

Mrs. Etta Hallenbeck and son Byron will spend Thanksgiving with the latter's sister in Battle Creek.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Lamb will take Thanksgiving dinner with Loa P. Lamb and family.

Mrs. Roy Hammond goes to Chicago Tuesday where she will meet her husband on his way back from Fort Sheridan training camp. They will spend a day in Chicago and return to Vermontville for Thanksgiving.

Dr. McLaughlin will entertain his brother-in-law, Mr. John, Ploof, and family to a rabbit dinner, Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Barningham I spend the thankful day at home being thankful over the new baby boy.

Mrs. Blanche Mereness of Detroit will spend Thanksgiving with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Jones.

Henry Brown and family will eat at home.

Mr. and Mrs. Jay Hawkins will eat turkey with Grant Hawkins and family.

S. A. Fuller will take dinner with Roy and family at Grand Rapids.

Mr. Edwin Tyler and daughter Myrta of Lansing will spend Thanksgiving with Mrs. Ada Whipple at Flint. Mr. Tyler left Tuesday morning and will stop over at Lansing.

Miss Helen Loveland will entertain Crystal Freemire for Thanksgiving and the balance of the week.

DEC. 5, 1917.

Mrs. Laura Fay, a former Vermontville resident and over ninety years of age knitted a pair of socks for the soldiers and in a letter of thanks the soldier said that they were the warmest socks he had ever had and hoped she would live to knit many more.

Mr. and Mrs. David Young leave for Holland, Mich., in a few days, where they will live in and care for the Browning home while Mrs. Browning and her daughter Grace spend the winter in the South.

Mrs. Webb and little grand daughter of Lansing spent Thanksgiving with Mr. and Mrs. Frank Ambrose. They returned home Monday.

Philip Barber has received an appointment as first Sergeant. First Sergeant is the highest non-commission officer and ranks next to second Lieutenant.

DEC. 12, 1917.

Vance Barber, Merrick Dean, and Ray Anderson went to Grand Rapids Tuesday to enlist. Vance made the Naval Reserves and goes Thursday night. Ralph enlisted in the cavalry and left immediately for Columbus.

Ray found the Radio department filled at present but hopes to make it in the near future.

FORMER VERMONTVILLE GIRL FILM STAR

MISS EVELYN CURTIS FILMED WITH PATHE PLAYERS

Miss Evelyn Curtis, in company with two other local stars of West Palm Beach was filmed with the Pathe Players in their new production called "The Spring of the Year."

Miss Curtis' dramatic talent is well known here as she has taken part in several local plays and we are not surprised that the Pathe management should recognize her ability and offer her a New York engagement.

This Miss Curtis refused and is now selling Overland cars and making good at that as we knew she would.

NANCY ANN DEAN

Nancy Ann Rogers was born in Hillsdale County, Mich., June 2, 1850 and died in her home in Chester Twp. on Dec. 7, 1917, aged 67 years, 6 months and 5 days.

At four years of age she came with her parents, Samuel and Weltha Ann Rogers, to Eaton County where she resided until the time of her death.

March 8, 1871, she was united in marriage to Charles W. Dean of Chester Township, who survives her. To this union there were born six children; Ralph who died thirteen years ago, Etta (Mrs. Joseph Frith,) Charles R., Myrtie (Mrs. Bedford,) Clara (Mrs. C. E. Rockefeller,) and George, all of whom are living. She also leaves sixteen grand children.

DEC. 26, 1917.

Nashville.

Mrs. Agnes Gaut, wife of George Gaudtied Monday noon after a lingering illness of cancer. Her parents are Mr. and Mrs. Harley Smith. Mrs. Gaut was born in Vermontville and married and lived there before coming to Nashville. Her husband and four daughters survive her. Funeral arrangements have not yet been made.

Mr. and Mrs. John Scarvell of Greenville are spending the Holidays with Mrs. Scarvell's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Benedict.

Misses Mabelle and Celia Sprague are home for Christmas.

Miss Della Stiles left Monday for a short visit in Chicago.

Mrs. Blanche Mereness of Detroit is home for the Holidays.

Hance Hammond has returned after a short trip thru the East and will spend Christmas in Vermontville.

Vance and Philip Barber are home for the Christmas Holidays.

Miss Nell Tarbell went to Detroit Friday morning for a few days' visit.

Miss Ruth Powers of Detroit is spending the Holidays here.

G. W. Morey and his two grand daughters, Evelyn and Julia Hopper, have gone to Muskegon for the holidays.

Mrs. James Allen and family of Charlotte are spending the Christmas holidays with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Cross.

Miss Myrta Tyler of Lansing came Thursday to spend Christmas with her father, Mr. Edwin Tyler.

190