

Mrs. Mary Mosier and Mrs. Earl Granger of Chester township are attending Grand Chapter O. E. S. at Detroit this week.

Mr. Howe of the Parts and Service Department of Chevrolet Motor Co. is installing the new steel parts bins at Weiler Motor Co. this week.

Mr. and Mrs. George Jeffrey of Kingston, Mich. called on the former's cousin Ben Siple and family, Wednesday.

Miss Shirley Wheaton took a short vacation from her work at Grand Rapids and was home from Saturday night to Tuesday night.

Miss Mary Grant motored to Lansing for Miss Myrta Tyler Wednesday afternoon while her mother Mrs. Hiram Grant visited her sister in Gresham.

Mr. and Mrs. Roscoe Williams and daughters, Dorothy and Louise left Monday noon for Green City, Missouri, Mrs. Williams' former home, for a three weeks visit.

Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Thompson and daughter Margaret and Mrs. Don Gamble and children of Olivet spent Sunday in Brighton with Carroll Briggs.

Mr. and Mrs. Arlen Shaffer, son and mother of Lansing, and Mr. and Mrs. Tom Walsh of Sunfield were p. m. callers at Mrs. Steves', Sunday.

Mrs. Roy Reynolds and Mrs. Mary Williams, each run a liner last week and say "it pays to advertise" as they made quick sales.

Mr. and Mrs. Ellsworth Haller of near Coldwater visited her parents Mr. and Mrs. Asa Brown Sunday night and Monday on their way home from a visit with relatives in Lansing.

Mrs. E. D. Barber and Mrs. Vance Barber are entertaining a company of local ladies and some from out of town at the Kellogg Inn in Battle Creek at a bridge party, today.

October 17, 1929

E. W.

A very pretty birthday party was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Dewey Hawkins Saturday afternoon honoring Lilabelle's and Harold's thirteenth and seventh birthdays. Twelve boys and girls were present to help them celebrate. Music and games were enjoyed by them all. The dining room and table were prettily decorated with autumn leaves of red and yellow. Refreshments were served later by Mrs. Hawkins, the children leaving with wishes for many more happy birthdays for Lilabelle and Harold. Many pretty presents were received by the two children.

Mr. and Mrs. Herman, Zemke and sister Bertha, Clifford Snyder, wife and son left Thursday morning for Marysville, S. Carolina, to visit Mr. and Mrs. Howard Cooper, better known as Frieda Zemke.

Miss Granger's Sunday School class of girls met at Mrs. J. R. Childs' Monday night to help Miss Donaldson celebrate her birthday. A delightful supper was served, after which the girls reorganized the class and elected new officers.

Myrta Tyler leaves this week Friday for Cincinnati, Ohio to assist in the office of Mrs. M. W. Knapp's Bible School. Miss Tyler left Seattle, Washington, September 24 by boat and Vancouver, B. C. and came through the Wild Rockies in Canada.

Dr. Snell received a beautiful bouquet of roses Wednesday—a little remembrance from Judge and Mrs. McPeck. The doctor has been suffering a painful injury near one of his eyes received last week when he tripped on some fence wire and took a fall, but we are glad to report him recovering nicely.

Frank Seitz met with a very serious and painful accident on Wednesday of last week when a piece of steel flew from a plow point he was trying to loosen by pounding and entered his left eye ball. He was taken to St. Laurence hospital Saturday where powerful magnets were used in an endeavor to remove the steel, but infection made it impossible. It is thought the eye will have to be removed.

Mrs. Ernest Rawson, not thinking anyone thought of her birthday Tuesday, accompanied Mrs. Lowe over to Charlotte to a show Tuesday evening just to celebrate the same, and surprised those who intended to surprise her, by not being at home when they called. When she returned she found her home well lighted and inhabited. They all went to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Weiler where ice cream and cake were served. Mrs. Rawson received several nice presents among them being a large picture of her three daughters. Those present included Mr. and Mrs. Earl Stevens and family and Mr. and Mrs. Albert Steward and family of Charlotte and Miss Margaret Schram who teaches near Bellevue.

Mr. and Mrs. Shirley Southern entertained at a birthday dinner Sunday for Mrs. Herman Zemke and their baby daughter Barbara. All of Mrs. Zemke's children were present and Mr. Rhynold Zemke. A lovely dinner was served by Mrs. Southern, and many nice birthday presents received.

GRANGE OFFICERS

At the regular grange meeting held on October 8th., the following officers were elected for the ensuing year:

- Master ..... E. S. Brewer
- Overseer .. Mrs. Chris VanDerVeere
- Lecturer .. Mrs. Marjorie Griffith
- Steward ..... Otto Johnson
- Ass't Steward .... Rinehart Zemke
- Chaplain ..... J. M. Lent
- Treasurer ..... A. L. Barningham
- Secretary ... Marguerite Zemke
- Gate Keeper ..... F. H. Thrun
- Ceres ..... Frances Lent
- Flora ..... Erma VanDeventer
- Pomona ..... Grace Thrun
- Lady Ass't. Steward .... Mrs. Leta Northrop

Pianist ..... Mrs. Emily Wilson

On account of the first lyceum number conflicting, the date of the next meeting was postponed until Tuesday evening, October 29th. Members will please take notice.

F. E. Hax, Sec'y.

October 24, 1929

Miss Wilma Faust underwent an operation for appendicitis at Sparrow hospital Wednesday morning, where she is taking a course in the nurse's training school. Mr. and Mrs. Faust returned home in the evening and report her doing nicely.

Raisin Brook Packing Co. will hold a big mass meeting at the Opera House, Saturday evening, November 2nd. Come and hear the President of this big Company tell you the big profits to be made in Raising Rabbits.

Frank Seitz had his left eye removed at St. Lawrence hospital, Lansing, where had been suffering for a week with the hope of removing the steel from his eye and saving it. He is recovering nicely now and will be home in a few days. His wife and some others of the family have been do the hospital nearly every day to see him.

While Milton Sprague was picking apples Saturday a limb of the tree broke on which he was standing and Mr. Sprague fell striking on his feet. His sudden contact with mother earth gave him quite a jar, but no bones were broken. He saved his pail of apples but his hand was somewhat bruised. We are glad to report him making satisfactory recovery.

L. W. Loveland in company with Pres. of Raisin Brook Packing Co. spent Sunday at Dundee inspecting their big rabbit farm and packing plant. Mr. Loveland will represent this Co. at Vermontville.

Mrs. Ambrose and Miss Vera Loveland are in Belding for a few days visit with Mr. and Mrs. Bert Gregg and family.