GUTCHESS-LOVELAND

September twenty-fifth, at the home of the bride's parents, Post-master and Mrs. E. J. Loveland oc-curred the marriage of their daugh-ter Dorothy to Victor Gutches of Charlotte. Rev. Harold H. Rogers pronounced the words which united the lives of these young people, us-ing the impressive ring service. The bride who was given away by her father, looked charming in a gown of peach Georgette with touches of silver and carried a boquet of swan-sonia and bride's roses. She was at-tended by her sister Vera, who was becomingly attired in powder blue Georgette and carried a bouquet of pink roses. Kenneth Childs acted as best man.

The rooms were profusely decorat-ed with flowers and ferns and the dining room was especially pretty where a delicious buffet luncheon was served. The table was most at-tractive centered with the bride's loaf of unusual beauty and delecta-tion.

Those from away who attended the wedding were the groom's par-ents of Nashville, a sister, Mrs. Grace Jones of Battle Creek and Mr. and Mrs. (nee Vera Ambrose) Gregg and family of Belding.
