

30
July 28, 1927

Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Hay visited the Brigham family, formerly of West Vermontville, in Marshall, Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Hopper and family are moving this week to the Morey house on South Main Street, their future home.

The Charlotte Community Band expect to give one of their popular concerts in Vermontville some time in August. Watch for date.

Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Buchanan of Detroit spent the week end at the Hopper home on their return trip from a visit at the Soo.

George Seamen and family of Lansing and the Tieche family of Nashville visited at Asa J. Brown's, Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Reynolds and son Harold of Battle Creek and Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Brown started this morning on a motor trip to Syracuse, N. Y.

Mr. and Mrs. George Dickinson visited their daughter in the Jackson hospital again Sunday but did not find her improved as they had hoped.

Mrs. Verna Townsend and daughter Elouise were the guests of Mrs. Daisy Townsend at her cottage at Hornapple Lake last Tuesday and Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. L. Verne Slout came home Sunday. As they had written they could not come. Mrs. Slout and the children were at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Clair Ellis in Carlisle to visit with Mr. and Mrs. L. D. Benedict of Grand Rapids, so Verne and wife joined the family at the Ellis home. They are at St. Charles this week.

Edson-Fuller and family of Detroit visited his parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. A. Fuller, Sunday, on their way to Milwaukee to attend the convention of the Northern Life Insurance Association.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Will H. Moore, at Harbor Springs, July 22, a five pound daughter, Arvilla Dorreen. Mr. and Mrs. Moore were former Vermontville residents. Mrs. Moore will be remembered as the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Parke.

This is Lou Mathews last week on Roy Mathews' country truck as he is about to open his store between Charlotte and Olivet. Paul Tubbs has been accompanying him on the truck of late to learn the routes and get acquainted with the customers.

(Sparrows Point), 502-704
Barre, Vt., 1-19

Mr. and Mrs. Weyant and sons Richard, Lloyd, and Robert of Detroit visited his aunt Mrs. Jesse Garn and husband over the week end, and are also visiting his cousins in the country. Mr. and Mrs. Ira Garn and son Paul of Portland and Mr. and Mrs. Kline of Chester were also Sunday guests.

Mrs. Bungras opened the hotel just the right time to get business as before they were ready for boarders they had more than they could care for. The men working on the railroad and those drilling for oil on farms north of town are taxing the capacity of the hotel and some had to seek lodging elsewhere.

August 4, 1927

Laila A. Worden was born in Vermontville, November 13, 1894, and passed from this life, July 27, 1927 at her home in Vermontville, where she spent her entire life.

She was united in marriage to Dewey Hawkins on September 25, 1915. Two children were born from this union, Lilabell now ten years of age, and Harold four.

Mrs. Hawkins is also survived by her husband, her invalid mother, Mrs. Worden of Vermontville, a sister, Mrs. Grace Barnes also of Vermontville and a brother Floyd of Detroit.

Mrs. Hawkins was a splendid Mother and wife, and although she was taken from her home at an early age, she felt confident in Jesus' power and so, did not fear to go.

Funeral services were held at the home at one o'clock Friday, July 29 conducted by Rev. Earl S. Scott and burial was made at Woodlawn cemetery.

Why do we mourn for dying friends,
Or shake at death's alarm?

'Tis but the voice that Jesus sends
To call them to his arms.

STANLEY DILLE

Stanley Dille born February 22, 1922 at Vermontville, son of Albert and Grace French Dille, died Wednesday July 27, 1927 at St. Marys' hospital, Grand Rapids.

Mrs. Edith Shumaker and L. C. Hungerford were quietly married Tuesday at the M. E. parsonage by Rev. Frank Kingdon at Lansing. The bridal couple left Saturday for a wedding trip through Buffalo, Niagara, Washington, D. C. and Toledo. Mrs. Hungerford is the daughter of Mrs. Elizabeth Lentz of Charlotte and has been the popular bookkeeper at the Peters-Munger Co. for the past two years. Mr. Hungerford is an employee of the Michigan Central R. R. Co. They will reside at 1143 N. Pennsylvania avenue, Lansing.

Charlotte Republican

MRS. J. C. SHERMAN

Mrs. Carrie B. Sherman, 67 years old, died at the Lane Memorial home Friday at one a. m. The funeral was held Sunday at noon at the home of Mrs. W. B. Otto on Harris avenue, Rev. W. H. Skentelbury officiating. J. Edson Sherman of this city was a step-son. Burial in the Freemire cemetery in Vermontville.

Carrie I. Bogardus was born in Trop, N. Y. January 10, 1860, and died July 29, 1927, at the age of 67 years, six months and 19 days. When but a child she came with her parents to Michigan and lived in or near Vermontville for many years. November 18, 1901, she was united in marriage with J. C. Sherman of Vermontville, former publisher of the Vermontville Echo. After a few years they moved to Charlotte, which was their home the remainder of their lives. Mr. Sherman passing away June 3, 1917.

For the past seven years Mrs. Sherman had lived with Mrs. W. B. Otto, who tenderly cared for her through her last illness with the exception of the last few days, which were spent at the Lane home. She leaves a brother, Henry Bogardus of Newark, S. D.; and many other relatives and loyal friends to mourn their loss.

JAMES H. GRANGER

James H. Granger was born in Toronto, Canada, August 22, 1851. He departed this life July 31, 1927, age 75 years, 11 mo and 9 days. He was the youngest son of William and Elizabeth Granger. Seventeen years ago he came to live with his niece Mrs. Hannah Lords at whose home he died. He is survived by one brother George H. Granger and several nieces and nephews.

Funeral services were held at the home of his niece Mrs. H. Lords, Tuesday, August 2, at two p. m. Elder Roach officiating and his body layed to rest in the Gresham cemetery. The services were attended by many of his friends and old neighbors.

Mr. and Mrs. Reed and little daughter moved here from Lansing the last of the week and are occupying the Fred Hopper house. Mrs. Reed is one of our H. S. teachers and a sister of Mrs. J. R. Childs.

Mrs. DePlanta of Grand Rapids, Mr. and Mrs. Potts, son and daughter of Hastings and Mrs. Mary Williams, local, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. E. D. Barber last Thursday in honor of their nephew and brother Major Barnes of Washington, D. C.

Mr. and Mrs. John Kerlin and Mrs. Ralph Townsend and children, who have been visiting their parents Mr. and Mrs. Roy Hager left today on the return trip to their homes in Palm City, Florida.