

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Fuller and two sons who came Thursday morning from Detroit to spend Memorial Day with his mother, remained for a few days visit, returning home Sunday afternoon.

Decoration Day callers at the Loveland—Ambrose home were Mr. and Mrs. Fred Evans of Lansing, Mrs. Mae Scarvell of Greenville and Miss Gayle Griswold of Chicago.

Twenty-one boys and girls attended the second class on the "Meaning of being a Christian," with Rev. Phillips as teacher last Tuesday. These classes are given every Tuesday at 3:30, and all children between ages 8—13 are welcome.

Norman Oliver Weiler is the youngest garage man in town. He is the 8 lb. son of Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Weiler, who arrived at 8:15 a. m., Friday, May 31, 1929 at Hall hospital. His parents and sister Frances are delighted with the addition to their family and all the friends are extending congratulations.

Mrs. D. E. Clay and Miss Ruby Clay were among those who heard Dr. Harrop Sunday morning, motoring up from the Clay home in Kalamo where they were spending the week end. D. E. Clay, who has been Superintendent of Leslie schools the past year has signed a three year contract there, and Miss Clay will remain another year as teacher in the Charlotte schools.

Mrs. Stiles has been partially laid up since Monday with a lame arm and shoulder she received when she and Charles were over to Nashville. Mrs. S. noticed the car door open and reached to close it just as they were making a U turn and it threw her against the door, and in trying to prevent being thrown out, she wrenched her arm and shoulder, but her injury is improving.

You do not have to go far from Vermontville to find beautiful scenery in its natural state. If you want to see something real picturesque, take a drive over into Barry county, south of the Barryville church and over the winding highway that follows High Bank Creek. See that your brakes are working perfectly before you start, but you can't help enjoying the drive which Miss Martin, Mrs. Johnson, Mrs. Lake and Mrs. Moss took Sunday afternoon.

FUNERAL OF GEN. BOOTH WILL BE HELD SUNDAY
London, June 19.—Funeral services for Gen. Bramwell Booth, former commander-in-chief of the Salvation Army, will be held next Sunday at Albert Hall, Gen. E. J. Higgins will be in charge.

Mrs. Floy Snoke had her sons and their families to spend Decoration Day with her. Her sons made her garden and mowed her lawn. Her grandson is spending his vacation with her.

Miss Gayle Griswold of Chicago, Mrs. Mae Scarvill of Greenville and Mr. and Mrs. Fred B. Benedict of Battle Creek were among those from out of town who were here Memorial Day.

Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Marshall of Bellevue, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Price and Mrs. Melissa Gokey and son Otis Gokey of Nashville motored here Sunday for a short visit with their sister and husband, Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Brown.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Jones, Mrs. Blanche McDougai, Mr. and Mrs. Eldon Whitney and son Rex Beach, all of Owosso motored here Decoration Day and were dinner guests of Mr and Mrs. Frank Smith. They called on several old friends and neighbors before returning home late in the afternoon.

Marthagene Biggs, a fifth grader in the Longfellow school of Charlotte was one of the sixteen pupils who took part in the final contest to determine the best speller in Charlotte Grammar grades. She was the youngest pupil with one exception in the contest. Harwood Smith won the silver cup offered by the Republican-Tribune for the best speller.

Miss Myrta Tyler has been with Mrs. Etta Deming Renick at 525 Dearing Ave., Fresno, Calif., since May 15th., helping Mrs. Renick harvest their berry crop. She will return to her brother's at Farmington later in the month and then go to spend the remainder of her ticket limit—last of September, with former Lansing friends Mr. and Mrs. Francis E. Smith, Box 536, R. F. D., No. 3, Tacoma, Wash.

Four hundred and fifty cards are out announcing the annual meeting of the V. H. S. Alumni Association at the Gymnasium in the new school building, Saturday evening, June 22nd. Members of the Association, their husbands or wives and present and former teachers are invited. Some come quite a distance each year to attend and those living nearer should be present and help their former school friends and classmates enjoy the evening.

Logansport
Charlotte—A. (Vic) Roehm, Charlotte photographer, has sold his photo and art studio to Henry Nielsen of Des Plaines, Ill., and will devote his entire attention to a prescription business in Lansing and drug store in North Lansing. The Roehms came here from Eaton Rapids 25 years ago.

THEIR FIFTIETH
Fennville, May 31.—Mr. and Mrs. Will Bale of Fennville celebrated their fiftieth wedding anniversary at their home here. They were married in Vermontville. There are three children: James Bale, Mrs. W. Whitbeck and Lawrence Bale, all living in Fennville, and nine grandchildren. Mr. and Mrs. Bale have lived here 40 years. In this time Mr. Bale conducted a grocery store 10 years and also had charge of the express office.

Ed. Eckhart, Mrs. Beckhart and family figured in an auto accident at Grand Haven, Monday. Mr. and Mrs. Eckhart, Vernice and Madeline were in the car when another car caught their bumper and threw them into the ditch. Mrs. Beckhart was injured.

LOCAL NEWS
LeRoy Snell spent Sunday with his parents and children. Our same Fourth of July is quite disappointing to many of the youngsters, but it will have no painful after effects. Ed. Eckhart and family figured in an auto accident at Grand Haven, Monday. Mr. and Mrs. Eckhart, Vernice and Madeline were in the car when another car caught their bumper and threw them into the

Thursday, June 20, 1929

Kathryn and Dorothy Brown of Plainwell are spending the week with their grandparents Mr. and H. H. Brown.

Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Carey visited relatives in Caledonia Tuesday and their grandson Neil Carey accompanied them home.

John Rood was home over Sunday. Harold Millard also of Lansing was a Saturday night and Sunday guest at the Rood—Gehman home.

Mont Beckwith and wife and Mervin, wife and son of Ohio were visitors at Will Ferris, the first of the week.

Mrs. Beth Moore and children will return to their home in Harbor Springs Friday after a two weeks visit here.

Mr. and Mrs. Rollin Sprague were here from Kalamazoo Sunday and remained to hear the baccalaureate address.

Charlotte, June 19.—Mayor Glenn P. Dille, who has been seriously ill with high blood pressure, is in Ford hospital, Detroit. He will remain in the hospital at least three weeks and is expected to reduce 70 pounds.