

Miss Vera French was united in marriage Saturday evening to Mr. Everette LaChappelle, son of Mrs. Louise Kellogg, Hollywood, Calif. The single ring ceremony was performed by the Rev. Raymond Brown of Griggs St. Evangelical Church at the parsonage. The attendants were Miss Doris Blaine and Harry VanRee, friends of the bride and groom. The bride wore a brown travel crepe dress with matching accessories and a shoulder corsage of salmon tea roses, while Miss Blaine wore a blue crepe dress. A wedding collation was served at the home of her aunt, Mrs. Grace Dille, 1870 Towner Ave., Grand Rapids.

A beautiful wedding cake was the gift of Helen Blaine. The guests present were the friends of bride and groom including Vera's mother, Mrs. Olive French and sister, Mrs. Doris Raze and Miss Margaret Schram.

Beautiful gifts were received at this time. Mr. and Mrs. LaChappelle will be at home in an apartment, Burton Heights, after November 1st.

(Lansing State Journal)

Mrs. Cora B. Mull, a pioneer resident of Ingham county, died at the home, 1735 Bailey street Wednesday evening, October 5. Mrs. Mull is survived by a son, Dr. C. R. Mull of Lansing and two daughters, Mrs. George C. Freemire of Kalamazoo and Miss Ethel E. Mull of this city, also six grandchildren and a sister, Mrs. Henry Bunker of Eaton Rapids. She was a member of Evening Star Lodge No. 342, O. E. S. at Vermontville. The body will be at the residence until Saturday noon. Funeral services will be held at the Estes-Leadley Funeral Home at 1:30 p. m. Saturday, Rev. E. W. Bishop of Plymouth Congregational church officiating. Interment will be at Deepdale cemetery.

Mrs. E. E. Loveland, Mrs. F. F. Ambrose and Mr. E. J. Loveland spent Sunday in Battle Creek at the Gutchess-Berry home, where the celebration was held in honor of Mrs. E. E. Loveland's birthday, which occurred the 11th. Mrs. E. J. Loveland, who has been visiting there for a couple of weeks, returned home with them.

Thursday, October 20, 1932

John Waggoner was taken sick Tuesday night and is under the Doctor's care. Mr. and Mrs. John Waggoner, Miss Matie Waggoner, Will Fox, Allisan Milbourne, Mr. and Mrs. Ilo Ferris and Billie were guests at a surprise birthday party Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Wood, Mrs. Ferris and Billie remained for a few days visit.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Faust enjoyed a weeks' vacation last week motoring to Howard City and as far north as the Straits and spent a few days with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Warner at Warnerville.

Mr. and Mrs. John Hall returned to their home in Fenton, Sunday morning. John harvested 190 bushels of potatoes from about 1-1/2 acres on his mothers place, together with popcorn and a good supply of winter vegetables.

W. B. Thompson has been in poor health for some time. His right arm became diseased and it was necessary to have it amputated above the elbow. The operation was performed at Butterworth hospital, Grand Rapids, Friday morning. He came home Tuesday and is recovering nicely. 136

Quite a number of Vermontville residents took flying trips with Stanley McWhinney, Sunday.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Keith Granger of Lansing, Tuesday, October 18th an eight pound boy, Allen Leo. Congratulations.

Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Titmarsh and family attended the Kroger cooking school meeting in Grand Rapids, Wednesday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Lee Bottomley and mother, Mrs. King of West Sebewa and Mrs. Charles Mankton (Bessie Bottomley) of Cadillac were guests at John Viele's, Sunday.

Reception for Rev. and Mrs. Briggs, Friday evening, October 21. Yourself and family are invited to an Old Fashioned reception for the Pastor and wife to be held at the chapel Friday evening, October 21st.

Please bring one-half dozen doughnuts.

Mrs. John McCarty and daughter Mrs. Wicksall of South Haven were Monday callers at Ned Spragues.

Wayne Cottrell, who underwent a very serious appendicitis operation at Hall hospital several weeks ago, is now able to attend school.

Mrs. M. F. Raze and baby, Janice Ann were brought home Tuesday evening by her sister Vera and husband after a visit with relatives in Grand Rapids.

Mrs. Frank Bailey celebrated her 81st birthday the 12th of October. She has spent nearly all her life in Vermontville. Congratulations.

- Commerce Street Alley
- Albany, Ga., 100-650
- Commercial
- Aberdeen, Wash., 100-123 N
- 100-123 S.
- Adams, Mass., 1-137
- Alpena, Mich., 200-700
- Appleton, Wis., 460-1020

Thursday, October 27, 1932

Mr. and Mrs. V. S. Gutchess and Mr. and Mrs. M. L. Berry have been visiting at the home of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Loveland. Mr. Berry's vacation terminates today and they are returning to Battle Creek, where he is employed by Sullivan's Milk Producers.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Granger, William Gehman and Eliza motored to Lansing Sunday after church and were dinner guests at Dorr Granger's. They also went to Sparrow hospital to see the former's little grandson, Alton Leo, son of Mr. and Mrs. Keith Granger. Everybody doing nicely.

Thursday, November 3, 1932

Mrs. Hayes Tische and four children: Dick, Agnes, Henry and Morris of Centerline, near Detroit, came Saturday afternoon and remained until Monday with her mother Mrs. Sarah Brown. Sunday they attended the funeral of Mrs. Melissa Gokey in Nashville.

Mrs. Bell Hall was hostess to twelve guests at the Ladies Aid supper last night: Mrs. Lois Hawes and daughter Kathleen of Charlotte; Mrs. Anna Thomas, Mrs. Margaret Hawkins and Brunelda, Mrs. Merle Spurrell and daughter Sharon of Lansing, and M. A. Mahar and family.

Thursday, November 10, 1932

Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Weyant and daughter, Calvin Weyant of Lansing; Mr. and Mrs. Lynn Grant and children of Vermontville; Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Weyant and daughter of Kalamo and their guest, Mrs. Welshon of Chicago, were Sunday guests of Mrs. Eva Clark and gave her a farewell party prior to her leaving for Miami, Fla., Tuesday morning. —Charlotte Republican-Trioune.

The Ladies Aid are serving supper to the Eaton County mail carriers at the M. E. Church tonight at 6:30. The committee serving are Mrs. Frank Kroger, Mrs. William Lackey, Mrs. Ed Keith, Mrs. John Gaut, Mrs. Vern French, Mrs. Wm. Ferris and Mrs. Orin Tubbs. The carrier's convention will be held in the auditorium of the church. The ladies are planning on from 150 to 200 people. The carriers have an orchestra as one feature of their entertainment.

- Worcester, Mass., 107-118 E.
- Yazoo City, Miss., 107-118 E.