

Mrs. Etta Hallenbeck and Miss Bessie Granger were Sunday dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Byron Hallenbeck and daughter in honor Dorothy Rose's second birthday.

There were five Vermontville girls among the Eaton County Normal graduates. Miss Carolyn Hatfield will teach the Barnes school, Mabel Van Blaricum at Bowen school, Miss Margaret Schram at Youngs, Miss Florence Merriam at Kelly and Miss Helen Woodard, still unsigned.

A family gathering and pot luck dinner was enjoyed on Father's day, June 17th at the L. W. Loveland cottage at Thornapple Lake by the following people: Mrs. E. E. Loveland and guest, Mrs. F. H. Loveland of South Bend, Ind., Mrs. F. F. Ambrose, Mr. and Mrs. L. W. Loveland, Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Loveland, Mr. and Mrs. John Mate and daughter, Barbara, of Grand Rapids, Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Murray and daughter Katherine, of Battle Creek, Mr. and Mrs. Victor Gutches and Miss Vera Loveland, also of Battle Creek.

Mr. and Mrs. Edmond Sprague and Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Barningham motored over to their brother's home 914 W. Washtenaw, Lansing, Saturday night, called there by the death from drowning of their nephew Rutherford Green.

A quiet wedding took place at the home of Elder Roach Thursday evening, June 14th at 8 o'clock when Alva Ames and Miss Daisy Wright of Chester were united in marriage. They were attended by Elon Briggs and Miss Irene A. Wright.

Mrs. Warren Taylor and Mrs. Alice Knowles motored to Eaton Rapids, Monday, taking Mr. and Mrs. Jay Hawkins, where the latter remained for a couple of week's treatment, with the hope that the mineral baths will be beneficial.

Mrs. Eugene Carey was operated on at St. Lawrence hospital, Lansing, Saturday, and her gall bladder removed. They found thirty-seven gall stones, some quite large ones. Mr. Carey and daughter Mrs. Muriel Thompson were over to see her Tuesday and report her doing as well as can be expected, though still Mrs. Blanche Griswold Ingraham Jackson visited Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Lent from Saturday to Sunday night.

Mr. and Mrs. L. Verne Slout motored home from South Haven Tuesday night after the show, returning Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. F. P. Town and family have returned from Florida to their home in Charlotte for the summer.

Miss Elinor Briggs, class of '24 H. S. was one of forty-six who were given their academic degrees last week at the sixty-eighth annual commencement at Oliver college.

June 28, 1928

LARGE ATTENDANCE AT ALUMNI

Among those from out-of-town who attended Alumni were: Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Sprague, Mr. and Mrs. Marion Vincent and Miss Myrtle Tyler, Lansing; Glenn A. Lake and daughter Miss Glenna, Miss Winifred Wells, Mrs. Mamie Halbeisen, Mrs. Ruby Hammond, Mrs. Lois Hawes, Charlotte; Mr. and Mrs. Hale Sackett, Mr. and Mrs. Hubert Wilson, Mrs. Evelyn Staup, Nashville; Mrs. Ada Whipple, Miss Mary Grant, Flint; Miss Mary Thrun, Toledo, Ohio; Mrs. Gladys Garlinger, Castleton; Mr. and Mrs. Makie Mahar and daughter, Miss Marie Gunn, Mrs. Ida Bosworth, Kelley; Mr. and Mrs. Earl Welshon, Mr. and Mrs. Dwight Davis, Jackson; Mr. A. G. Leonard, Farmington; Mr. and Mrs. B. L. Davis, Hancock; Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Bly, St Joseph; Mr. and Mrs. Deon Green, Ypsilanti; Mrs. Mildren Carey and Neil, Caledonia; Miss Laura Schantz, Grand Rapids; Miss Ora Hallenbeck, Lester Hawley, Pontiac; Mrs. Beulah Cronk, Barbara and Max, Grandville; Mr. and Mrs. Victor Gutches, Miss Vera Loveland, Miss Kathryn Boyer and Jesse Hawkins, Battle Creek; Ralph Hawkins, Howell; Mrs. Vera Gregg, Belding; Mrs. Violetta Purdy, Frederick Hatfield, Detroit; Hubert Smith, Sterling, Mich.

Douglas Hall and wife of Lansing called on relatives here Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. E. D. Lake were in Bellevue Tuesday to see a cousin Mrs. Oscar Young, who is ill.

Harry Williams and family of Cadillac spent Sunday with Mrs. Bowman.

Mrs. Nell Mason was over from Lansing Wednesday to see her father, C. A. Anderson.

Dr. Inwood and family of Chicago are spending the summer here and at Thornapple lake.

"Another address, brief, but to the point, was made by Willard E. Holt, veteran editor and publisher of the Lordsburg Liberal, and booster extraordinary, who dwelt on the benefits to be derived from a closer relationship between the towns in this part of the state, to attain the success for which all strived. Mr. Holt is nationally known as a community builder and developer and his suggestions were timely and logical."

—Lordsburg Liberal, Lordsburg, New Mexico. (Mr. Holt was Editor of the Vermontville Echo in the '80's.

Robert Hawkins returned from a week relief job in Parma as operator. Mrs. Mary Wabb of Nampa, Idaho, is spending the summer with her sister, Mrs. F. F. Ambrose, at the Loveland Ambrose home.

Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Bly went to Ann Arbor Sunday to attend summer school.

Mr. and Mrs. Deon Green came out from Ypsilanti to attend Alumni Saturday and spent the week-end with Mrs. Greens parents Mr. and Mrs. Grant Hawkins. The Misses Lois and Bernice Gaut returned to Ypsilanti with them Sunday night.

July 5, 1928

Mrs. Clyde Iine was taken to the home of Miss Naomi Andrews last week where she is improving.

Dr. and Mrs. McLaughlin, Neil and Mary left Tuesday morning for a motor trip to Yellowstone Park, and other points of interest.

The Irvin Powers family and some relatives and neighbors, 21 in all, enjoyed their fireworks on their back lawn last night.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Pendill and Mrs. Alice Shellenbarger visited their sister Mrs. R. E. Perkey in Lansing, the week end.

Mrs. Mary Webb was called to Lansing Monday for a visit with old friends from Sacramento, Calif. She may be gone two weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Shellenbarger of Lake Odessa visited their mother Alice N. Shellenbarger and brother Herman Hull.

Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Whitmore and daughters are on a motor trip to Montana, leaving Sunday afternoon.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Veyant, a 7 lb girl, Carla Marie, Saturday, June 30th at Hall hospital.

Rev. and Mrs. E. E. Mieras and family from Nampa, Idaho were visitors at the Loveland-Ambrose home Thursday and Friday of last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Seaman and children of Lansing, Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Hafner, Mrs. Ethel Tieche and son Morris of Nashville were Sunday evening callers at Asa Brown's.

Mrs. Alta Dean is very ill at the home of her parents Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Crook. She has had the flu and pleurisy, but is a little brighter this morning.

July 12, 1928

Miss Gladys Whipple, daughter of Frank P. and Ada Tyler Whipple of Flint, will be united in marriage to Mr. William Edward Wallis Wednesday, August 1st, at the Kearsley Street M. E. Church, at eight o'clock p. m.