

a program was given. Everyone present learned that the Juniors although handicapped by their good looks expected to produce many fine men and women, we also learned how basket ball should be played correctly, how that there is no such thing as The superiority of the faculty and that Mr. Davis once heard someone singing in paradise.

After singing the Alumni song the banquet disbanded everyone wishing that more banquets might be enjoyed in the future.

—Worth Tyler.

Dennis Gunthorpe, former Vermontville boy, is located in Stockton, California, and with his family and father, Wm. Gunthorpe, enjoying their western home. He is conducting a grocery store and doing a fine business.

OCTOBER 30, 1924.

A Boy Scout Troop has been organized in Vermontville, with Roy Mathews as Scout Master. Each boy must earn enough money to buy his own suit etc., which will amount to about ten dollars. Three of the boys are earning their money at Doctor McLaughlin's, who has given them sufficient employment to nearly cover the amount.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy L. Hammond of Chicago have been spending a few days with friends here, and our only regret is that they cannot stay longer. They will return home by auto tomorrow morning.

NOVEMBER 27, 1924.

The November Honor List in the Senior High School is as follows:

Those having all A's:- Helen Briggs and Helen Benedict.

The B. List:- Avis Harwood, Violet Hawkins, Carolyn Hatfield, Florence Merriam, Florence Neff, Forest Randall, Delilah Ward, Katherine Boyer, Margareta Zemke, Dorothy Loveland, Velma Roth, Worth Tyler, Marguerite Randall and Hilda Boyd.

Those having one C:- Thelma King, Myrtie Hager, Clarice Dean, Rhea Faust, Marie Rawson and Elizabeth Southern.

The Junior High honor list:-

Mr. and Mrs. James Wheeler and daughter Fern, and Mr. and Mrs. Percy Richardson and little grandson of Charlotte, Mr. and Mrs. Leon Wheeler and three children of Portland, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Kauffman of Ionia and Miss Gertrude Warner were Thanksgiving guests at O. B. Tubbs'.

Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Martin and family, Harlan Breen of Charlotte, and Mr. and Mrs. Harold Martin and baby of Hastings spent Sunday at Frank Thrun's.

Harold and Helen Niles came over Sunday and spent part of the week here taking their grandmother Mrs. Downing and aunt Miss Jennie Downing to their home in Olivet for Thanksgiving.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Welshon and Frances Heil came Wednesday for Thanksgiving with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. M. L. Stiles. Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Earl and Miss Myrta Tyler were also Thanksgiving guests. Mr. Welshon returned to Jackson Friday.

Mrs. Edith Biggs entertained her brother, Jones Martin and family of Battle Creek, and sister Miss Jennie Thanksgiving day.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Barber, Mr. and Mrs. Vance Barber and Mr. and Mrs. Keith Barber spent Thanksgiving with friends in Hastings.

DECEMBER 11, 1924.

Mrs. Eugene Powers, who has been very low the past week, is a little better. Her daughter, Ruth is here to help care for her.

Hall's Night Hawks will furnish the music for the dance at the Opera House next Tuesday evening December 16th.

Clyde Hines and wife were in Detroit recently, going by rail and returning with a new Ford car for Barber Bros.

Mrs. Harley Dorman and Miss Ruth Powers were called here from Detroit last Thursday by the serious illness of their mother, Mrs. Eugene Powers. Mrs. Dorman returned home Sunday.

A baby girl arrived at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Warner, Tuesday.

Devilleo Z. McLaughlin was born in April 18, 1848, in Ashland County, Ohio. He came to Michigan in 1853 with his father's family. He settled in Carmel township, Eaton County which was his home until 1869 when he was married to Est J. Griest, and from this union were born four children, F. E. McLaughlin of Charlotte, Ned E. McLaughlin of Lansing, Lena M. Ploof of Chester and Dr. C. L. D. McLaughlin of Vermontville.

After his marriage he removed to the farm home in Chester where he lived practically all the remaining years of his life. His wife died January, 3 1910.

Those surviving are two sisters and one brother, four children and nine grandchildren.

He has been a sufferer for twenty years and during the last ten years has been practically helpless and an invalid.

Funeral services were held on Friday, December 5, at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Ploof conducted by Rev. H. H. Rogers and burial was made in Maple Hill Cemetery, Charlotte.

A Bake Sale will be held at Roy Mathews' store on Saturday, given by the Congregational Sunday School in charge of the G. B. B. Girls. This is to raise money to provide candy for the children at Christmas, so we ask the support of everyone.