

at the home of the groom's parents. The following day they left for Vincennes, Indiana, where they will make their home.

The groom is employed as traveling salesman for a large Chicago packing house with headquarters at the above named city.

Vermontville people are loath to lose Miss Stiles. She was ever ready to do her part. She was a valuable member of the Congregational choir where she will be greatly missed. Her voice has cheered many in their hours of deep affliction and sorrow.

The Echo joins with a host of friends in wishing them a happy and prosperous married life.

Hubert Hawkins, son of Mr. and Mrs. Grant Hawkins died Tuesday, March 4th, at 9 o'clock after a long illness of pneumonia, followed by an operation. The funeral was held Wednesday at 2 p. m., at the home. Burial in Woodlawn cemetery.

APRIL 3, 1919.

Mrs. Jay Hawkins received word of the death of her cousin, Eva Kelly, at the home of her brother, Walter, Kelly at Outlook, Washington, March 25, after an illness of three months. Vermontville being Miss Kelly's old home, her many friends will be saddened by the news.

Mr. Chas. Lamb and wife and Mr. Arthur Barningham and wife motored to Kalamazoo last Wednesday, where the gentlemen of the party were trying to find a desirable teacher for the sixth, seventh and eighth grades for the coming school year. No teacher was selected from the Normal there, and Mr. Leonard will interview an applicant from Ann Arbor soon. Mrs. Barningham called to see Mrs. Rollin Sprague and family and found Mrs. Sprague taking the "rest cure" ordered by her physician. Mrs. Sprague is very hopeful and expects to be as strong as ever in time. Her friends here all hope for her an early and complete recovery.

Miss Vernice Eckhart and Madoline are in school again after a siege with the flu.

Mrs. Hance Hammond and little daughters, Betty and Helen arrived here at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Hammond, last Thursday. The family will shortly be located in their own home on E. Main St. Their friends are very pleased to welcome them to Vermontville.

Mr. Allen Faust and family entertained the former's sister, Mrs. Mary Hultz and two daughters, also Miss Bertha Faust of Battle Creek, Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. John Polof visited at Mr. and Mrs. D. Z. McLaughlin's last Friday.

Mr. Frank McLaughlin and son, Ion, of Charlotte spent Sunday at Mr. D. Z. and Dr. McLaughlin's.

Mrs. Snell was able to be out one day last week, which is the first time for several weeks.

Mrs. Mitchell and family are moving this week from E. Main St. to the Dr. Snell property on E. First St.

Dr. J. D. McEachran is very ill. Mrs. Hall is the attending nurse.

Miss Katherine Cappon has so far recovered from the flu as to be able to go to her home in Delton, last week.

Mrs. Sherman of Charlotte has just sold her home in that city to her son and she will remain for the present with her sister, Mrs. Ballou.

APRIL 10, 1919.

Those from out of town who attended Mr. A. J. Kelly's funeral last Saturday were: Mr. Harry Kelly and family and Mrs. Ida Conklin of Grand Rapids; Mr. Fred Kelly and family and Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Moore of Battle Creek; Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Taylor, Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Travis and family, Mrs. Ella Taylor and Mrs. Collier of Nashville; Mr. and Mrs. Campbell of Charlotte; Mrs. Porter and Mrs. Wyble of Carlisle. Mr. and Mrs. Frank Beck and daughter, spent Sunday with Mrs. Beck's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harmon Hager, north of town.

Mrs. George Niles and children returned to Saugatuck, Monday after spending a week with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Downing.

Mrs. Dan Snoke and Mrs. Will Ward visited their aunt, Mrs. Angel at Kalamo, Sunday.

Gerald Ward and family have moved into the R. L. Hammond house on West Main St.

Frances Sprague returned to her work at Olivet College after pending her vacation at home.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Sprague received a wire from New York that their son, Edgar Sprague

NORTHWEST CARMEL

Mrs. Elwood Kelly and three children arrived in Charlotte last Wednesday from Colorado, where they have made their home for the last few years. They are now visiting at Marshall Kelly's.

MAY 1, 1919.

OBITUARY MRS. AMANDA ROBINSON CURTIS

One of Vermontville's life-long, most highly respected and greatly beloved citizens, Mrs. Amanda Robinson Curtis, died at her residence Monday of this week.

Mrs. Curtis was born in Vermontville the 27th of March, 1839 and, therefore, was aged eighty years, one month and one day at the time of her death. She was one of three children, including