

August 16, 1928

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Pendill and Mrs. Alice Shellenbarger picniced with Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Perkey and others from Lansing at Maywood, on the road between Grand Ledge and Lansing. Mr. and Mrs. Perkey purchased a 60 acre tract of land and are platting it and have named it Maywood.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Park of the Methodist Home at Chelsea came Saturday to accompany Mr. and Mrs. Roy Mathews to Mancelona, where their daughter and husband Mr. and Mrs. Will Moore and family met them and took them to their home in Harbor Springs for a visit.

Word received yesterday morning of the death of Charles Walsh of Grand Ledge, son of Mrs. Inez Walsh. He was raised in Vermontville, nephew of John Walsh, also nephew of Mrs. Downing. He died in a Lansing hospital after an operation.

August 23, 1928 52

Arthur E. Kidder, assistant attorney general, of Lansing, was in town Sunday, and was much interested in looking over our new school building.

Mr. and Mrs. James Boyles attended the Boyles family reunion at Bennett Park, Sunday. About fifty were present, the eldest being 74 years old and the youngest six months.

Mrs. Jay Hawkins was in Maple Grove several days the past week visiting her sister, Mrs. Ida Norton and family, and while there made trips to Hastings, and to Maryland Park at Leon Lake.

Mr. and Mrs. Ned Sprague motored to Lansing Sunday to visit at the home of their son Clyde. Mrs. Cindarella Mosier accompanied them as far as Lynn Mosier's, and Mrs. Lillie Mosier went to Millett to visit her sister.

Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Russell and two daughters, Shirley and Vivian, spent one day last week with Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Loveland. When they return West next week, Mr. Robert Russell of Chester, goes with them to share their home in VanNuys, Calif.

M. J. Herrick of Harbor Springs has had his house painted and also wired for electricity. Although Mr. Herrick was eighty-one years old August 11, he painted his house himself.

Harry Kelley and son of Grand Rapids and another son Ellis of Cleveland visited his sister Mrs. Will Ferris Monday afternoon. A daughter Miss Aileene was united in marriage to Mr. Hatton in Grand Rapids last Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Bassett of Wiggins, Mississippi were in town Monday and Tuesday, to visit with their cousins Mrs. F. F. Ambrose and Mrs. Mary Webb, at the Loveland-Ambrose home.

The Premium Lists for the Eaton County fair may be obtained at this office. They are the best that the Fair ever had and were printed by the Charlotte Republican. All vehicles will be admitted to the grounds free. This includes automobiles. Family tickets are $1.50.

Mrs. Dorothy Gutches and Miss Vera Loveland spent Saturday night and Sunday with their parents, while Victor Gutches was at Thornapple Lake, fishing.

Mrs. Lizzie Lake went to Ypsilanti Friday morning to accompany Mr. and Mrs. John Kenworthy and family on a trip to Niagara Falls.

Mr. and Mrs. Lee Miles and Mr. and Mrs. Eli Strait attended the funeral of Mrs. Miles' sister, Mrs. Joe Willis at Olivet, Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Hopper left this morning for a ten days stay at Muskegon and Croton Dam to visit her brother Eugene Morey and family.

F. E. Hay and wife, Ernest Satterlee and wife and Mrs. Mary Morehouse called on Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Koob and family in Sunfield township Sunday.

Mrs. A. W. Hill returned from Pennock hospital, Hastings, Monday, where she had a goitre removed the week before, and is feeling fine. Her rapid recovery is very pleasing to her many friends.

August 30, 1928

Mrs. Jane Spellman-Cooper, for many years a Vermontville resident, passed away at the Women's Annex of the Soldiers' Home, Grand Rapids, Monday, and the funeral was held at the Congregational church here Wednesday at two p. m., a number from Grand Rapids and Battle Creek attending. Burial was made in Woodlawn cemetery.

Greeley and Harley Fox of Hastings met with bad luck last Sunday evening. Keith, son of Greeley and another young man went to Alto for some young ladies, and they enjoyed a few hours at Gun Lake, but when on their way back to Alto in making a turn they encountered a telephone pole, badly damaging the car, it turning completely over. They phoned Greeley, and Harley took him to the scene of the accident and they were all in Harley's car when in making a curve he ran into a fence, and his car was badly damaged. No one was seriously hurt. Both cars were new, and are in Battle Creek for repairs.

Mrs. Mary Webb of Nampa, Idaho are spending the week with Mrs. Bert Gregg and daughter Ruth in Belding. Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Krebs of Sunfield and Mr. and Mrs. Leo Bidwell of Mulliken were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Ford.

Mr. and Mrs. Frankie Rawson and son Donald and Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Bly are spending several days in Ohio with his brother.

Mr. and Mrs. John Gault and family started for Escanaba in the Upper Peninsula, Wednesday to take Miss Lois to her school work for another year.

Sunday guests at the E. J. Loveland home were Mr. and Mrs. Victor Gutches and Miss Vera Loveland of Battle Creek. Mr. Kimble and Mr. White of Big Rapids, Mr. Robert Russell of Chester and Mr. Glenn Russell of Van Nuys, California, Billy and Frank Gregg of Belding and Mrs. E. E. Loveland.

Wendell Powers was eight years old Monday, August 27th, and celebrated the event with an 8 candle birthday cake, and Mr. and Mrs. Will Hickey as guests.

Royal Cronk, the much married man, has taken unto himself another wife, this time a lady from Grand Rapids. They are living in the Jim Ames house on West First street, they recently purchased.

September 6, 1928

GEHMAN—ROOD

A pretty wedding took place Wednesday evening, Sept. 5th, when Mrs. Oda Gehman was united in marriage to the Rev. Dwight A. Rood, pastor of the Methodist Episcopal Church of Orleans, Mich., at the residence of the bride in this city, the ceremony being solemnized by the Rev. Geo. W. Fuller, Financial Secretary of Asbury College, Wilmore, Ky.; after the ceremony and serving of refreshments to the guests, consisting of the immediate families of both contracting parties, the happy pair left by auto for Orleans. The house was tastefully and beautifully decorated for the occasion by Irvin Powers—Gladiolas and Wild Clematus comprising the decorations, while the bride carried a beautiful bouquet of roses, and her gown was of white flat crepe. Edna, the eldest daughter of the bride, acted as bride's-maid, and John, son of the groom, acted as best man; the wedding march having been played by Ruby, laughter of the bride.

Mrs. Grant Hawkins was operated on at Pennocks hospital one day last week.