

Among the Gold "When You and I Were Young Maggie", Walter Ford, Ernest Perry, Edson Ford, Luren Strait
 Reading, "Ulysses", Mrs. Byron Hallenbeck
 Solo, "Darby and Joan", Mrs. Welshon
 Selection, "Long, Long Ago"
 The Choir
 Poem, Mrs. Grant Hawkins
 Renewal of Wedding vows, a wedding ceremony for the 50th anniversary.
 Remarks, Mr. Stevens
 Greetings from the Congregational Church, Rev. Walter A. Briggs
 Original poem, written by Mrs. Ada Tyler, Whipple, read by Mrs. Una B. Moss
 Letter of greeting from Rev. Clark Phillips
 Original poem, written and read by Mrs. Orin Tubbs
 Presentation of a coxwell chair to Mr. and Mrs. Stevens from friends and neighbors, Byron Hallenbeck, spokesman
 A reception followed the program, during which tea and wafers were served in the church parlors, with Mrs. E. B. Hepker and Mrs. Ralph Walsh pouring.

Thursday, January 31, 1935

Sunday evening about nine o'clock when Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Frith and Bertha were eating lunch a car drove into their yard and the honking of the horn took Mr. Frith to the door. A woman's voice inquired: "Can we stay here over night, we have had some car trouble and need a place to stay." Of course Joe being of a kindly nature, consented, and they were invited in. As they appeared quite familiar for strangers, they were given a little closer scrutiny and they were made most welcome when the Friths recognized them as Mrs. Frith's brother George Dean and wife of Parma Idaho. Mr.

and Mrs. Dean had been in the west twenty-eight years and it had been sixteen years since Mrs. Frith had seen her brother. Mrs. Dean, before her marriage, was Miss Grace White, a teacher in Vermontville schools for two years. They have four grown children, the eldest son is married and has one child. They will visit for several weeks before returning home. They reported a fine trip with no snow until this side of Chicago.

Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Stevens received a letter of congratulation from Rev. Earl Scott and in the letter he states that he will lead the devotionals on NBC network WJZ at eight a. m., February 8th. He says everything is lovely with them.

Mr. and Mrs. M. A. Mahar are the proud parents of a baby girl, Magdelen Louise, 8 1/4 pounds, who arrived at Hall hospital Thursday night, January 24th. Mother and baby doing nicely.

Mr. and Mrs. M. L. Berry and son and Miss Ruth Gregg of Battle Creek spent Saturday p. m. and Sunday at the home of Mr. E. J. Loveland, who is slowly recovering from his leg injury.

Ernest Granger met with a very serious accident last Thursday afternoon as he was salting his sheep. A ram bunted him breaking a blood vessel in his left leg, and because of the condition of his blood makes it very serious. The skin was not broken but the leg is badly swollen and very painful. He is resting a little easier. He had been in poor health for months, but had been gaining and was able to attend the church services and golden wedding anniversary celebration January 20. His many friends are indeed sorry for his unfortunate experience and hope for his speedy recovery.

Thursday, February 7, 1935

Residents of the village and college have been interested to learn that George C. Sprague, alumnus of the college and trustee, member of a New York firm of marine lawyers, is in Japan trying a case for a shipping firm at Kobe. Mr. Sprague gave the graduating address to the senior class last June when his daughter was a member of the group. Two other daughters are enrolled here. The Olivet trustee came to the college from Vermontville, where his people are descended from pioneers in that territory. His trip to the orient was comprised of an areoplane flight from the east to Seattle, Washington, followed by his sailing from Vancouver, British Columbia.

168
 Twin girls were born to Mr. and Mrs. Donald Kamiensky Friday evening—Joy Ann and Joyce Lee, weighing 4 and 4 1/2 pounds. They are at the home of her parents Mr. and Mrs. Easy in Kalamo township. They arrived on their sister's first birthday.

Thursday, February 14, 1935

JOHN E. MCINTIRE

John E. McIntire, son of James and Kathryn McIntire, was born in Green Springs, Ohio, March 28, 1851, and spent his early boyhood in that vicinity. He passed from this life at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Theron S. Fetterman Feb. 5, 1935.

He was united in marriage to Elizabeth Nevills of New London, Ontario, and to this union was born eight children, three daughters and five sons.

Mrs. McIntire passed to the higher life March 15, 1908.

Mr. McIntire brought his family to Michigan in 1882 and settled on a farm three miles east of Vermontville, later moving to Charlotte. He has always been an honest upright citizen and leaves to mourn the loss four children and five grandchildren and two great-grandchildren. The children are John and Bert of Battle Creek; Mrs. Frank W. Bryan of Northville and Mrs. Theron S. Fetterman of Charlotte; an uncle, Oscar Myers of Green Springs, Ohio, one brother, Geo. McIntire of Findley, Ohio, two sisters, Mrs. Ida Wolfe of Cleveland and Mrs. Forest Steven of Green Springs and a step-mother, Mrs. Wealthy McIntire.

The funeral services were held at the A. C. Cheney funeral home in Charlotte Thursday afternoon, Feb. 7, 1935. Rev. Roth of the Congregational church officiated and interment was made in the Maple Hill cemetery.

Thursday, February 21, 1935

Mr. and Mrs. B. S. Gregg and son, of Belding, Mr. and Mrs. V. S. Gutches and son and Mr. and Mrs. M. L. Berry and son of Battle Creek were here Sunday to celebrate the second birthday of little Nolan Gutches, at the home of his grandfather, E. J. Loveland. Mrs. Ambrose returned to Battle Creek to spend a week or two with her grandchildren.

Mrs. Squires is packing her household goods and she and her children will return to New York.