

Pugh, Homer Barber and friend were guests. The party returned home Sunday evening having been Sunday dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Hinz, parents of Mrs. McLaughlin.

Thursday, November 22, 1934

Mr. and Mrs. B. S. Gregg and son Frank from Belding called on Mrs. Gregg's sister, Mrs. Elmon Love and, and her mother, Mrs. Ambrose Sunday afternoon.

The many friends of Ernest Granger will be glad to know he is improving. He has been in poor health for some weeks and afflicted with numbness in his hands, but that trouble has disappeared.

Mrs. Elmon Loveland is slowly recovering from her painful illness.

Joyce Ann Rodgers is the name assigned to the little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Rodgers of Dutton that arrived Tuesday, November 13th. Her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Irvin Powers, and daughter Christine and Mr. and Mrs. Leo Baker visited her Sunday and report the family fine.

Miss Betty Snell accompanied Mrs. Eula Barber here from Olivet last Thursday for a few hours visit with her aunt Miss Norena Snell. She is attending Olivet College and on Friday had a sudden attack of appendicitis and was taken to the Hayes-Green hospital. She improved and the operation was postponed until December.

Mrs. Ella Cronk and son Homer and her nurse Mrs. Ware, also Mrs. Mabel Althouse and daughter Gwendolyn of near Hastings were dinner guests at Glenn Satterlee's Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. Amos Barber of Lansing came in the afternoon and Mrs. Barber remained for an extended visit with her parents and brother Lynn. Mr. and Mrs. Barber's baby boy is still in the Sparrow hospital, but is doing nicely.

Word was received by Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Lent from Steward, Florida, Monday, that Mrs. Amos Hulett, aged 78, had passed away there. Mr. and Mrs. Hulett who had spent the winters in the south for several years, went to Florida about the first of October. Mrs. Hulett seemingly in much better health at that time than her husband. They were neighbors of Mrs. Helen Mears, at Steward, a former well known Vermontville resident. Mrs. Hulett was a sister of the late Mrs. Fidelia Remalie, and Mrs. Frank Ward of Charlotte. The funeral services will be in Sunfield Friday afternoon at two o'clock.

Mr. and Mrs. Ned Sprague have been in Lansing for an extended visit with their sons Neal and Clyde and families and on Tuesday celebrated their golden wedding anniversary at a family gathering at the home of their son Clyde.

Mr. and Mrs. John C. Pardee, of Alma, who on Tuesday were married 50 years, entertained relatives and friends at dinner Sunday, and kept open house to other friends in the afternoon and evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Sprague and Mr. and Mrs. Pardee were united in marriage in the Vermontville Congregational parsonage November 20, 1884, and the pastor, the Rev. Orange H. Spoor, was the officiating clergyman. Mrs. Pardee was Miss Andrews, a sister of Mrs. Fred Boyd, and Mrs. Sprague Miss Ina Smith.

Thursday, December 6, 1934

MRS. F. J. BAILEY

Amanda S. Bailey was born in Lewiston, N. Y., October 12, 1857, daughter of Charles G. and Anna Shipley Bale. She was of twelve children of whom four survive. She came to Vermontville in 1867 and was married to Frank J. Bailey December 20, 1873, who survives her, also two children Mart D. Bailey of Charlotte and Flossie Lenon of Detroit, also seven grandchildren and seven great grandchildren, also three brothers Sam Bale of North Dakota, Perry Bale of Johnsberg, Mich., Gideon Bale, and one sister Eliza Barnum of Sunfield.

She was a great lover of her home where she and her husband enjoyed life together. She was tenderly cared for in her last days by her husband and Mrs. Joseph Faust and will be greatly missed by those that lived and met with her in her home who have the sympathy of her many friends and neighbors.

Funeral services were held at the Ward funeral home Saturday, Dec. 1st, at two o'clock p. m. and her body laid to rest in Woodlawn cemetery, Elder J. W. Roach officiating.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Charles Dane a seven pound boy on Wednesday evening, December fifth at 8:35 at Sparrow Hospital in Lansing. Both mother and son are doing fine. He will answer to the name of Ronald Charles. While Charlie Dane was over at Lansing Tuesday night his car was stolen from the parking place back of Sparrow hospital where his wife was a patient and was used in a holdup. Mr. Dane was at his wife's bedside the entire night.

After the regular meeting of Evening Star Chapter No. 342 O. E. S. held Tuesday evening, Dec. 4 the officers for the ensuing year were installed at an open meeting. Worthy Matron—Dorothy Faust Worthy Patron—Lester Hammond Asso. Matron—Florence Ward Asso. Patron—Milton Lent Secretary—Martha Zemke Treasurer—Edith Alvoer Conductress—Margareta Zemke Asso. Cond.—Hazel Rogers Chaplain—Zella Hammond Marshal—Lydia Wells Organist—Della Welshon Adah—Helen Woodard Ruth—Nellie Barningham Esther—Mary Mosier Martha—Agnes Howe Electa—Gertrude Andrews Warder—Margaret Coleman Sentinel—Ida Miles

The installing officer was Nellie Barningham; Installing Marshal, Lydia Wells; Chaplain Zella Hammond; Organist, Iva Wilson.

After the Worthy Matron was installed Wilma Bell Kamiensky sang, "Jesus Saviour Pilot Me", al-Lydia Wells, Chaplain, Zella Ham-sh she sang "Sweet Hour of Prayer."

Lydia Wells was presented with a life membership certificate. She is the first sister to receive a life membership certificate from this Chapter, only one certificate being given before hers which was to Mr. C. K. Wells just a short time before his death.

Refreshments were served after the meeting.

Mr. and Mrs. B. S. Gregg and son Frank of Belding, Mr. and Mrs. V. S. Gutches and son, Nolan, Mr. and Mrs. M. L. Berry and son Ronald, and Miss Ruth Gregg of Battle Creek and Mrs. E. E. Loveland spent Thanksgiving Day with Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Loveland and Mrs. Ambrose.

ANNOUNCE ENGAGEMENT AT BRIDGE PARTY MEET

Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Wilson of Vermontville announced the engagement of their daughter, Helen Barbara, to Max Wiledon, son of Dr. L. A. Wiledon and Mrs. Wiledon of Mason, at a bridge party Saturday afternoon. The wedding will be January 1.

The news was disclosed when the guests were seated for refreshments. On the table was a center piece of yellow and green ribbon flowers and streamers of these same colors ran to each place. When the guests pulled the streamer they found the announcements.

The guests were the Misses Margaret Thompson, Mary McLaughlin, Alice Ploof, Martha Zemke, Wilma Belle Kamiensky, Mrs. Neil McLaughlin, and Mrs. Milton Lamb.