

Thursday, October 2, 1930

MISCELLANEOUS SHOWER GIVEN IN HONOR OF MR. AND MRS. MYRLEN STRAIT

About fifty guests assembled at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Asa Strait, Saturday evening, September 27, to celebrate the marriage of Mr. and Mrs. Myrlen Strait of Grand Rapids. People were there from Grand Rapids, Lansing, Charlotte, Chicago, and other places. Cards were played by the men, while the women enjoyed visiting and renewing old acquaintances.

The bright spot of the evening was the presentation of gifts, Mr. and Mrs. Strait guessing as to what each present was before they were allowed to open it. After the presents were all opened and laid out for inspection and admiration, ice cream and cake were served, which brought the pleasant evening to a close.

Recent out-of-town visitors at Eugene Carey's were, Miss Viola White and friend of Muskegon, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Arnold of Chester, Mrs. Cora Moore of Elmira, Mrs. Myron Andres of Potterville, Mr. and Mrs. Donald Carey and Neil of Augusta, and Miss Dorothy Mulder of Battle Creek.

Mr. E. D. Lake received a newspaper clipping recently telling of the announced marriage (next June) of Margaret Grace, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Victor D. Hawkins, to Mr. Walter Dewitt McLellan. They are both former U. of M. young people and the Vermontville friends of Mr. Hawkins, now of Cleveland Heights Ohio, will be interested in this announcement.

Thursday, October 9, 1930

The Will Moore family of Harbor Springs were guests at Irvin Powers the last of the week on their way to Chelsea with her father, Chas. Park, and to visit Durwood Moore in Ann Arbor. They were back the first of the week and Mr. Park accompanied them to the home of his brother in Sunfield.

Mrs. Jennie Jewell Harrold of Atlanta, Ga., who has been spending a very enjoyable time in her old home town with her relatives, the Stevens and Lent families, for nearly six weeks, started on her return trip, Wednesday, Mr. and Mrs. Stevens and Mrs. Lent motoring with her as far as Chicago. It has been several years since Mrs. Harrold had been back home and those who knew her and her family were certainly glad to renew her acquaintance. The Stevens and Mrs. Lent will return home the last of the week.

Rev. and Mrs. D. A. Rood of University Park, Iowa, and Rev. J. Rolfe Graves and Edna Gehman Graves, who have been spending some time visiting his people in Texas motored here arriving Friday p. m. The Roods met the Graves in Chicago Wednesday night, where they came via Wilmore, Ky., to meet the missionary board and secure necessary credentials, etc. They visited Northwestern university, Thursday morning, where Mr. Graves spent two years. They came here to visit their parents and grandparents. Mr. and Mrs. James Boyles, and other relatives, look after some business matters, and pack Edna's belongings. Mr. and Mrs. Graves left Monday afternoon for Philadelphia, and will sail from New York October 21th for Africa as missionaries. A host of relatives and friends wish for them the best of success. Mr. Rood will remain in Michigan for a couple of weeks at his work and Mrs. Rood will spend the time with her parents.

Dr. George Davis and Mrs. Davis came home from Ann Arbor, Monday. The Doctor is able to get about town and is looking fine.

Hugh Barrett spent the week end at Ann Arbor and Dryden, where he visited his grandson, Harold Briggs.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Smith and Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Cook visited Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Jones in Owosso, last Thursday.

Mrs. Dorothy Gutches is recovering from her illness and is able to sit up for a while each day.

Mrs. F. F. Ambrose left Wednesday for an extended visit in Herrin, Illinois, at the home of her nephew, Mr. Laurance A. Hill.

Thursday, October 16, 1930

GRANGE OFFICERS ELECTED OCT. 14 FOR ENSUING YEAR

- Master—E. W. Green
- Overseer—Mrs. Chris VanDerVeere
- Lecturer—Mrs. E. W. Green
- Steward—Elmer Lindberg
- Ass't. Steward—Rinehart Zemke
- Chaplain—E. M. Lent
- Treasurer—A. L. Barningham
- Secretary—Margareta Zemke
- Gatekeeper—John Gaut
- Cores—Hilfred Figg
- Pomona—Dorothy Satterlee
- Flora—Ruth Althouse
- Lady Ass't. Steward—Eliza Gehman

Miss Eliza Gehman has a new all electric Airline seven tube radio.

Mr. and Mrs. John Crue of Hastings visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frankie Rawson, Sunday.

Mr. Oscar Morgan and daughter, Maud have purchased the Morehouse farm.

Thursday, October 23, 1930

Mrs. Lena Todd has been ill the past two weeks with erysipelas in one of her ears and face. Miss Naomi Andrews is caring for her, and a lady from Mulliken is doing the housework. Last reports found her slightly improved.

Mrs. J. E. Pennington and Mr. and Mrs. Walter Davis were Sunday dinner guests at the Clark Wells home in Charlotte, and enjoyed seeing and hearing about the many souvenirs Miss Winifred brought from her trip abroad.

Thursday, November 6, 1930

Dr. Charles M. Huffman returned to her home in Morgantown, W. Va., Monday night, after spending some time here, caring for her mother, Mrs. Lena Todd. Mrs. Todd was able to go home with her daughter and spend some time in Morgantown in hopes of regaining her health.

About 50 mail carriers and wives enjoyed the Wednesday evening last week in our town, having a banquet put on by the L. A. S. of the M. E. church, then listening to a program which consisted of music and song by the Powers girls and Roselyn and Kathlyn Hawkins and Miss Eitel and the Kamenisky orchestra, a talk by Mr. Niles also by Mrs. J. Hoyt of Bellevue, the Michigan State President of the Ladies Auxiliary and readings by Mrs. Hawkins and Mrs. Slout. After the program, both men and ladies organizations held business sessions and elected officers for the coming year. Next meeting will be held in Bellevue, November 22.

Mrs. Alice Knowles and son Gerald, and Russell Young left Tuesday for Florida to spend the winter. Gerald was guiding the boat when they left.

Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Faust have gone to Battle Creek where he has secured work, and are located at 88 Kalamazoo street.

Irvin Powers has a new garage nearly completed, by remodeling his woodshed and making a small addition.

Mr. and Mrs. Herring (Anna Gunn) of Grand Rapids were week end guests at the Hopper home. Mrs. Nellie Hull expects to spend some time at their home this winter. Mrs. Herring, formerly of Vermontville, a graduate of Butterworth Hospital nurses training school, and for years has been assistant to the city physician, Dr. Edwards. Mr. and Mrs. Hopper will be with her brother, Mr. Eugene Morey in Muskegon this winter.