

JULY 3, 1924.

Miss Zella Allen of Seattle, Wash., spent from Sunday till Tuesday with Mrs. Edith Biggs.

Patronize the G. B. B. Girls at the Congregational church lawn on Saturday night and enjoy a dish of ice cream.

Mr. H. J. Martin has been confined to his bed for about a week and is very weak.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Davis spent Saturday and Sunday in Jackson with their son and family.

Dr. Garfield Inwood and family of Chicago came last week to spend the summer with the E. B. Hammond family, here and at Thorneapple Lake.

Dr. McLaughlin and family left today for a weeks vacation at Diamond Lake, where they own a lot. They expect to return in time for Neil to go camping with his Sunday School class July 10th to 17th at Pine Lake, then they will return North where the doctor will remain a week or ten days and the family will make an indefinite stay.

A. L. DICKINSON

A. L. Dickinson, aged 85 years, 1 month, 26 days, passed away Monday evening, June 23, 1924 at 8:00 o'clock at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Leila Walker in Sebawa. He was born April 28, 1839 in Orleans County, New York, and came to Jackson County, Michigan in 1856, and in 1862, enlisted in Ohio and served in the 105th Ohio Volunteer Infantry until close of war and was honorably discharged.

Returning to Maringo, Calhoun County, he was married to Harriette M. Belcher, in Feb. 6, 1868. To this union six children were born, George, Fred, Calvin, Lula, Bert, Elsie.

He leaves to mourn his loss the wife, three sons and one daughter, eleven grand children, three great grand children and a host of friends.

He was a member of G. A. R., Masons, Eastern Star, and Brotherhood of the M. E. Church of Vermontville. He came to Sunfield township in 1876 where he lived until 1898, moving to his home in Vermontville where he spent the rest of his life. The funeral was conducted by Rev. L. H. Cone, at Frank Walker's, Thursday at 1:00 p. m. and 2:00 p. m. at the Vermontville M. E. Church, Burial in Preemire Cemetery.

MRS. EVELYN MARSH

Mrs. Evelyn Eleanor Marsh, 22, of 38 Charlton street, employed for the past year and a half in the office of the Enquirer and News, died Friday morning at 5:30 o'clock, following a serious operation at Nichols hospital on Tuesday. Her husband, Harold B. Marsh is a pressman with the Enquirer and News, and they were married July 15 of last year.

Mrs. Marsh went through the operation successfully and up to Wednesday afternoon was getting on satisfactorily. After that, however, she began to sink steadily. Yesterday afternoon her condition was so low that her husband was called. She continued to sink until she died in the early morning. Mrs. Marsh was a proof reader when she first joined the Enquirer and News, but since her marriage has been switchboard operator. Besides her husband, she leaves her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Fred D. Hopper of Vermontville; a sister, Julia Hopper of Battle Creek; two brothers, Lyman of Roanoke, Va., and Francis, a child at home. Mrs. Marsh was of a quiet and amiable disposition and won the affection of all who knew her. There will be a prayer service at 10:30 at the home on Charlton street Saturday morning, after which the body will be taken to Vermontville, where funeral services will be held Sunday. Burial will be made in the Woodlawn cemetery, Vermontville.

NINA HAMMOND

KILLED IN WRECK

Mrs. Hiram Clapp, 50, of McCook, Nebraska, and her niece, Miss Nina Hammond, 35, of Coopersville were killed Monday in the train wreck at Buda, Ill., which took the life of Dr. F. W. McNair, president of the Michigan College of Mines. Mr. Clapp was critically injured and now lies in a Chicago hospital where it was reported

He perhaps knew personally more Opera Stars (of this day and those passed) than any man in the United States.

He lived a long and useful life, suffering a bad fall about a year ago, from which he was never able to recover.

The passing of Henry J. Martin Monday in his eighty-eighth year removes from us one of the few surviving members of the original colony. He was a man of broad principles, a pillar of the church and a musician and musical critic that ranked with the best.

JULY 10, 1924.

Mr. and Mrs. Jay Grinnell of Detroit, and Mr. and Mrs. James Wetherbee of Sunfield were Sunday guests of Mrs. Stella Grinnell.

ed Tuesday his condition showed a slight improvement. Mr. and Mrs. Clapp were on an eastern buying trip for their stores at McCook. They were to visit Mr. Clapp's mother at Allegan, the boyhood home of Mr. Clapp. Miss Nina Hammond was on her way to Grand Rapids and Coopersville, the girlhood home of Mrs. Clapp.
