

ville, of the class of '25 Ypsilanti State Normal College, will teach in the Chelsea schools next year.

Mrs. Nellie Hull leaves Saturday morning for Newark, N. J. to visit her son, Kennon and family. She expects to be gone until September 1. Julia Hopper will keep house for Mr. Mowrey this summer.

Arthur Loveland of Detroit is visiting his brother, E. E. Loveland and wife.

Dr. C. L. D. McLaughlin and family went to Diamond Lake for a week's stay.

Mrs. Sherman Merrill and children of Lansing are spending a few days at the home of Mrs. Frank Bartig.

Call Bill Kamiensky at the depot. He wants to tell you about the M. C. excursion to Detroit next Sunday. See ad in this issue.

The Misses Beatrice Koepfgen, Bernice Gaut, and Ethel Powers spent Monday evening with friends at Bellevue.

Howard Loomis of Omaha, Nebraska visited his sister Mrs. E. W. Steyens, and his mother, Mrs. Susar Loomis of Sunfield last Friday.

Word has been received from the Boy Scouts in camp at Twin Lake that Hi Woodard is ill with chicken-pox.

Charles Stiles motored to Sunfield Tuesday evening taking his mother, Mrs. Etta Hallenbeck and Mrs. Mary Williams and called on Mrs. Susan Loomis. They found her usually well and happy.

Miss Nettie Walsh of Detroit who has been spending a few days with Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Walsh, left Tuesday for a two months trip through the West and Alaska.

Donald Carey of Caledonia is attending Summer school in Ann Arbor, and his wife and little son Neil are at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Granger.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest L. Jones, daughter, Mrs. Blanche MacDougall and nephew Eldon Cherry came down from Owosso Saturday and took back a truck load of household goods they had stored here.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy C. French, daughter and sons motored here from their home in DePere, Wis. to see his father, Warren French, who is very low, and be here for the V. H. S. Alumni.

Mrs. Deon Green returned to her home in Ypsilanti, after spending a week here, being called home by the illness of her little sister Kathryn.

Miss Addie May Corey is home from the Western State Normal, Kalamazoo. She has received her Life Certificate and has several points on a degree.

JULY 9, 1925.

Mrs. Loveland of Detroit and Mrs. Morgan of Charlotte were week-end visitors of Mr. and Mrs. Ed Loveland.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Spafford of Grand Rapids and Mr. and Mrs. Whelan of Chester called on Ed Loveland and wife Sunday.

WOMAN HURT IN CRASH MAY DIE Wife of Belding Justice Injured When Autos Meet

Belding July 2.—Mrs. M. A. Reed, wife of Justice Reed of this city, was taken to Blodgett hospital, Grand Rapids, Thursday morning, semi-conscious and in a very critical condition as the result of an automobile collision on the edge of Belding late Wednesday. Doctors said there was a slight chance for recovery.

Mrs. Reed was riding with her sister, Mrs. Julia Briggs, of Springfield, Mass., and a niece, Ruth Gregg, and their automobile collided with one driven by G. E. Samuels of Ionia, the mishap occurring on an incline on MGG at a point where a mound makes it difficult to see approaching cars.

Mrs. Briggs was less seriously injured, while the niece and Mr. Samuels suffered numerous cuts.

Mrs. Reed's injuries were described as a gash in the leg, which necessitated the taking of several stitches; two broken ribs; a serious wound in the back of the head; double fracture of the jawbone; a wrenched back and numerous bruises.

Mrs. Reed's condition at noon Thursday was announced by hospital authorities as being slightly improved, though still critical.

—Grand Rapids Press.

Ruth Gregg is a daughter of Vera Ambrose Gregg and a granddaughter of Mrs. and Mrs. Frank Ambrose. Mrs. Reed is a sister of Mr. Gregg. Mrs. Briggs is a cousin, not a sister. The auto was Mrs. Reed's and she was driving. The clipping is a true account of the accident. Mrs. Briggs and Ruth received several cuts and bruises, but were not seriously injured. Mrs. Reed died Friday afternoon at Blodgett hospital, Grand Rapids. The funeral was Monday afternoon at her home in Belding. Mr. Gregg has been very ill for several weeks, but is standing the shock of the accident and his sister's death very bravely. Just a week before her death Mrs. Reed, Mrs. Gregg and Ruth spent the day at the home of Mr. Ambrose.

C. C. HALLENBECK

The many friends of C. C. Hallenbeck were shocked to hear of his sudden death, which occurred at his home, Sunday, July 5.

Charles C. Hallenbeck, son of C. J. and Elizabeth Hallenbeck, was born at the old homestead east of Vermontville, November 18, 1858. He was the youngest of six children, only one of whom, Rev. J. W. Hallenbeck of Detroit, still survives. Mr. Hallenbeck received his education in Vermontville, with the exception of a year at Greenville, and later taught in the village school.

In 1881, he married Alice J. Hyde, and went to Hoytville, where for two years he kept a general store, at the

283