

Mrs. Fred Hopper returned last week from a three-weeks visit in Detroit, with her son Francis and Buffalo with Mr. and Mrs. Kennon Hull and family.

Mrs. Ann Rawson and Mr. and Mrs. Vern Rawson are moving today to the former's farm at Rawsons Corners. Eli Chatfield and family who purchased Mrs. Rawson's home here will move to town.

Nelson House will be 88 years young next Monday. It is also Miss Mattie Waggoner's birthday, and they will entertain Mr. and Mrs. Frank Wood and Mr. Clark of Charlotte and Ilo Ferris and wife, Sunday.

November 7, 1929

BECK—ROOT

A very quiet wedding was solemnized at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Beck on North Main Street Vermontville, Saturday evening, November 2, 1929 when their only child Irma Frances Beck was united in marriage to Mr. George L. Root, son of Mr. and Mrs. George Root of Mulliken, Rev. C. H. Phillips performing the ceremony at nine o'clock under an arch trimmed in lavender and white. The home decorations were lavender and white chrysanthemums. The bride was attired in a beautiful gown of royal blue chiffon and carried a bouquet of roses.

They were attended by the groom's sister and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Post of Mulliken. Other guests were the groom's parents Mr. and Mrs. George Root and sister Mrs. Sears, and the bride's grandmother Mrs. Frances Hager.

Mrs. Root is a graduate of Vermontville high school, class of '28, first member of the class to marry, and has spent her entire life in this community, and has many friends who hope for them a long and happy wedded life.

November 14, 1929

Mrs. Etta Ambrose is in Battle Creek this week with her granddaughter, Mrs. Dorothy Gutches, and will also spend a few days with her nephew, Harry Ambrose and family.

Mr. Nelson House, Miss Mattie Waggoner and Ilo Ferris went to Charlotte Sunday afternoon to see Mrs. Flossie Diamond who has been very ill with inflammatory rheumatism.

Mr. and Mrs. Lee Kilpatrick and son, Miss Blanche and Doratheia Faust and Mr. Clair Minick were Monday evening callers at Clyde Stall's. Lee remained and started hunting with them Tuesday morning.

Fred Childs found a real curiosity in a shock of corn and brought it to the office today. It was a white mouse—Albino and is very rare. Only two persons he has showed it to have ever seen one before.

K. K. Ward with Clarence Faust left early Tuesday for Houghton Lake where the former joined a bunch of Lansing friends, former hunter-mates. They expect to be gone two weeks in northern Michigan.

Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Titmarsh and little daughter moved here from Nashville last week and are occupying the house on North Main street vacated by Lee Kilpatrick and family when they moved into the home of Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Faust.

Lee Kilpatrick is taking a little vacation from his duties at Barber Brothers filling station and with Clyde Stall and sons Merle and Nelson left early Tuesday morning on a northern hunting trip. Hiram Woodard is looking after the filling station.

Many of our readers will remember Mrs. Neal, wife of Mr. Neal who had charge of the Echo office about thirteen years ago. She was divorced from Mr. Neal and married Ben Millroff several years ago and they have been living at Royal Oak. Mrs. Millroff passed away last Thursday after only a week's illness.

The report that the dog is dead that Milton Lamb shot while he and Harold Fuller and son Alton of Detroit were hunting is not true. Lamb, in trying to shoot a bird the dog was chasing, shot the dog, but did not kill him. The Airdale belonged to Roy Fuller of Grand Rapids and was an exceptionally valuable hunting dog and prized by the family.

Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Barningham were dinner guests of Rev. and Mrs. Cone in Lansing last Thursday evening. They report them nicely situated and little Donald Clark just fine. Rev. Cone was obliged to give up preaching on account of his throat trouble.

The rain Sunday did not prevent Mr. and Mrs. James Boyles from making their first visit as planned to the new home of Hugh and Alice Reynolds, as Mr. Reynolds came for them after church. Mr. and Mrs. Merle Staup of Nashville were also there. They spent a very pleasant time together.

We received a letter from Mrs. Janette McCarty telling us of the passing away, October 22 of her brother Henry S. Bullock of Jonasket, Washington, following a short illness. Mr. Bullock will be remembered by many of our older Vermontville and Kalamo readers. Mrs. McCarty is spending some time with her younger daughter at 50 Amity St. Amherst, Mass.

November, 21, 1929

George Garrétt arrived home from Hiawatha Tuesday night with the prize he went after—a 185 lb. deer. This is the first one to arrive here, to our knowledge.

Jesse Lamb and family moved the first of week from the Boyer house on West Third street to the Hammond house on South Main street vacated by the Epleys.

Mr. and Mrs. Ned Sprague visited Mrs. Alice Dwight at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Prescott in Sunfield, Sunday. They found her recovering nicely from her recent appendicitis operation.

Mrs. Howard Cronk and children who have been visiting her mother Mrs. Una Moss and sister-in-law Mrs. Glenn Satterlee this week, returned to Hastings today. Mr. Cronk is recovering nicely from his ankle dislocation and broken leg and they expect to go to their home in Grandville the last of the week.

Congressman J. L. Hooper has sent in the reappointment of Postmaster E. J. Loveland of Vermontville. The third district member will have two other nominations to send in shortly, Bellevue and Grand Ledge.

Jesse Garn sold his property on South Main street opposite West Third street Friday to Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Epley who have taken possession.

December 5, 1929

Leroy Snell and family of Detroit spent Thanksgiving with Dr. Snell and Norena.

Keep only your best layers. Paul will cull your hens and buy your culls. Phone Mathews & Tubbs.

Mr. and Mrs. Otto Moore and two children were Thanksgiving dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Rollin Deer.

Kenneth Ward and Dr. McLaughlin presented the Hall Memorial hospital with a hospital bed last week.

Mrs. Claud Hayward of Jackson is spending the week at the home of her brother E. E. Satterlee and wife who are both very poorly.

Mrs. Lura Niles, Helen and Harold came over from Olivet and brought their Thanksgiving dinner to enjoy it with her mother, Mrs. Downing.

Mr. VanOrman has finished the well he was putting down for Mr. Roach. The well is 156 feet deep with 95 feet of water.

Mrs. Earl Welshon and Frances returned to their home in Jackson Sunday afternoon after spending Thanksgiving and the week end here.

D. A. Rood completed a large job of decorating last week at the Irvin Powers home. Eight rooms, three closets and the hall, were papered.