

and Mrs. E. O. Warner, west Hughson, received a can of delicious Michigan maple syrup recently which was expressed to them by Mr. Warner's father. The syrup came from the sap of maple trees on which Mr.
Warner carved his name while playing in the sugar camp when a boy and was sure a sweet reminder of the days down on the farm in Michigan.—The above appeared in a Hughson, Calif.

Fell and Seriously Hurt.

While working upon his South Main street home last Thursday George Kenworthy met with a painful accident, the outcome of which is rather doubtful. Mr. Kenworthy was painting the house and had a couple of ladders fastened together and in some way they became loosened and tipped over, throwing him to the ground from a height of fourteen feet. Since the fall he has been confined to his bed, and has suffered a great deal although no bones were broken. This is Mr.
Kenworthy's first experience of being confined to his bed as he never has seen a sick day in his life or has been aid up in any shape heretofore.
