

June 7, 1928

Mr. and Mrs. Laurance A. Hill, Mrs. F. F. Ambrose and Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Loveland drove over to Lansing, Monday, and were royally entertained by Mrs. Agnes Ambrose Evans.

There was the usual large crowd for the Commencement exercises last Thursday evening. Some unable to find seats, did not remain while others stood up during the exercises.

While Frances Weller was taking her velocipede down the front steps of her home last Tuesday evening, she fell and cut a gash in her forehead just above the eye, and skinned her nose quite badly.

Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Hill, of Herin Ill. are spending part of a two weeks vacation with his aunt, Mrs. F. F. Ambrose and cousins Mr. and Mrs. Elmon Loveland. Saturday evening Dorothy and Victor Gutches and Vera Loveland of Battle Creek came over and on Sunday the whole party drove to Belding to visit Mr. and Mrs. B. E. Gregg and family.

Neil McLaughlin, Alton Hill and Forest Randall are home from Houghton Mining School for the summer.

y, June 14, 1928 48

The new Barber filling station is looking very attractive with the new flower beds.

The eight weeks old infant that is being cared for by Mrs. Wheaton has scarlet fever.

Mrs. Ilo Ferris is recovering slowly from a severe attack of bronchial spasmodic asthma.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Rawson and family of Charlotte have moved in with his father Eddie Rawson to care for him.

Douglas Hall of Lansing called on the home folks here Sunday while his wife spent the day with her people in Charlotte.

Miss Edna Gehman returned with her mother from Wilmore, Kentucky last week where she has been attending Ashbury College.

Mrs. Earl Welshon and daughter Frances of Jackson will be here Friday to visit her parents Mr. and Mrs. M. L. Stiles, and Charles.

No church services at the M. E. Church Sunday evening, but Children's Day exercises will be given at Bismarck.

Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Carey went to Lansing Tuesday where the latter went for xray. Mr. Carey was there again Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Hine, Robert and Ruth, who have been under quarantine with scarlet fever, are improving. Both Mr. and Mrs. Hine have been quite sick.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Smith and Mrs. Fred Pendill went to Portland Sunday where the former visited their sister Mrs. Etta Park, and Mrs. Pendill's sister Mrs. Ida Crane.

There was a good attendance at the Grange meeting Tuesday evening. It was voted to hold but one meeting a month through the months of July and August. The lecturer Mrs. Betty Gehman, because of school duties connected with her work as teacher in Vermontville schools the coming year, tendered her resignation, which was accepted with regret, and her successor will be elected at the next meeting June 26th. At that meeting no program will be given but a party and games will be enjoyed and refreshments served. The program "The Grange and the Nation" was interesting and profitable and consisted of Song—America by Grange Talk, The Peace Question, Mr. Lent Paper, A Farmer President, Earl Gehman

- Music Chorus
- Temperance Readings, .. Una Moss
- Music Kamiensky Orchestra
- Al Smith's Policy .. K. R. Weiler
- Plano Solo Frances Lent
- Hoover's Policy, A. L. Barningham
- Lowden's Policy F. E. Hay
- Music Kamiensky Orchestra

- Mr. and Mrs. Curtis were present from Charlotte and met with the children and Mr. Mathews, who had been elected Patron, in the hall over his store and the long talked of Juveline Grange was organized with twenty-five members. Officers were elected. They returned to the Grange hall where Vermontville Juvenile Grange officers were installed by Mrs. Bernice Curtis, Mrs. Mabel Johnson assisting.
- Master Catherine Barningham
- Overseer ... Evelyn VanDerVeere
- Lecturer Rose Offley
- Steward Donald Barningham
- Assistant Steward Edson Ford
- Chaplain Carl Thrun
- Treasurer .. Mildred VanDerVeere
- Secretary Lillian VanDerVeere
- Gate Keeper Robert Brewer
- Ceres Hazel VanDerVeere
- Pomona Marvel Lindberg
- Flora June Offley
- Lady Assistant Steward Helen Kamiensky
- Patron R. E. Mathews

The regular penny collection of the grange was made a silver collection for the benefit of the Juvenile Grange.

Clare Sprague returned to New York Wednesday morning after a visit here.

Mary Margaret Hall left Sunday night for Chicago where she has employment.

C. A. Anderson is not well. He goes to Lansing two days a week for treatments.

Merl Dikeman of Detroit visited his parents Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Dikeman over the week end.

June 21, 1928

Mr. and Mrs. Bert Gregg and family of Belding spent Wednesday at the Loveland-Ambrose home in honor of Mrs. E. J. Loveland's birthday. Mrs. Gregg remained for a longer visit and to attend Alumni.

Mrs. Lura Niles and family motored over from Olivet Sunday and her mother Mrs. Downing returned home with her.

Mrs. McLaughlin, Neil and Mary went to Dimond Lake Saturday morning, and the Doctor and C. H. Lamb motored up Saturday night. They returned home Monday.

The Methodist L. A. S. elected officers last Thursday as follows: President Mrs. S. B. Todd Vice President Mrs. Grant Hawkins Treasurer Mrs. M. L. Stiles Secretary .. Mrs. Ernest Rawson

Mrs. A. J. Hams and son Vincent of Kalamazoo spent Sunday with E. D. Lake. J. E. Lake and wife of Nashville, and Glenn Lake and family of Charlotte were afternoon callers.

Mrs. Dan Snoke has been on the sick list for a few days but is better now. She received a letter from the state hospital telling her that Mr. Snoke's condition is about the same his mind is no better.

Mr. and Mrs. O. L. Greiner spent the week end June 9 at Grand Rapids where they visited her aunt Mrs. Electa-Jacokes, and went to Zeeland Monday to get their stock of poultry, and did not learn of Albert's accident until they reached Vermontville, Monday night.

A State inspector who was here said that the new Barber Service Station was the finest privately owned station in the state. It is sure a beauty. They are giving a pair of candles as souvenirs. If you have not done so, drop in and look it over.

Miss Grace Faust spent from Saturday until Tuesday night visiting her sister Mrs. E. A. Clarke and husband of Ann Arbor. While there she attended the graduation exercises at the University and at Ypsilanti.

Mrs. Ned Sprague came home from Lansing Sunday. She has Mrs. Showater of Nashville to do her housework, but she gets about the house, which is very remarkable considering her condition when she was taken to Lansing and operated on May 9.

Miss Ruth Mitchell received a badge signifying her appointment as a Red Cross Life Saver. The badge is a reward of merit that any young lady can be proud of. She received it at Ypsilanti from the American Red Cross in her regular athletics. Her specialty was life saving work.