The dinner consisted of three courses of fish with two side dishes of fish and fish for desert, together with the trimmings. Charlie Lamb and Bill Lackey tried to compete in the cottage next door but Charlie made so much coffee he had to bail out the coffee pot every now and then to keep it from running over. As Ring Lardner would say "it was a large day full of events."

J. S. Garinger and Agnes, Mrs. E.
E. Loveland, Ruby Gehman and James Boyles spent Sunday at Eaton Rapids Camp ground and heard Bishop Nicholson and Rev. John L. Brasher preach.
