

Piano Recital

The members of the Miss Jennie Mar- Junior piano class who are ded together in the Little Musi- a's Club, entertained their mother's and a few other friends Saturday afternoon at her home. The program which consisted of piano solos, duets, songs, and choruses by the club, was given by Mary McEachran, Greta Haywood, Fred Allen, Pauline Hills, Helen Loveland, Hazel Hawkins, Gertrude Aranger, Doris Miles, Violetta Wells and Thelma Dickinson.

Mrs. Mary Webb, of Garnd Rapids, visiting her sister, Mrs. F. F. Ambrose.

Mrs. W. H. Dickinson left for Belding Thursday where she will reside with her daughter, Mrs. Edna Arnold.

Miss Ena Smith, of Saline, is visiting at F. E. Ambrose and Elmon Loveland's homes.

NOVEMBER 2, 1910

Miss Agnes Ambrose, 38 Tompkins street, has gone to Chicago to take up a winter's work as piano soloist with the Smith concert company. They expect to cover a larger territory than usual this year, having booked entertainments from Philadelphia to Seattle. Battle Creek Moon.

Mrs. Mary Girswold came Monday evening from Traverse City for a visit with her sister, Mrs. W. H. predict.

Here is a Chinese puzzle to figure on. M. L. Bilderbeck, residing on Michael Mahar's farm has purchased the Norris farm and wants to move at once. Mr. Norris expects to move into the house occupied by Mr. Edmonds. Mr. Edmonds has rented the Mahar home on Fifth street and wants to get in there, while Mr. Mahar wants to move onto his farm. Now who will move first in order that the others may move into their respective homes. The first one that solves this question may have the privilege of pounding Mr. Edmonds carpets as a reward. Gene offers this prize with considerable hesitancy as he has been figuring on this pasttime for his enjoyment, but has finally consented to part with the reward.

Miss Edna Smith returned to her home in Saline, Tuesday, after a visit at F. F. Ambrose's home.

Mr. and Mrs. Keith Barber returned to Vermontville very quietly the evening of their marriage. However things did not remain quiet very long for a number of admiring friends soon learned they were in town and at once arranged to give them a serenade. After displaying the usual amount of bash fullness of newly-weds they finally responded to the call of their friends.

The many friends of Arthur E. Wilde will be pleased to know that he has recently been tendered the position of first celloist in the New York Symphony Orchestra under the leadership of Damroch, who today is considered the top-notch in musical circles. He has accepted the position and his friends may expect to hear still better reports before the winter season is over, as this orchestra is the leading one of America.

NOVEMBER 23, 1910

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Peck will make merry on Turkey Day by having their children all home. Ernest Beck and family, of Holland, Wilbur Beck and family, of St. Joseph, Albin Beck and family, of Hastings, Clarence Beck of Battle Creek and Roy Beck and wife, of Vermontville, will gather about the family table and create havoc with the good things prepared.

Mrs. George Niles and baby, of Saugatuck, came Tuesday night for a few days' visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Downing.

E. D. Barber was in Charlotte, Tuesday, at a directors' meeting of the banks. They were making the transfer in offices and checking up business.

Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Curtis and daughter Evelyn and Mr. and Mrs. J. N. Hawkins will spend Thanksgiving with Mrs. J. J. Curtis in Charlotte.

Edson Fuller, of Detroit, came Saturday night for a couple of days' visit with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. A. Fuller,

Mr. and Mrs. E. P. Edmonds, of Muskegon today to spend the balance of the week.

Charles B. Hall was an over Sunday visitor with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Hall.

Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Alsover take Thanksgiving dinner with their son Ned at Charlotte.

Mr. and Mrs. L. P. Lamb and baby went to Mason Tuesday morning for a Thanksgiving visit.

The Misses Ruth and Grace Stevens spend the Thanksgiving vacation with their parents at Brinton.

Mr. and Mrs. Glen Lake spent Sunday at Nashville with his uncle, John Lake.

Ned B. Alsover and wife motored over Sunday for dinner with his people.

DECEMBER 7, 1910

Mrs. Dickinson Dead.

The sad news was received by Vermontville relatives that Mrs. W. H. Dickinson had passed away at the home of her daughter in Belding on Tuesday evening. Death resulted from a stroke of paralysis. The remains will arrive in Vermontville Thursday evening at six o'clock and the funeral services will be held on Friday morning at eleven o'clock from the home of Mrs. H. G. Barber.

the resin principle beta-resin Diuretic in tooth gums, & Maté (Paraguay Tea, Jesuit St. Hilari) When or because