

Uma Bell Kamiensky accompanied by her roommate, Cora Landenberger spent the week end with the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Kamiensky, and Mr. Kamiensky motored to Kalamazoo, Sunday morning taking the girls back. He attended church with Miss Wilma Bell and later in the afternoon attended a symphony in which John Erskine, noted author and writer, took part.

Mrs. Elizabeth Downing came home Friday from several weeks stay at the home of her son Wesley Downing in Grand Ledge.

Miss Helen Woodard, who was obliged because of eye trouble to give up her work at Western Teachers College, has resumed her work there.

Miss Lulu Tubbs, furloughed missionary from Mutambara, Africa, is spending some months in the southern states observing industrial methods in the colored schools of the Southland.

In a letter from the Lynn Grant party touring Florida, written to his parents, they report fine warm weather, nice fish and everybody well. They left St. Petersburg for Miami this week.

Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Hayward, who had been visiting their son Paul and family in Hastings, were guests of Mrs. Laura Satterlee and Mrs. Morehouse Friday and Saturday went from here to their home in Jackson, their son Paul motoring home with them.

Thursday, January 28, 1932

WALTER H. KELLEY

Walter Herbert Kelley, who was born and reared to manhood in Vermontville, died recently in the Yakima Washington city hospital of Brights disease, after a long illness, aged nearly 69. He was the eldest son of Frank W. Kelley and Susan Denton Kelley, and attended the Vermontville schools. He was the last one of his father's family, but leaves a wife, and seven children, all married but one. Walter's home was at Granger, Washington, and he was laid to rest in the home cemetery. Those related to Walter, here in Michigan, are cousins, Mrs. Clark Wells of Charlotte, Mrs. Alice Hallenbeck of Pontiac, Mrs. Flora Taylor, Mrs. Frank Norton, and Mrs. Ella Taylor of Nashville, and Mrs. Will Ferris of Vermontville. The last time Walter was in the home town was when he brought the bodies of his mother and sister, Miss Eva Kelley from Washington to the Vermontville cemetery for burial.

MRS. E. D. BARBER

Mrs. Edward D. Barber passed away at her home in Vermontville, January 18th at eight o'clock in the evening, due to complications following a prolonged but not confining illness of diabetes.

Frances Dancer Barber was born in Sandstone township, Jackson county, February 27, 1868, and was united in marriage to Edward D. Barber in 1886. Three sons were born, one the late Keith L. Barber passed away August 2, 1931.

Mrs. Barber is survived by her husband and two sons, Vance F. Barber of Vermontville and Phil H. Barber of Battle Creek, also two sisters Mrs. C. E. DePlanta of Grand Rapids and Mrs. H. L. Williams of Vermontville, Edward D. Barber II and Homer G. Barber.

Time in passing gives way to memories which will live in pleasant thoughts of the past. The loss to the community and her family will always be remembered by her beautiful disposition and constant consideration for everyone.

Seldom does a death occur without heartaches for some one but Mrs. Barber's passing widens the circle from her family and home community to friends in neighboring cities.

It is difficult to write the tribute necessary to emphasize the sterling qualities and love that was always evident, the loss can never be replaced, but faith that ever meant support lightens the burden.

Those from away who attended Mrs. E. D. Barber's funeral last Thursday were: Mr. and Mrs. N. B. Alsover, Mrs. Elo Bowman, Mr. and Mrs. C. E. DePlanta, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Elenbaas, Mr. and Mrs. L. W. Loveland, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Griswold, all of Grand Rapids; Mr. E. S. Austin, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Moulton and daughter, Mrs. Chas. D. Murphy, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Davis and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Dan Hickey, Mr. and Mrs. Will Hickey, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Grant, Mr. and Mrs. Jones Martin, Mrs. Gene Murray, Battle Creek; Mr. and Mrs. Norman Smith, Mr. Fay Garvey, Detroit; Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Giddings, Mrs. Hazel Williams, Miss Josephine Landphere, Paw Paw; Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Potts, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Potts, Hastings; Mrs. Mae Scarvell, Greenville; Mrs. Jay Mertz, Mr. Louis Lamb, Mrs. Fred Evans, Lansing; Mr. George Spencer, Mr. Albert Murray, Charlotte; Mr. and Mrs. Will Dyer, Mrs. Will Simons, Bellevue; Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Betts, Mrs. E. T. Morris, Mr. H. H. Church, Nashville.

Fred Kroger has been very ill at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Kroger, since he was taken sick on returning from a trip to Battle Creek, Friday. Miss Beglay, a trained nurse of Lansing came Wednesday to help care for him. He passed a very restless night last night and is very low as we go to press. His many friends hope for a speedy recovery.

Jacob Summers, 86, widely known Charlotte resident, died at his home Monday afternoon. Funeral Thursday at 2 p. m. at the A. C. Cheney funeral home. Mr. Summers conducted a general store at Chester station many years.

Mr. Edward Averill reached the four score mark last Sunday, January 24th., and to celebrate the event Mr. and Mrs. Averill spent the week end with their daughter and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Harley Andrews, in Nashville. Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Eitel and Della went over Sunday and a fine birthday dinner was enjoyed.

C. J. Roberts had his tonsils removed at his home Monday morning by Dr. McLaughlin and Dr. Huyck of Sunfield.

Mr. and Mrs. Mart Bailey and Mr. and Mrs. Forest Bursley of Charlotte were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Sherrard.

George McWha, who has been ill in Pennock hospital, Hastings, the past week, was brought home by Dr. Lofdahl of Nashville, Monday.

Lawrence Garlinger, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Garlinger of Castleton township, left Nashville December 27 for Norfolk, Va., where he was assigned to the U. S. S. Langley and sailed January 4 and anchored at Port Everglade, Florida. They visited Miami and were given free bus service while in the city. They spent three days in Cuba, then going around the southern part at Gauntanama Bay on way to Panama, and expect to reach San Diego in February. Lorin Garlinger, who has been in the navy for two years, is at San Pedro on the U. S. S. Maryland expects to meet the Langley at Honolulu. These boys are grandsons of Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Brown of which they are justly proud.

Thursday, February 4, 1932

Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Brown visited their daughter, Mrs. Jesse Garlinger, and family in Castleton township Friday.

Mrs. Etta Hallenbeck has been very poorly for a couple of weeks. Mrs. Gertrude Hawkins has been staying with her.

Max and Eugene Carey were in Lansing Wednesday and attended the Farmers Week program at M. S. C.