

Mrs. D. E. Moore of Jackson is here helping care for her father, E. E. Sibbrell. He was taken to the home of Irvin Powers Tuesday, but he was so restless and insistent on being taken home, that Mr. Powers was unable to keep him. Roy Sibbrell, of Battle Creek, who has been here much of the past year, was over a part of this week.

Mrs. Jess Garlinger and little daughter spent the week end with her parents Mr. and Mrs. H. Brown. Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Barrett were in Battle Creek Monday to see their son Charlie Barrett.

See Thomas Meighan in the Canadian Sat.-Sun. buy your tickets of the Boy Scouts.

Mrs. Ambrose is ill in bed—a nervous breakdown from over work and excitement.

C. F. Fuller is in a very serious condition considering his age. Mr. and Mrs. William Gehman and other relatives are assisting in caring for him. A gathering in his head is just now giving him much trouble and pain.

Mrs. J. E. Pennington of Charlotte is spending the week with her sister Mrs. Walter Davis while Mr. Davis is in University hospital at Ann Arbor. He went Monday morning and a successful operation was performed Tuesday morning.

Charlie Barrett, son of Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Barrett, former resident here, passed away at his home in Battle Creek at 10:30 Tuesday evening. He had been ill for some time with cancer of the stomach. Funeral will be held Friday at 2:30 p. m. in Battle Creek. He is survived by his wife.

January 19, 1928 41

W. C. Allover has completed forty years as cashier of the Barber bank at Vermontville. He is the perfect exhibit of the charm of the old south where he was born. Real gentleman that he is, no man excels him in the quality and sincerity of his friendship. That he has only to point to his long and faithful record with this one institution. His business anniversary and the fine democracy of his private life, suggests these lines by Edgar A. Guest:

Men are of two kinds, and he
Is of the kind I'd like to be.
Some preach their virtues, and a few
Express their lives by what they do.
That sort is he. No flowery phrase
Or glibly spoken words of praise
Won friends for him. He isn't cheap
Or shallow, but his course runs deep.
And it is pure. You know the kind.
Not many in a life you find
Whose deeds outrun their words so far

at more than what they seem they re.—Charlotte Republican.

Charles F. Fuller was born in Macon, Lenawee County, Michigan, June 13th, 1842, and passed away at his home in Vermontville, at seven o'clock Monday morning, January 16, 1928, in his 86th year.

He enlisted at the age of twenty in the Fourth Michigan Cavalry and served with his regiment until May 16th, 1864 when he was wounded and taken prisoner at Floyd Springs, Georgia. He was kept in Andersonville and Florence prisons until the close of the war. He was discharged on a Surgeons certificate of disability at Harper Hospital, Detroit, July 19th, 1865, on account of wounds received at Floyd Springs, Georgia.

Soon after his return home he married Eliza Barker and moved to Vermontville and bought the farm where he spent the remainder of his life working hard to make a good home for his family. His wife passed away in 1886 leaving two daughters.

In 1888 he married Eliza Boyd who with one daughter, Mrs. William Gehman, one brother, S. A. Fuller, two sons-in-law, eight grandchildren, fourteen great grandchildren, three sisters, and many nieces and nephews are left to mourn their loss.

Funeral services conducted by the Rev. C. C. Mitchell were held at the home at 10:30 a. m., Thursday, January 19th. The American Legion attended in a body and conducted the services at the cemetery. Burial was made at Woodlawn.

Mr. and Mrs. John Ploof and daughters spent Saturday night at Ned McLaughlin's and family in Eagle, taking Joseph to Evert Sunday afternoon.

Walter Davis came home from the Ann Arbor hospital Tuesday afternoon. He is able to be about the house and is rapidly recovering from his operation.

Mr. and Mrs. Ira Garn of Portland were Wednesday guests of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Garn. Grover Garn and wife were Monday visitors.

Mrs. Janette McCarty of South Haven came Wednesday, called here to attend the funeral of Mr. C. F. Fuller. Earl Gehman motored to Kalamazoo for her.

Mrs. Leonard went to Rives Junction Monday for a week's visit with her son Archie Darrow and family.

Mr. S. A. Fuller is still very low with no signs of improvement. Mrs. Scott of Nashville is the new nurse at the Fuller home.

The Bridge Club met with Mrs. C. K. Wells Tuesday. A pot luck dinner (one of the best ever served) was enjoyed by the ladies.

Ilo Ferris made a drive to Lansing Friday morning taking Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Brown and Mrs. Moss. While there he took dinner with his uncle Frank Ferris. Ed. Keith looked after his dray work that morning.

Mr. and Mrs. Claud Hayward of Jackson visited Saturday night and Sunday with her brother Ernest Satterlee and wife and called on friends. Mrs. Hayward remained until Tuesday when she went to Sparta to visit her daughter Greta and family.

Mrs. Jay Hawkins has received word that Mr. and Mrs. Charles Park of 625 East Liberty street, Ann Arbor, are both ill at University hospital. Mr. Park was taken ill with an attack of heart trouble and later Mrs. Park became ill. Their many Vermontville friends are sorry for their condition.

January 26, 1928 42

Keith Granger is recuperating at the home of his parents Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Granger, Dorr bringing him over from Lansing, Sunday.

Supper is being served at Chapel tonight by Mrs. E. D. Lake, Mrs. C. K. Wells, Mrs. Walter Davis, Mrs. George Davis, Mrs. George Knowles and Mrs. E. G. Sprague.

Ernest Austin received a telegram Tuesday from Niagara Falls that his sister, who has been ill for a long time with tuberculosis, had passed away.

Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Lent and Frances were Sunday dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Stevens in honor of their 43rd wedding anniversary

Saturday, February 4th, Benefit Boy Scouts—A Mighty Drama of the Old West—Fred Thompson and the Wonder Horse—Silver King in "Arizona Nights."

Mr. and Mrs. L. W. Loveland returned Wednesday from a few days visit with their daughter Mrs. John Mate and family in Grand Rapids.

Keith Seitz writes from Vermalis, California, where he and Carson Ames have been working for some time, that they leave there the last of this week and return to San Francisco where the former's uncle Fred Seitz lives. They will start home the first week in February.

A letter from Chas. D. Clough says they are now located at E. 517 Wellesley Ave., in Spokane, Wash., and in renewing their subscription writes how lost Aunt Mary would be without the old home paper. He says: "Your readers may be pleased to know that Aunt Mary seems happy in her new home altho she is always talking about her Vermontville friends."