

William and ... Los Angeles California

While residing in North Dakota Mr. Stevens, besides developing a substantial ranch out of the raw prairie, served a term as State Railroad Commissioner, and represented the Deering Harvesting Co., as their salesman and collector for several years, residing at Fargo, N. D.

Mr. Stevens with his family settled in Isabella County near Brinton in 1902. The section of land purchased at the time was his home until his death. Here he died last Friday night at 10 o'clock October 23, 1925. He was in his usual health until within twenty four hours of his death.

Besides his children above named he is survived by 8 grand children and three brothers, Albert E. of Cogswell, N. D.; Rev. Frank V. of Bonne Terre Mo. and Edgar W. of Vermontville, Mich. All the brothers and children with their husbands were present except William who could not be notified in time. Other relatives present were Mrs. Edgar W. Stevens of Vermontville and Dr. and Mrs. George Parmenter of Petoskey.

Dr. C. S. Snell suffered a slight stroke last Friday, rendering his right hand and arm practically useless. We are glad to say however that the genial Doctor is cheerful, with his usual smile, and says he is getting fine.

NOVEMBER 12, 1925.

Nellie Evalena King passed away November 7th, 1925 at her home in Vermontville, aged 59 years and 19 days.

She was born in Hillsdale County, Michigan, October 27th, 1866. When about one year old her parents moved to Vermontville and located on the farm where her father now resides. Her mother passed away in the year 1887.

Eva's early girlhood life was spent at home until nineteen years of age when she was united in marriage to Louis King of Baltimore, Maryland. To this union six children were born.

About twenty-three years ago they moved to their present home.

Her willing hands with cheerful spirit met all toil and social duties with love and smiles. She was a devoted wife and loving mother.

A few years ago she united with the Congregational Church. She was an active member of the Ladies of the Macabees and the W. R. C.

She is survived by her husband Louis King, six children Fredrick, Mrs. Zella Wells, Mrs. Hazel Bosworth, Mrs. Mabelle Johnson, and two sons at home Albert and Harold, also her parents Mr. and Mrs. Charles F. Fuller, her sister Mrs. Ethel Gehman and thirteen grandchildren, besides other relatives and friends. "We shall meet but we shall miss you. There will be one vacant chair."

Funeral services were held at the home on Tuesday, November 10th, conducted by Rev. H. H. Rogers. Burial at Woodlawn Cemetery, Vermontville.

290

FAUST-HESS

Of interest to their many Vermontville friends was the marriage of Miss Rhea Phylis Faust, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Allen Faust to Mr. Ralph Vern Hess youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hess.

The ceremony took place Sunday afternoon, November 8 at Reading, Michigan. The officiating minister being Rev. L. H. Cone, well known former pastor of the Methodist Church.

While Bruce Knowles was in Lansing Tuesday he called on Mrs. Emma Fletcher Vaughn who was a teacher in the Grammar Department of Vermontville schools 1885-90. She recognized him, and called him by name almost as quickly as she did thirty-five years ago.

Mantcn (Boody) Marble has been renewing boyhood acquaintances here for a few days. He has visited nearly every part of the globe. Was a World War veteran, serving with the Canadian army from which he draws a pension. It will be remembered that the family run the hotel here about thirty years ago. Mrs. Marble and daughter Alice are living in Colorado.

NOVEMBER 26, 1925.

Edd Campbell and Mrs. Effie Beck of Lansing were in town Sunday. They report Mrs. Neva Campbell home from the hospital at An Arbor, altho in very poor health.

Mr. and Mrs. ... rber were hosts at an attractive bridge dinner at their home Thursday evening. The guests were Mr. and Mrs. Kella Stem, Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Lane, Mr. and Mrs. Jim Mason, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Potts, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Carveth, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Stebbins, Mr. and Mrs. John Gould, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Goodyear, Mr. and Mrs. John Noble and Mr. and Mrs. William Stebbins of Hastings, Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Fulton, Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Fulton, Dr. and Mrs. A. J. Garlinghouse, Mr. and Mrs. Ned B. Alsover and Judge McPeck of Charlotte, Dr. and Mrs. D. M. Snell of Lansing, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Grant of Battle Creek, Mrs. E. D. Barber, Mr. and Mrs. Vance Barber and Mrs. Howard Mason of Vermontville.

Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Barningham will entertain for Thanksgiving: E. J. Sprague and family, Albert Green and family, Mrs. Catherine Green, and Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Dikeman.

Since an attack last week Monday Mr. Ambrose has been confined to the house. He is hoping however to be well enough for the usual family reunion on Thanksgiving Day.

Frank Benedict and Mrs. Brown will entertain Mrs. Scarvell of Greenville and Fred Benedict and wife from Battle Creek for the Thanksgiving dinner.

Mr. and Mrs. Grant Hawkins will have as their Thanksgiving guests: Mr. and Mrs. Deon Green from Ypsilanti, Dewey Hawkins and family, Mrs. Campbell, Frankie Rawson and family and Mr. Bly from St. Joe and Mr. Pike from Lansing.

Mr. and Mrs. Bert S. Gregg and daughter Ruth, her chum Violet Wiswell, and Belle and Frank Gregg, Mr. and Mrs. Elmon Love