shop fixtures to the above named place yesterday and left on the evening train for his new home. The Advocate wishes for him the best of success in his new location.
