Mr. Elmond Loveland accompanled by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Loveland motored to Belding Sunday.

Mrs. Doc Sackett of Nattewan bas been calling on friends in town. The guest of Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Hawkins of Locus cottage part of last week

Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Campbell expect to start on their trip west Satno doubt will see many places of iny pre (c down Betanapht terest.

JUNE 21, 1923.

Betar

Mr. Dana Irvin and Miss Mary Seitz were united in marriage Wed- home from Grand Rapids, Monday. nesday morning by Rev. Davis at the Congregational parsonage in companied her. Charlotte, and left for an auto trip to Niagara Falls. On their return they will reside on the Irvin farm northeast of town. The Echo and their many friends wish for them the best in life.

Mrs. Morgan of Charlotte is the guest of Mrs. Ed Loveland.

Mr. and Mrs. L. W. Loveland were, in Battle Creek Tuesday and Grand Rapids Wednesday.

Mrs. Gertrude Mate and daughter of Grand Rapids have been spending a few days with their parents Mr. and Mrs. L. W. Loveland.

LeRoy Snell and children of Detroit were guests of his parents over the Olivet Alumni. Mrs. Grace Hawkins Snell was given a very delightful surprise. She was given the Degree of Bachelor of Music.

i.c.se •---Mr. and Mrs. Bert Gregg and famurday. They are going by auto and kily of Belding spent Sunday at the shome of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Am-Ebrose.

> N. E. McLaughlin of Lansing was in town Tuesday and placed the largest order of the season for wall paper at L. W. Loveland's.

Mrs. Elizabeth Downing returned Her granddaughter, Helen Niles ac-

Chicago expects to reach Vermont-, Eckhart, Erma Powers, Millicent ville tomorrow night to spend the Lamb, Helen Woodard, Mary Thrun, summer.

Mrs. Lizzie Lake and Miss Nora - day school enjoyed an outing at Pine Irvin were present at the marriage Lake last week, being chaperoned by of their brother and sister, in Char- their teacher, Mrs. H. B. Johnson. lotte, Wednesday.

Mr. Chas. S. Wright, representing prevented by the measle epidemic. a firm of Bankers and Brokers, of Grand Rapids, an old friend called hiked down to Olivet to see the Belle on Mrs. Jay Hawkins recently. They had not met before for nearly twenty five years.

Miss May E. Norris leaves this afternoon for Squim, Wash., where she will spend the summer with cousins, going from there to Calif., where she will spend the winter with her brothers. E I

Pul So

ula

JUNE 28, 1923.

Mrs. Harley Smith, for many years a resident of Vermontville, but for about twenty years a resident of Sunfield township passed away at her home Friday after an illness lasting six years, having had several strokes. The funeral was held from the home Sunday and burial made in . Woodlawn cemetery,

G. B. B. GIRLS ENJOY

Dorothy Loveland, Clara Richie, Rhea Faust, Beryl Faust, Lucile Dr. Garfield Inwood and family of Johnson, Margaret Schram, Vernice Annamay Thrun, of the young ladies class of the Congregational Sun-

Several other members of this class had planned to go, but were On Wednesday evening the girls

Barchug show.

Helen Elmore Hall was the oldest daughter of Chas D. and Diantha E. Hall. Her early life was spent in Ver i montville where she received the greater part of her education. She was united in marriage Sept? 3, 1902 to Irvin Wyman Berry, who survives her.

She is preceeded in death by her father, mother, and two brothers, Chas. B. and George B.

Besdes her husband she leaves to mourn their loss, her step-mother; Mrs. Belle B. Hall of 'Vermontville, three borthers, Clarence of Los Angeles, John of Detroit and Ralph of Lansing; two sisters, (Mrs. E. J. Thomas and Mrs. H. J. Hawes both of Lansing and an aunt Mrs. Helen Mears of Palm Beach Florida.

Funeral services were held in her own home at Harbor Springs where she has resided for the past fifteen years and leaves a host of friends.

A second service was held at her childhood home Tuesday afternoon, Rev. Johnson officiating, with internment in Woodlawn cemetery.

- 1 · · · · · Mr. Arthur Loveland of Detroit is the guest of his brother. Mr. E. E. Loveland and wife.

Beryl Faust and Manta Rawson went to Kalamazoo Monday to attend summer normal.

Mr. Bert Warren and son, Charles of Kalamazoo were guests at Dr. Snell's over Sunday and John who had been here for a weeks visit accompanied them home.