

pointment from the Chief of Police, to the position of supervisor of all the city's public dance halls, in the interest of the young people who attend. This new position recently created by the city ordinance and Mrs. Harris is the first appointee to a place which offers a great opportunity to make these recreation halls places of wholesome amusement by eliminating all undesirable features.

Mr. and Mrs. C. G. Wade of Superior, Wisconsin, came Saturday for several days visit with friends in Vermontville.

Mr. and Mrs. S. C. Schram and daughter Bernice left Wednesday for a few days visit with relatives at Manton and Houghton Lake.

Dr. John Parker had charge of some of the National Guard troops for three days at Marion, Ohio, at the time of Harding's funeral.

W, AUGUST 23, 1923.

Last Thursday the Hawkins relatives, held a reunion at Duck Lake, the families of Harvey Jay, Joe Grant and Dewey Hawkins, Stanley Briggs and family meeting the following: Geo Kenworthy and family, from Spring Arbor, L. C. Clark and wife and father and mother from Jackson, Elver Snoko and wife from Holt, Hector Hawkins and family from Lansing, and Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Kenworthy from Calif., all numbering 39, a very enjoyable time was reported.

Mrs. Elizabeth Lentz of Charlotte, is in town this week, visiting old friends.

Mrs. Greta Betts of Sparta, was the guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Claud Hayward, last week.

Mrs. Christina Seitz spent two days this week with her daughter, Mrs. Mary Irvin.

Mr. and Mrs. Dwight Davis and son Donald of Jackson, were weekend guests at the home of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Davis.

Miss Thelma Dickinson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Dickinson, was united in marriage to Mr. Forrest Potter of Hanover, Mich., at the Methodist Parsonage by Rev. Whaley, at 5 o'clock on Sunday afternoon. Mrs. Potter was a very popular and efficient telephone operator here for some time and will be much missed.

Mr. Orris Griner and Miss Sylvia Hawkins started on an extended auto trip, August 18th., to Ohio, stopping off at Ann Arbor and was married at high noon by Professor Steward, Principal of the Spring Arbor Seminary, with whom Miss Hawkins had been associated with in care of the young people in that school as Preceptress.

AUGUST 30, 1923.

Mr. and Mrs. Rollin Sprague and daughters of Kalamazoo spent Sunday at A. L. Barningham's.

Miss Hazell Hawkins will go back to Detroit to begin her school work for the year, next Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. John Burkett will leave the Hotel soon as Mrs. B.'s health has failed so she is not able to continue her work there.

Miss Lois Gaut will go to her school work Saturday. She teaches the same school where she taught last year.

The Foreign Missionary Society of the M. E. church was well attended at the church Tuesday afternoon.

Mrs. Lillian Campbell, who has been staying at the home of her son, Dale Campbell at Charlotte, is at home on East Second street.

Miss Rosalie Helm leaves Saturday for her school work near Detroit. She will teach in the kindergarten department.

Mr. J. W. Carskadon of Muskegon, and Mrs. Lyle Ryan of Chester and Hattie Beth of Chester called on Mrs. E. O. Pugh Sunday and Mrs. Ed. Loveland, Monday.

Mrs. Fred Hopper and son, Francis left for Detroit Monday evening to spend the week with Mrs. Myra Buchanan.

Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Reynolds motored to Tustin, Osceola County last Wednesday to visit the former's uncle, returning on Saturday via Grand Rapids to see the latter's sister, Miss Altie Boyles, who has a position in an office there.

A pretty wedding took place on Wednesday afternoon, August 29th at the home of M. W. Amspacher when their daughter, Helen Edith, was united in marriage to Edward Gross.

The wedding took place at six o'clock, Rev. H. B. Johnson officiating. The double ring ceremony was used. Miss Bessie Gross, sister of the groom attended the bride and Russel Amspacher, brother of the bride, acted as best man. The wedding march was played by Olive Boyer.

Four Vermontville young people were enjoying an auto ride Sunday evening which came near resulting very seriously. Arden Lamb driving a new Chevrolet accompanied by Ralph Hess, Dorothy Loveland and Rhea Faust, about a mile east of town, ran off the bank breaking off a telephone pole and fence post and turning the car completely over. The car was damaged badly. Young Lamb's hand was cut but the others were not injured.

248