

Hubert, Detroit, Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Casselman and daughters Virginia and Margaret, and sons Lesley, Hubert and Robert, Baroda, Mich.; Miss Amanda Sprague, Miss Naomi Andrews, Rev. and Mrs. C. C. Mitchell and daughter Ruth, Vermontville; Mr. Bernard Stephens, Northville; Mr. and Mrs. Milton Sprague and daughter Marion and son Theodore; Mr. and Mrs. C. O. Hatfield and daughter Carolyn and son Howard of Vermontville.

Many useful and appropriate presents were received.

Miss Vera French is learning the tricks of the telephone operator and Monday will take the afternoon work at the switch board in the local exchange, as Mrs. Alice Knowles finds the work too confining.

Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Faust, Mrs. Lee Kilpatrick, Dorathea and Mr. Verle Stall drove to Battle Creek Sunday p. m., Dorathea remaining to enter the Argubright Business and Normal College Monday morning.

Mrs. F. F. Ambrose goes to Grand Rapids Friday to join her sister Mrs. Webb and accompany her as far as Chicago Monday on her return trip home. Mrs. Ambrose will go to Herrin, Ill., for a months visit with her nephew and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Laurance Hill.

Mrs. Ralph Townsend writes from Palm City, Florida to her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Hager, that their home was quite badly damaged during the recent hurricane, but they were uninjured.

October 18, 1928

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Hammond of this village for about forty-five years and has many friends here. She will be greatly missed by all.

Arrived Tuesday evening, October 16th. Her name is Norma Violet. She will be glad to see her friends.

Elder Roach and wife expect to go to Marshall Sunday, and he will hold meeting there Sunday evening, and return home Monday a. m.

Dale Snoke, wife and children of Charlotte and Lloyd Snoke, wife and children of Eaton Rapids visited their mother and grandmother, Mrs. Floy Snoke last Sunday.

Mrs. Elizabeth Downing was taken ill last Thursday morning, and when Mrs. Maud Waggoner went to her home about nine o'clock, on an errand she found her unconscious on the floor. Mrs. Barningham and the Doctor were called, and a phone message brought her daughter Mrs. Lura Niles from Olivet. Mrs. Downing was revived and is making good progress to recovery. Mrs. Mary Prescott of Charlotte came to care for her, and will remain this week and next.

HENRY MULL PASSED AWAY

Word was received here Monday telling of the sudden passing of Mr. Henry Mull, of Lansing, a former well-known resident and business man of Vermontville.

Mr. Mull, while at work Thursday, penetrated the end of a finger with a screw driver. It was not thought serious and on Saturday as previously arranged, he accompanied the other members of his family to the home of his daughter Henrietta, Mrs. Geo. Freemire, Kalamazoo for a visit. It became painful Sunday afternoon and after he returned home a doctor was called. His son Dr. Cecil Mull spent much of the night at his father's home. Monday morning his condition was so serious that he was rushed to the hospital where he passed away about ten o'clock, Monday, October 15, 1928. Funeral services were held Wednesday at two o'clock at Jarvis-Estes funeral home, and burial was made at Deepdale cemetery, Lansing.

He leaves his wife and daughter Ethel, and son Dr. Cecil Mull of Lansing, and daughter Mrs. Henrietta Freemire of Kalamazoo, who have the sympathy of their many Vermontville friends.

Several local Masons attended the funeral services Wednesday and conducted the services at the cemetery.

Mrs. Jessie Bowman has rented a house in Cadillac and moves in a few days to that city to be near her brother Harry Williams and family. We are sorry to have Mrs. Bowman leave us. She has been a resident

October 25, 1928 65

Mrs. Una Moss went to Lansing Friday night to spend the week end with her sister and cousins. Saturday afternoon and evening she spent with Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Vaughn at their home 523 W. Ionia street. Mrs. Vaughn was Miss Emma Fletcher when she taught in the Vermontville schools from September 1885 to June 1890, and is always interested in hearing from her Vermontville friends and former pupils.

Mr. and Mrs. William Kamiensky, Wilma Bell, Donald and Helen were in Jackson Saturday evening to attend the installation of the lady auxiliary of the New York Central Square Club. The Kamiensky orchestra gave several numbers. Helen entertained with solos and Mrs. Kamiensky gave readings. This family are fine entertainers and are always welcomed by any audience at home or abroad.

Mrs. Ernest Granger accompanied Miss Bessie Granger to Caledonia today and will visit her daughter Mrs. Donald Carey and family, while Mrs. Granger attends the Teachers meeting in Grand Rapids.

Mr. J. H. Shetenhelm, Lake City school teacher, has been chosen to fill out the unexpired term of the County Treasurer, who passed away last week. Mr. Shetenhelm (a former Vermontville boy who has always made good) has been chairman of the Board of Supervisors of Missaukee county for some time.

Mr. and Mrs. Allen Shetenhelm, Dorothy and Francis moved their household goods to Charlotte Saturday, vacating the Ed. Garrett farm. Mrs. Shetenhelm and children have been there several weeks so the children could enter school, while she is employed at the radio factory. Allen began work at the chair factory Monday.

Mr. A. D. Lake, who will be 97 years old Christmas day, cast his first vote for President in 1852, and has voted twenty times for the nation's chief executive, his vote helping to elect fifteen of the twenty Presidents elected. Mr. Lake has never failed to vote in all these years and expects to be at the polls November 6th. This is a record attained by few men.

November 1, 1928

Rev. and Mrs. F. P. Sprague spent last week in Detroit and Northville. Mr. Sprague drives his car with as much ease as a young man, and considering his helpless condition for some years, it is indeed remarkable that he is able to do so.

Sunday afternoon callers at Asa Strait's were Mrs. George Hall, and Mrs. Will Lewis, Mr. and Mrs. Wilford Price and Marina Benedict of Lansing, and Mrs. Myrtle Guernsey of Ionia and daughter Mrs. Betty Mason of Lansing.

Mr. and Mrs. V. S. Gutchess and Miss Vera Loveland, of Battle Creek spent Saturday night and Sunday with their parents Mr. and Mrs. Elmon Loveland. Mrs. E. E. Loveland was also present.

Mrs. Nellie Fuller has gone to Detroit for the winter. Edson Fuller and son Roy and Harold Fuller and wife motored here Friday and she accompanied them home Sunday Her address is 4512 Vermont Ave. Roy and son Ben were here from Grand Rapids Saturday.