

isions to be rendered by May 1, 1925. Here some very valuable prizes be awarded, the first one being a $15,000 home; the others include several college scholarships. Is it too much to hope that Vermontville gets in on some of these?

Harry Hammond and wife will motor to Morgan Christmas night.

Elvin Nash of Nashville called on Mr. Roach Tuesday and left him a little reminder of Christmas.

Every American will enjoy seeing "The Alaskan" New Years by James Oliver Curwood.

Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Alsover go to Charlotte and spend Christmas with Ned B. Alsover and family.

Mrs. Iva Johnson and son of Plainwell and Miss Hilda Shafer of Morgan were guests of their sister, Mrs. Harry Hammond Tuesday.

Mrs. Belle Kelley and daughter Doreen together with the McLaughlin household will eat goose at the Doctor's home Christmas.

A very nice program was given at the Chance school house, Santa Clause, Christmas Tree and a good crowd. Miss Althouse sure knows how to put through a Christmas program.

Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Sprague will entertain Mrs. Green, A. L. Barningham and family and Phil Green and wife to Christmas dinner. Their daughters Mabel and Ceila are home for the holidays.

Mrs. Worden and Mr. and Mrs. Dewey Hawkins will entertain her sister, Mrs. Cupples and husband of Charlotte and Mrs. James Clapper and family, Wells Barnes and family of Lansing Christmas.

Mr. and Mrs. Harmon Hager, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Beck and Irma, Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Kreighoff and daughter, Viola of Battle Creek, David Baker and family, Allie Baker and family will spend Christmas at Willis Baker's.

Mrs. Hannah Gehman will spend Christmas at Arthur Tyler's.

LeRoy Snel and children will visit his parent's during the holidays.

L. W. Leveland and wife will enjoy Christmas as usual with the children, grandchild and a tree.

Nora Irvin says she will celebrate Thursday by putting up the coal stove.

C. T. Hess and wife will have Harold Hess and wife with them on Christmas.

Where shall we look for Fall and Holiday goods, why Glasgow's of course.

C. H. Lamb says they will have the "kids", turkey and all the fine things, Christmas.

The doll in Mathews Grocery Window is attracting much attention. The one guessing the correct name of the little Miss will be happy tonight (Wednesday).

Rev. and Mrs. L. H. Cone will motor to Stockbridge for Christmas.

American Legion dancing party News Years Eve. Everybody welcome.

Mrs. Mary Williams has been very ill the past week.

Lois and Bernice Gant are home from their schools for the vacation.

Don't forget Thomas Meighan in "The Alaskan" New Years.

Dr. and Mrs. Davis will entertain their brother, Dan Hickey and family of Battle Creek Christmas.

Albert Steward and family of Charlotte spent Sunday at Ernest Rawson's.

All the children and grand children will be home for Christmas at H. H. Brown's.

Roscoe Williams says they will have fried oysters "down on the farm," Christmas.

John Garinger and daughter Agnes, will spend Christmas with Mrs. Eva Garinger of Sunfield.

Mr. and Mrs. Bailes will have their children and grand children as their guests on Christmas day.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Davis will spend Christmas with the latter's sister Mrs. Pennington in Charlotte.

Sat-Sun. Walter Hiers in "Fair Week". If you want a good laugh see this one.

Grant Hawkins and family will spend Christmas at Frankie Rawson's.

Monday December 29th. Stores will start closing at 6:00 p. m. except Saturday nights.

Mrs. Maud Corey will entertain her children and their families, and other relatives Christmas eve.

New Years Thomas Meighan in "The Alaskan" by James Oliver Curwood.

Dean ate Christmas dinner with his daughter and family in Nashville.

Mr. and Mrs. E. D. Lake will be as Christmas guests Glenn Lake, family of Charlotte and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Smith.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Keith will serve mush and milk Christmas with Frank Keith and wife of Kalamo to help enjoy it.

Rev. H. H. Rogers, wife and family are spending Christmas with his father Rev. H. W. Rogers in Otsego, Michigan.

Large stock, big sales, low prices, all go together in Nashville at Glasgow's. It will pay YOU to investigate.

J. Leland Davis of Ohio Wesleyan University, Delaware, Ohio is spending his vacation with his brother, Supt. B. L. Davis and family.

E. C. Bowman was operated on for nasal trouble at Lansing last Friday and therefore Santa will find the Bowmans at home this year.

Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Crook and daughter Alta and Lauren Dean will motor to the home of Alick Bolter in Hastings Christmas day.

Mrs. A. G. Hawkins is improving and expects her children home for Christmas, Mrs. Renth of Chicago will remain for a longer visit.

Chas. Barnum brought in his yearly present of celery to the Echo and we find that some celery gladdens hearts.

Mr. and Mrs. Hiram Grant have the children and grand children all with them for the big Christmas dinner.