

A son was born Wednesday, February 6, to Mr. and Mrs. Donald Chapin at Midland. Mrs. Chapin will be remembered as Miss Glenna Lake, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Lake of Charlotte.

John Lazo Sr. has bought the George Gunn farm in S. E. Vermontville, and is moving this week from their home on East Main street, known for many years as the Morey place.

L. W. Loveland was taken very ill Sunday and Mrs. Loveland was summoned home from Detroit, his mother caring for him until she arrived. Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Murray and Katherine bringing her home Sunday night. Mr. Murray was in much distress while they were here and on returning to Detroit Monday was taken to a hospital where he underwent an appendicitis operation. Gangrene had developed and he got there none too soon. Mr. Loveland is still confined to his bed but is improving.

A large company of Dean relatives held a reunion Sunday afternoon at the old farm home occupied and owned by E. C. Rockafellar and family. The potluck dinner and gathering was in honor of Mr. and Mrs. George Dean, who are here on a visit. The company numbered forty-seven. Those present were Mrs. Margaret Dean and Russell of Detroit, Capt. R. M. Dean of Camp Grant, Rockford, Ill., Mrs. Dean of Centerville, (Mr. Dean closed his pastorate there Feb. 10 and they will move to Ill.), Mr. and Mrs. B. J. Richardson of Lansing and daughter of Charlotte, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Roath and children, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Duncan and Bernadine of Charlotte, Mr. and Mrs. Nelson Mead of Flint, Mr. and Mrs. George Dean of Parma, Idaho, Mr. and Mrs. Sheldon Carney of Midland, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Dean, Jackie Richardson, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Frith and Bertha, Mr. and Mrs. Dean Frith and family, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Frith and family, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Todd and Richard, E. C. Rockafellar and Curtis.

Thursday, February 28, 1935

Mrs. Cutler, wife of Dr. J. D. Cutler, of Newport News, Virginia, is the guest of her aunt Mrs. Etta Chance, for a few days and called on friends in town Wednesday. About thirty-five years ago she made her home with her uncle Robert Chance and attended Vermontville school about two years and will be remembered as Jessie McMore. Dr. and Mrs. Cutler have six children, three boys and three girls. One daughter teaches in their local school, one son works in their local newspaper, and another son is in college and the others are still in Newport News schools. Mrs. Cutler came to Michigan to accompany the body of her uncle, Mr. Mesmer, to Nashville. She will visit in Grand Rapids before returning home.

Thursday, March 7, 1935

Miss Norena Snell received word Wednesday that Betty Snell was taken with appendicitis, and they rushed her to St. Lawrence hospital, in Lansing. Dr. Dana Snell operated. She has had several attacks since she has been in Olivet college. Her father, LeRoy Snell of Detroit is in Lansing.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Warner and Mrs. Hope of Nashville were Sunday afternoon callers at the O. B. Tubbs home. Mrs. Hope had been spending some time helping care for her triplet great grandchildren at the home of her daughter Mrs. Hector Hawkins.

Sunday afternoon Mr. and Mrs. V. S. Gutchess and son brought their grandmother, Mrs. F. F. Ambrose home from her two week's visit in Battle Creek, and on Monday afternoon Mr. and Mrs. M. L. Berry and son came over to spend a day with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Loveland.

Thursday, March 14, 1935

GRANGER—CHILDS

Miss Marjorie Granger and Mr. Kenneth Childs surprised their friends when they were united in marriage by Rev. T. W. Thompson at Woodland Saturday evening. They were attended by Mr. and Mrs. Leo Baker.

Mrs. Childs is the youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Granger of Kalamo township, and Kenneth is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Fay Childs of Sunfield township. Kenneth graduated from the Vermontville High School, class of '26, while Marjorie graduated in '31, and took a course at W. S. T. C., Kalamazoo. They are living with the groom's parents on the farm and Kenneth is working on the road.

The Echo and their many friends wish for them a happy and useful married life.

Frank Smith and Walter Davis called Monday afternoon on Fred Pendill who is being cared for at the home of his sister Mrs. Ralph Perkey, east of Grand Ledge. Mr. Pendill was taken there about seven weeks ago. They report him improving and about the house, and hopeful that he will be able to return home.

Mr. and Mr. Will Northrup and family have moved this week from East Main street where they have lived several years, to Douglass McWha's house opposite Frank Kroger's on West Main street.

Mrs. Mae Wright and son Tom Wright and family of Lansing visited her father P. W. Sprague, Sunday afternoon. Howard and Blanche Hay were also here for the week end.

Hollis Campbell of Cleveland, O. called on his sister Mrs. Ernest Rawson Wednesday afternoon while in this part of the state on a business trip for his coal company.

Thursday, March 28, 1935

Mrs. F. F. Ambrose was 78 years old last Friday, the 22nd, and on Sunday the family, with the exception of Bill Gregg, who is still in California, gathered at the Ambrose-Loveland home in her honor. Two birthday cakes graced the table, one being a gift from Mrs. Eva Clapper, and was heart-shaped and beautifully decorated. She received many acceptable gifts and cards and wishes for many more such happy days.

In a letter to his aunt, Norena Snell, John Warren wrote that during the recent battle manoeuvres of the Pacific Fleet his ship the U. S. S. Preble, did so well that they received special commendation from the Commander of the Squadron. John is Range inder for the gun on his ship.

Charlotte Republican-Tribune

Mrs. Ion Shepherd is to have an F. E. R. A. job as investigator.

Mr. and Mrs. Glenn A. Lake were guests of Mr. and Mrs. R. P. Hibbard of East Lansing Wednesday evening and accompanied them to church night at the Peoples church. Entertainment during the dinner hour was furnished by a thirteen piece band composed of eleven high school boys and two college freshmen, under the direction of Douglas Lake of Charlotte, who is just completing the second term of a chemical engineering course at M. S. C.

Thursday, April 4, 1935

THE ELECTION

The spring election was rather a tame affair, 361 votes being cast. This is better than 100 under the general average. On the State ticket the Republicans took everything and in the Township ticket all officers were elected on the Republican ticket except one, Lloyd Faust taking fourth constable.

The town meeting voted a thous-