MRS. CINDARILLA MOSIER

The deceased whose maiden name was Cinderilla Hollister, was born in Gustavus, Ohio, December 15, 1844 and passed away at her home in Vermontville, Michigan, March 29th, 1935, being aged at death 90 years, 3 months, and 14 days.

She was married to Lyman Mosier on March 20th, 1861, and to them was born one son, Lee Mosier, who passed away June 15th, 1919.

She went through the experiences of many of the wives of her time, when in 1864 her husband enlisted in the army and gave a part of his life to the preservation of his country during the war of the Rebellion.

Some time after his return from the war, in 1869, she came with her husband and small son to Eaton County, residing for the most part in Chester Township.

Her life companion passed away December 15th, 1921, after the two had enjoyed a married companionship of nearly 61 years.

With her son's widow, after the death of her husband in 1927, she came to live in Vermontville which continued to be her home till she left us last Friday.

Mrs. Mosier was a neighborly, kind, sympathetic friend, whose acts of mercy and kindness will long be remembered.

Whenever occasion demanded she always forgot her own self in the interest of those who needed her help.

She was a blessing to the world and an inspiration to all who knew her to live helpful, kindly, sympathetic lives.

Funeral services were held at the home on East First street at two o'clock Sunday afternoon, conducted by Rev. W. A. Briggs, and were largely attended by relatives, neighbors and friends. The floral tributes show the love and esteem in which Mrs. Mosier was held. The bearers were: Loy Cline, Ernest Cline, Dell Sprague, Bert Bottomley, Dorr Andrews and Byron Hallenbeck.

Burial was made on the family plot in Gresham cemetery.

Lawrence D. Benedict has been elected commander of DeMolai commandery, No. 5, Knights Templar, one of the oldest fraternal bodies in Grand Rapids, to succeed Richard W. Atwell, who retired and terminated a most unusual fraternal record. Mr. Benedict is a former Vermontville boy, youngest son of the late Mr. and Mrs. William H. Benedict, and his wife a sister of the late W. P. Slout. Mr. and Mrs. L. D. Benedict have lived in Grand Rapids for many years.

The recent out of town callers at Eugene Carey's were Mr. and Mrs. James Brown, Mr. and Mrs. Bert Bottomley and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Arnold of Chester.

Mrs. Morgan Biggs (Myrtle Mitchell) of Detroit called on Miss Jennie Martin last Thursday on her return from attending Mrs. Ida Lake's funeral in Nashville.

Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Lent have rented the Mrs. Etta Hallenbeck house, corner of East Main and Maple streets of Mrs. A. W. Hill and will move soon, as Jesse Lamb and family vacate the first of next week.

Mrs. Eula Barber motored over from Olivet Tuesday and Miss Betty Snell accompanied her to visit her aunt Miss Norena Snell. Mrs. Barber and Edward, accompanied by Mrs. Hepker, spent the afternoon in Lansing.

A baby boy, Robert Elon, was born to Mr. and Mrs. Laurence R. Tubbs, early Friday morning, April 5th. He was taken to Hayes-Green hospital, Charlotte, and placed in an incubator, but lived only a few hours. Burial was made at Woodlawn cemetery Saturday.

The fire department was called to the F. R. Kroger home shortly before six o'clock Sunday night where sparks from a chimney had set fire to the roof over the bay window, the only shingles on that side of the house, and burned a place about four feet square and had reached the inside of the house. The quick work of the fire department soon had the flames under control.

Ben Faust, a resident of Vermontville some twenty years ago, passed away at his home midway between Charlotte and Eaton Rapids Tuesday, and his funeral is being held today. Mr. Faust has three brothers in Vermontville; Joseph, Jacob and Allen Faust. The Ben Faust family lived in the Hawes house, now occupied by the Fridley family, when they resided in Vermontville.

FREDERICK E. RAWSON

Frederick Eastman Rawson, the fifth son of Zera and Martha Rawson, was born July 24, 1858 at Pittsfield, Lorain County, Ohio. At Wellington, Ohio, July 24, 1883 he was united in marriage to Mettie Hurd of Wellington whose death came December 18th, 1933 at Vermontville.

Directly after their marriage they came to Vermontville and he established a grocery business with his brother Henry Rawson in the Hunter & Dane building and when a fire destroyed the contents of the building Mr. and Mrs. Rawson moved to the farm with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Zera Rawson and did their work for them for a time.

Later they rented the James Boyles farm north of town where they lived for three years, then moved to LaGrange, Ohio, for one year. Returning they entered into an agreement with the older people to care for them and the farm while they lived. This they did and at their death Frederick bought the share of the other heirs in the homestead, later purchasing the Rawson house on West Main street.

The only child, Mrs. Luella Morgan of Charlotte, who spent most of her life in close and loving companionship with her parents, was with him when the passing came. He leaves beside Mrs. Morgan two sisters, Mrs. Laura Newton of Santa Rosa, California, and Mrs. Sara Avery of Wellington, Ohio, five brothers and one sister having preceded him.

A happy day was spent at the home of E. J. Loveland, when their children and grandsons drove over from Battle Creek to share the Easter Sunday dinner with them and the great-grandmothers, Mrs. F. F. Ambrose and Mrs. E. E. Loveland. The little folks were made glad with fluffy chickens and bunnies, and gifts appropriate to the day were exchanged.
